Cultivating Communities Of Practice A Guide To Managing Knowledge Etienne Wenger:

Cultivating Communities of Practice Etienne Wenger, Richard A. McDermott, William Snyder, 2002-01-08 Today's economy is fueled by knowledge. Every leader knows this to be true yet few have systematic methods for converting organizational knowledge into economic value. This book argues that communities of practice groups of individuals formed around common interests and expertise provide the ideal vehicle for driving knowledge management strategies and building lasting competitive advantage. Written by leading experts in the field, Cultivating Communities of Practice is the first book to outline models and methods for systematically developing these essential groups. Through compelling research and company examples including DaimlerChrysler, McKinsey Company, Shell, and the World Bank, authors Etienne Wenger, Richard McDermott, and William M. Snyder show how world-class organizations have leveraged communities of practice to drive strategy, generate new business opportunities, solve problems, transfer best practices, develop employees' professional skills, and recruit and retain top talent. Underscoring the new central role communities of practice are playing in today's knowledge economy, Cultivating Communities of Practice is the definitive guide to fostering, designing, and developing these powerful groups within and across organizations.

Cultivating Communities of Practice Etienne Wenger, 2002 Cultivating Communities of Practice Etienne Wenger, Richard McDermott, William M. Snyder, 2002 Knowledge Management Handbook Jay Liebowitz, 2012-06-25 Recent research shows that collaboration and social networking can foster knowledge sharing and innovation by sparking new connections, ideas, and practices. Yet these informal networks are often misunderstood and poorly managed. Building on the groundbreaking bestselling first edition of the Knowledge Management Handbook, this new edition focuses on collaboration and social networking. Topics covered include implementing a knowledge sharing culture, embedding knowledge management activities to encourage collaboration, developing a knowledge retention strategy, applying social network analysis to map knowledge flows, and using systems engineering approaches for collaboration and social networking.

In 2019, community colleges accounted for 41 percent of all undergraduate students in the United States. Community college librarians are engaged in meaningful work, designing and delivering library programs and services that meet the needs of their diverse populations and support student learning. The Community College Library series is meant to lift the voices of community college librarians and highlight their creativity, tenacity, and commitment to students. The Community College Library Assessment explores the research, comprehensive plans, and new approaches to assessment being created by community college librarians around the U.S. Chapters include sample activities and materials and cover topics including assessing student learning while shifting from Standards to Framework, investigating and communicating library instruction's relationship to student retention, and building librarian assessment confidence through communities of research practice. This book demonstrates the innovative and replicable ways community college librarians are measuring evaluating and reflecting on the services they provide and how to use these assessments to demonstrate the value and impact of library services and advocate for resources

Campbell,Sarah Nagle,2025-08-07 This book is designed to empower librarians to develop their research skills and embrace their identities as scholars Many librarians particularly those in academic libraries are expected to engage in research and scholarly output However unlike disciplinary faculty most librarians have not completed a PhD program and many have never designed or participated in original research upon embarking on their career This edited volume provides inspiration and support for academic librarians looking to develop or refresh their research skills and develop their scholarly identities The focus of this book is toward empowering librarians as researchers rather than librarians supporting student or faculty research This book provides a venue for librarians to share their knowledge on different aspects of research as well as build community for other librarians to actualize their own identities as researchers The existing literature and research in the realm of librarian identity development often touches on librarian identities in the face of emerging technologies and new library types or how librarians can support research at their institutions However there is a gap in the literature around librarians developing their own identities as researchers Librarians have a unique role in the scholarly community we often sacrifice our own research interests so that we can provide support and instruction to others whether it be faculty students or the public But the library world holds immense opportunity for developing and executing original research Additionally conducting research is beneficial to librarians individual practice as well as the library community as a whole This edited volume will provide guidance as well as actionable methods for librarians to develop foundational research philosophies create communities of practice and hone practical skills in a wide range of research areas      Learning in Development Olivier Serrat,2010 Learning in Development tells the story of independent evaluation in ADB from its early years to the expansion of activities under a broader mandate points up the application of knowledge management to sense making and brings to light the contribution that knowledge audits can make to organizational learning It identifies the 10 challenges that ADB must overcome to develop as a learning organization and specifies practicable next steps to conquer each The messages of Learning in Development will echo outside ADB and appeal to the development community and people having interest in knowledge and learning      A Community of Practice Approach to Improving Gender Equality in Research Rachel Palmén,Jörg Müller,2022-08-03 Bringing together the latest research among various communities of practice disciplinary and place based as well as thematically organised this volume reflects upon the knowledge experience and practice gained through taking a unique community of practice approach to fostering gender equality in the sectors of research and innovation and higher education in Europe and beyond Based on research funded by the European Union it considers how inter organisational collaboration can foster change for gender equality through sharing of experiences of Gender Equality Plan implementation and examining the role of measures such as change monitoring systems As such it will appeal to social scientists with interests in organisational change the sociology of work and gender equality Extra/Ordinary Maria Elena Buszek,2011-03-04 Artists critics curators and scholars develop theories of craft in relation to art chronicle how fine art institutions understand and exhibit craft media and offer accounts of activist crafting The Multilingual Jesus and the Sociolinguistic World of the New Testament Hughson T. Ong,2015-10-05 In The Multilingual Jesus and the Sociolinguistic World of the New Testament Hughson Ong provides a study of the multifarious social and linguistic dynamics that compose the speech community of ancient Palestine which include its historical linguistic shifts under different military regimes its geographical linguistic landscape the social functions of the languages in its linguistic repertoire and the specific types of social contexts where those languages were used Using a sociolinguistic model his study attempts to paint a portrait of the sociolinguistic situation of ancient Palestine This book is arguably the most comprehensive treatment of the subject matter to date in terms of its survey of the secondary literature and of its analysis of the sociolinguistic environment of first century Palestine The Sociology of Sports Coaching Robyn L.
