Cultural Migrants And Optimal Language Acquisition Second Language Acquisition:

Cultural Migrants and Optimal Language Acquisition Fanny Forsberg Lundell, Inge Bartning, 2015-08-04 This volume investigates cultural migrants people who from their own free will move to another country because of their interest in the target language and culture Chapters include studies on cultural migrants acquiring French Italian Spanish and English and consider linguistic psycholinguistic sociolinguistic and pragmatic aspects of language acquisition Cultural migrants have social and psychological advantages when acquiring a second language as adults and the study of their linguistic knowledge and production increases our understanding of the possibilities and limits of L2 ultimate attainment The work thus fills a gap in our understanding of high level proficiency and will be of interest to researchers working in the field of SLA as well as to social scientists studying the relationship between language culture and integration

Second Language Acquisition and Lifelong Learning Simone E. Pfenninger, Julia Festman, David Singleton, 2023-05-05 Language fundamentally defines and distinguishes us as humans as members of society and as individuals As we go through life our relationship with language and with learning shifts and changes but it remains significant This book is an up to date resource for graduate students and researchers in second language L2 acquisition who are interested in language learning across the lifespan The main goal is to survey and evaluate what is known about the linguistic cognition affect associations that occur in L2 learning from birth through senescence passing through the stages of childhood adolescence adulthood and third age the extent to which L2 acquisition may be seen as contributing to healthy and active aging the impact of the development of personalized technology enhanced communicative L2 environments and how these phenomena are to be approached scientifically and methodologically The effects of certain specific variables such as gender socio economic background and bilingualism are also analyzed as we argue that chronological age does not determine the positioning of L2 learners across the lifespan age is part of a complex web of social distinctions such as psychological and individual factors that intersect in the construction of a learner's relative status and opportunities

Dynamics of L2 Sociolinguistic Development in Adulthood

Mason A. Wirtz, 2025-04-17 This book constitutes a holistic study of sociolinguistic development among adult second language L2 learners in a naturalistic setting Combining results from a cross sectional and longitudinal micro development study it examines the acquisition of both the productive and interpretive skills necessary to engage with the contextually sensitive use of vernacularity in Austria The studies focus on issues of inter and intra individual variation and aim to shed much needed light on why L2 learners acquire sociolinguistic variation which aspects of it they acquire which factors influence it and when they acquire it Drawing on methodological and theoretical frameworks from diverse fields such as developmental and cognitive psychology psycho and sociolinguistics as well as second language acquisition the book connects topics rarely found in the same empirical piece including the role of cognitive functioning and socioaffective factors the temporal specificity of L2 sociolinguistic development in production and perception and the issue of group to individual generalizability The studies showcased in this work provide ample evidence that late starters of a L2 in early adulthood and midlife can acquire the skills necessary to successfully navigate the complex sociolinguistic variation within the target language community but the process is certainly not one without hurdles

Personality and Emotional Intelligence in Second Language Learning Katarzyna Ożańska-Ponikwia, 2018-07-27 This book addresses a particularly important area of second language acquisition research specifically the factors that mediate learning outcomes in learning a second or foreign language It provides a comprehensive up to date overview of studies in the field of second language learning and L2 use from the point of view of personality traits and emotional intelligence It also presents results of a mixed method study researching the possible influence of these variables on the process of learning a second language Furthermore the book represents the first systematic exploration of the role of emotional intelligence and the factors related to it in moderating attainment in the target language What is also unique here is the investigation of the role of personality with respect to different target language skills and subsystems which allows finer grained insights into this relationship The book will be of considerable interest to both researchers teachers and students in the fields of SLA TESOL applied linguistics and bilingualism
