Name: Paula Rodriguez Diaz

Student ID: 1000000000

Keep this worksheet confidentially graded. patient information should not be included

Describe your patient case, or the situation you faced and how you handled it.

I was working with a pregnant woman who was 36 weeks. I was at home at the time. She had a high-risk pregnancy due to a history of gestational diabetes. She was also experiencing some pain in her back. I advised her to rest and to drink plenty of water. I also recommended that she call her doctor if the pain worsened or if she had any other symptoms. I followed up with her a few days later and she was doing well.

What advice, strategy or skill did you use to solve the problem?

My strategy was to listen to the patient and to provide her with the information she needed.
