Daughters Of Absence Transforming A Legacy Of Loss:

Daughters of Absence Mindy Weisel, 2000 Creative daughters transform their parents Holocaust darkness into a celebration of life It's Absence, Presently John McGreal, 2016-04-20 It's Silence Soundly It's Nothing Seriously and It's Absence Presently continue The It Series published by Matador since The Book of It 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and audial dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago In their aesthetic form the books are a decentred trilogy united together in a new concept of The Bibliograph All three present this new aesthetic object which transcends the narrow limits of the academic bibliography The alphabetical works also share a tripartite structure and identical length The Bibliograph itself is characterised by its strategic place within each book as a whole as well as by the complex variations in meaning of the dominant motifs nothingness absence and silence which recur throughout the alphabetical entries that constitute the elements of each text It's Nothing Seriously for example addresses the amusing paradox that so much continues to be written today about nothing The aleatory character of the entries in the texts encourage the modern reader to reflect on each theme and to read them in a new way The reader is invited as well to examine their various inter textual relations across given conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical social reproduction Children in the Holocaust and its Aftermath Sharon Kangisser Cohen, Eva Fogelman, Dalia Ofer, 2017-04-01 The testimonies of individuals who survived the Holocaust as children pose distinct emotional and intellectual challenges for researchers as now adult interviewees recall profound childhood experiences of suffering and persecution they also invoke their own historical awareness and memories of their postwar lives requiring readers to follow simultaneous disparate narratives This interdisciplinary volume brings together historians psychologists and other scholars to explore child survivors accounts With a central focus on the Kestenberg Holocaust Child Survivor Archive's over 1 500 testimonies it not only enlarges our understanding of the Holocaust empirically but illuminates the methodological theoretical and institutional dimensions of this unique form of historical record Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka, 2012-10-01 In Disappearing Traces Dorota Glowacka examines the tensions between the ethical and aesthetic imperatives in literary artistic and philosophical works about the Holocaust in a search for new ways to understand the traumatic past and its impact on the present She engages with the work of leading 20th century philosophers and theorists including Levinas Benjamin Lyotard and Derrida to consider the role of language in the construction and transmission of traumatic memories the relation between self identity and the act of bearing witness and the ethical implications of representing trauma Glowacka's work draws on a wide range of discourses and disciplines bringing into conversation various genres of writing and artistic production It reveals the need to find innovative idioms and new means of engaging with the past and to create alliances between different disciplines and modes of representing the past that transform and transcend existing paradigms of representation Memory Work Nina Fischer, 2015-09-27 Memory Work

studies how Jewish children of Holocaust survivors from the English speaking diaspora explore the past in literary texts By identifying areas where memory manifests Objects Names Bodies Food Passover 9 11 it shows how the Second Generation engage with the pre Holocaust family and their parents survival Projecting the Holocaust into the Present Lawrence Baron, 2005-11-01 Most Holocaust scholars and survivors contend that the event was so catastrophic and unprecedented that it defies authentic representation in feature films Yet it is precisely the extremity of the Final Solution and the issues it raised that have fueled the cinematic imagination since the end of World War II Recognizing that movies reach a greater audience than eyewitness historical or literary accounts Lawrence Baron argues that they mirror changing public perceptions of the Holocaust over time and place After tracing the evolution of the most commonly employed genres and themes in earlier Holocaust motion pictures he focuses on how films from the 1990s made the Holocaust relevant for contemporary audiences While genres like biographical films and love stories about doomed Jewish Gentile couples remained popular they now cast Jews or non Jewish victims like homosexuals in lead roles more often than was the case in the past Baron attributes the recent proliferation of Holocaust comedies and children s movies to the search for more figurative and age appropriate genres for conveying the significance of the Holocaust to generations born after it happened He contends that thematic shifts to stories about neo Nazis rescuers survivors and their children constitute an expression of the continuing impact the Holocaust exerts on the present The book concludes with a survey of recent films like Nowhere in Africa and The Pianist

Jewish Families in Europe, 1939-Present Joanna Beata Michlic, 2017-01-03 This book offers an extensive introduction and 13 diverse essays on how World War II the Holocaust and their aftermath affected Jewish families and Jewish communities with an especially close look at the roles played by women youth and children Focusing on Eastern and Central Europe themes explored include how Jewish parents handled the Nazi threat rescue and resistance within the Jewish family unit the transformation of gender roles under duress youth s wartime and early postwar experiences postwar reconstruction of the Jewish family rehabilitation of Jewish children and youth and the role of Zionism in shaping the present and future of young survivors Relying on newly available archival material and novel research in the areas of families youth rescue resistance gender and memory this volume will be an indispensable guide to current work on the familial and social history of the Holocaust The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012 First Published in 2012 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century Amy E. Randall, 2021-12-16 Focusing on events in Rwanda Armenia and the former Yugoslavia as well as the Holocaust Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century investigates how historically and culturally specific ideas led to genocidal sexual violence Expert contributors also consider how these ideas in conjunction with issues relating to femininity masculinity and understandings of gendered identities contributed to perpetrators tools and strategies for ethnic cleansing and genocide The 2nd edition features Five brand new chapters which explore imperialism race gender and genocide the Cambodian genocide memory and intergenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma and genocide gender and memory in the Armenian case An extended and enhanced introduction which makes use of recent scholarship on gender and violence Historiographical and bibliographical updates throughout Key primary document excerpt from the 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide Updated and revised in its second edition Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century is the authoritative study on the complex gender dimensions of ethnic cleansing and genocide in the 20th century Etched in Flesh and Soul Batya Brutin,2021-12-06 A series of numbers was tattooed on prisoners forearms only at one location the Auschwitz concentration camp complex Children parents grandparents mostly Jews but also a significant number of non Jews scarred for life Indelibly etched with a number into their flesh and souls constantly reminding them of the horrors of the Holocaust References to the Auschwitz number appear in artworks from the Holocaust period and onwards by survivors and non survivor artists and Jewish and non Jewish artists These artists refer to the number from Auschwitz to portray the Holocaust and its meaning This book analyzes the place that the image of the Auschwitz number occupies in the artist s consciousness and how it is grasped in the collective perception of different societies It discusses how the Auschwitz number is used in public and private Holocaust commemoration Additionally the book describes the use of the Auschwitz number as a Holocaust icon to protest warn and fight against Holocaust denial Keepers of Memory Jennifer Rich,2019-11-20 Keepers of Memory answers the question of how descendants of Holocaust survivors remember the Holocaust the event that preceded their birth but has shaped their lives Through personal stories and in depth interviews Rich examines the complicated relationship between history truth and memory Keepers of Memory explores topics that include how stories of survival become stories of either empowerment or trauma for the descending generations career choice as a form of commemoration religion and family life Ultimately this work paints a compelling picture of the promises and pitfalls of memory and points to implications for memory and commemoration in the coming generations Cancer Happens Rebecca Gifford,2003 An inspiration for all cancer patients this young cancer survivor relates her experiences with edgy humor honesty and hope Decentering Relational Theory Lewis Aron,Sue Grand,Joyce A. Slochower,2018-06-13 Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique invites relational theorists to contemplate the influence overlaps and relationship between relational theory and other perspectives Self critique was the focus of De Idealizing Relational Theory Decentering Relational Theory pushes critique in a different direction by explicitly engaging the questions of theoretical and clinical overlap and lack thereof with writers from other psychoanalytic orientations In part this comparison involves critique but in part it does not It addresses issues of influence both bidirectional and unidimensional Our authors took up this challenge in different ways Like our authors in De Idealizing writers who contributed to Decentering were asked to move beyond their own perspective without stereotyping alternate perspectives Instead they seek to expand our understanding of the convergences and divergences between different relational perspectives and those of other theories Whether to locate relational thought in a broader theoretical envelope make links to other theories address critiques leveled at us or push relational thinking forward our contributors thought outside the box The kinds of comparisons they were asked to make were challenging We are grateful to them for having taken up this challenge Decentering Relational Theory A Comparative Critique will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists across the theoretical spectrum God, Faith & Identity from the Ashes Menachem Z. Rosensaft, 2014-11-10 A Powerful Life Affirming New Perspective on the Holocaust Almost ninety children and grandchildren of Holocaust survivors theologians scholars spiritual leaders authors artists political and community leaders and media personalities from sixteen countries on six continents reflect on how the memories transmitted to them have affected their lives Profoundly personal stories explore faith identity and legacy in the aftermath of the Holocaust as well as our role in ensuring that future genocides and similar atrocities never happen again

Raizman, Bea

Hollander-Goldfein, 2013-11-12 Narrative Reflections presents a series of poignant personal reflections by mental health professionals triggered by reading interviews of Holocaust survivors and their families Inspired by the practice of narrative therapy these essays bear witness to the experience of survivors and facilitate deeper levels of self awareness by each of the contributors In each chapter the themes of struggle survival and resilience demonstrate the power of narrative reflection as well as the role that narrative therapy might play for clinical mental health professionals Together co editors Lucy S Raizman and Bea Hollander Goldfein and contributors Kilian Fritsch Ruthy Kaiser Peter Capper Lyn Groome Margaret S Roth and Michael Izzo engaged in a process that put each of them in closer contact with their own lives A Polish Doctor in the Nazi Camps Barbara Rylko-Bauer, 2014-02-24 Jadwiga Lenartowicz Rylko known as Jadzia Yah jah was a young Polish

Catholic physician in Łódź at the start of World War II. Suspected of resistance activities she was arrested in January 1944. For the next fifteen months she endured three Nazi concentration camps and a forty-two day death march, spending part of this time working as a prisoner doctor to Jewish slave laborers. A Polish Doctor in the Nazi Camps follows Jadzia from her childhood and medical training through her wartime experiences to her struggles to create a new life in the postwar world. Jadzia's daughter, anthropologist Barbara Rylko-Bauer, constructs an intimate ethnography that weaves a personal family narrative against a twentieth-century historical backdrop. As Rylko-Bauer travels back in time with her mother, we learn of the particular hardships that female concentration camp prisoners faced. The struggle continued after the war as Jadzia attempted to rebuild her life first as a refugee doctor in Germany and later as an immigrant to the United States. Like many postwar immigrants, Jadzia had high hopes of making new connections and continuing her career. Unable to surmount personal economic and social obstacles to medical licensure, however, she had to settle for work as a nurse's aide. As a contribution to accounts of wartime experiences, Jadzia's story stands out for its sensitivity to the complexities of the Polish memory of war. Built upon both historical research and conversations between mother and daughter, the story combines Jadzia's voice and Rylko-Bauer's own journey of rediscovering her family's past. The result is a powerful narrative about struggle, survival, displacement, and memory, augmenting our understanding of a horrific period in human history and the struggle of Polish immigrants in its aftermath.

Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23. Memoirs, autobiographies, and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres, as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years, and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative, organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads, Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books.
