There are several specific messages in the mailings. The location of the messages and the design/layout of the messages are reviewed in the section. Please become familiarized with all messages.

Make sure that all of the messages are legible. Clean the messages or replace the messages if you cannot read the words. Replace the illustrations if the illustrations are not legible. When you clean the messages, use a cloth, water and soap. Do not use solvent, gasoline, or other harsh chemicals to clean the messages. Solvents, gasoline, or harsh chemicals could damage the adhesives that secure the messages. Loose adhesives will show the messages in use.

Requires any message that is damaged, or missing. If a message is attached to a part that is required, install a message on the replacement part. Any Calsonic dealer can provide new messages.

If your machine is equipped with the ProStart™ air system, the additional coverage is included in the cost of the unit. Call 1-800-368-2267.

The Product Line System is a satellite-communication device that transmits information regarding the machine back to Caterpillar and Caterpillar dealers and customers. As signal events and diagnostics codes that are available to the Caterpillar Electronic Technician (ET) on the CAT data link can be sent to the Product Line System, information can also be sent to the Product Line System. The information is used to increase Caterpillar productivity and Caterpillar services.
