The Holy See, Social Justice, and International Trade Law Rev. Dr. Alphonsus Ihuoma, 2018-06-30 The Holy See Social Justice and International Trade Law Assessing the Social Mission of the Catholic Church in the GATT WTO System highlights the uniqueness of the Catholic Church as the foremost institution in the world that can confront issues in world trade that affect the common good The distinguished author Rev Dr Alphonsus Ihuoma provides a superbly broad and deep examination that is both scholarly and practical of the mission of the Catholic Church in the world as one that centers on the temporal and eternal needs of humanity His discussion treats thoughtfully the mediatory role of the church in world affairs and argues persuasively that the church has been engaged in this role since its very beginning even before nations embraced organized politics two thousand years ago This remarkable book is a great tool for any reader seeking to know more about the unique position of the church in world affairs especially in the GATT WTO system The book rightly lauds the church's achievements in history But it equally and rightly argues that the church must do more to address present challenges in the world trading system Readers will be enlightened by the treatment of the failures of the GATT WTO system in pursuing the objectives for which it was established the church's efforts to pursue vital related objectives and the need for her to do more

Catholic Social Learning Roger C. Bergman, 2011 The canon for Catholic social teaching spreads to six hundred pages yet fewer than two pages are devoted to Catholic social learning or pedagogy In this long needed book Roger Bergman begins to correct that gross imbalance He asks How do we educate lead out the faith that does justice How is commitment to social justice provoked and sustained over a lifetime To address these questions Bergman weaves what he has learned from thirty years as a faith that does justice educator with the best of current scholarship and historical authorities He reflects on personal experience the experience of Church leaders lay activists and university students and the few words the tradition itself has to say about a pedagogy for justice Catholic Social Learning explores the foundations of this pedagogy demonstrates its practical applications and illuminates why and how it is fundamental to Catholic higher education Part I identifies personal encounters with the poor and marginalized as key to stimulating a hunger and thirst for justice Part II presents three applications of Catholic social learning cross cultural immersion as illustrated by Creighton University's Semestre Dominicano program community based service learning and the teaching of moral exemplars such as Dorothy Day Rev Martin Luther King Jr and Archbishop Oscar Romero Part III then elucidates how a pedagogy for justice applies to the traditional liberal educational mission of the Catholic university and how it can be put into action Catholic Social Learning is both a valuable practical resource for Christian educators and an important step forward in the development of a transformative pedagogy
