Catullus Tibullus Pervigilium Veneris Loeb Classical Library No 6:

The Loeb Classical Library James Loeb, J. W. Mackail, 1913 "Neither Letters nor Swimming": The Rebirth of Swimming and Free-diving John M. McManamon, 2021-03-01 In a novel study of the impact of classical culture John McManamon demonstrates that Renaissance scholars rediscovered the importance of swimming to the ancient Greeks and Romans and conceptualized the teaching of swimming as an art The ancients had a proverb that described a truly ignorant person as knowing neither letters nor swimming McManamon traces the ancient textual and iconographic evidence for an art of swimming demonstrates its importance in warfare and highlights the activities of free divers who exploited the skill of swimming to earn a living Renaissance theorists of a humanist education first advocated a rebirth for swim training Erasmus included the classical proverb in his Adages and two sixteenth century scholars wrote treatises in dialogue form on methods for teaching young people how to swim Report of Senate Upon Research and Other Original Work Published Or Completed During the Session ... University of Liverpool. Senate, 1920 Toward a Premodern Posthumanism Chad Augustine Córdova, 2025-04-15 Drawing on early modern French thought to free nature and aesthetics from metaphysical humanism What good is aesthetics in a time of ecological crisis Toward a Premodern Posthumanism Anarchic Ontologies of Earthly Life in Early Modern France shows that philosophical aesthetics contains unheeded potentialities for challenging the ontological subjection of nature to the human subject Drawing on deconstructive ecological and biopolitical thought Chad Córdova uncovers in aesthetics something irreducible to humanist metaphysics an account of how beings emerge and are interrelated responsive and even response able without reason or why This anarchic and atelic ontology recovered from Kant becomes the guiding thread for a new premodern trajectory of posthumanism Charting a path from Aristotle to Heidegger to today's plant thinking with new readings of Montaigne Pascal Diderot Rousseau and others along the way this capacious study reveals the untimely relevance of pre 1800 practices of writing science and art Enacting a multitemporal mode of reading Córdova offers a defense and illustration of the importance of returning to early modern texts as a way to rethink nature art ethics and politics in a time when these concepts are in flux and more contentious than ever The Life of Lambert Lombard (1565); and Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries (1572) Dominicus Lampsonius, 2021-12-21 Among the earliest written texts on the history and theory of Netherlandish art these two key writings are now available together in an English translation Dominicus Lampsonius's The Life of Lambert Lombard 1565 is the earliest published biography of a Netherlandish artist This neo Latin account of the life of the painter architect and draftsman Lambert Lombard of Liège offers a theoretical exposition on the nature and ideal practice of Netherlandish art emphasizing Lombard's intellectual curiosity interest in antiquity attentive study of the human body and exemplary generosity as a teacher This volume offers the first English edition of The Life of Lambert Lombard complemented by a new translation of the inscriptions Lampsonius composed to accompany the Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low

Countries 1572 a cycle of twenty three engraved portraits of Netherlandish artists developed in collaboration with the print publisher Hieronymus Cock Together The Life of Lambert Lombard and the Effigies established frameworks for a distinctly Netherlandish history of art Responding to a growing sense of Netherlandish cultural and political identity on the eve of the Dutch Revolt these texts proposed a critical alternative to Giorgio Vasari s Lives of the Artists and its Italian model of art historical development celebrating local ingenuity and skill They remain the starting point for any history of the northern Renaissance

Honouring Age Mona Tokarek LaFosse,2023-12-05 We all age But how we understand age and aging depends on cultural context The early followers of Jesus experienced growing up and growing old in a world where more than a third of children never reached adulthood married women could expect to become widows and above all elders were to be honoured In the ancient Mediterranean expectations associated with one s age could be a source of social power as well as a source of tension within families and communities and between generations Honouring Age positions age as an essential aspect of communal identity and familial roles in the early Christian experience by examining one of the most contentious and perplexing texts in the New Testament the first letter to Timothy First Timothy reflects a one sided conversation between an older Paul and a younger Timothy in which the author hopes to influence both the old and young in fulfilling their traditional roles in the household of God It was a time of tumult and relations were fraught with potential consequences for the reputation of the nascent Christian community some children were neglecting their aging parents which was culturally unacceptable behaviour older women who should have been encouraging young widows to remarry were discouraging them exposing them to ridicule young men who should have been respectful to their elders were shamefully turning on them In recognizing the responsibilities of young and old to each other and the reputational damage they otherwise risked this study demonstrates that age is integral to understanding the complexities of 1 Timothy Drawing on modern ethnographies corroborated by ancient evidence to interpret social aspects of 1 Timothy Honouring Age shows convincingly that in emerging Christian communities in the ancient Mediterranean world age mattered

Reading the Roman Republic in Early Modern England Freyja Cox Jensen,2012-08-03 Placing the reading of history in its cultural and educational context and examining the processes by which ideas about ancient Rome circulated this study provides the first assessment of the significance of Roman history broadly conceived in early modern England

The Country House in English Renaissance Poetry William Alexander McClung,2023-11-15 The Country House in English Renaissance Poetry explores a unique literary genre that emerged during the seventeenth century celebrating the ideals of the English manor estate while critiquing the societal shifts that threatened its values These poems written by figures such as Ben Jonson Andrew Marvell Robert Herrick and Thomas Carew praise the virtues of traditional manorial life hospitality responsibility and order set against the backdrop of expansive and ostentatious estates built by political elites of the Elizabethan and Jacobean periods By juxtaposing the modest yet harmonious homes of families like the Sidneys of Penshurst against the grandiose mansions of newly affluent courtiers these works reflect a nostalgia for a simpler more virtuous era tied to a hierarchical and agrarian ideal The book examines the classical and social influences on the genre tracing its roots to Roman poets like Martial and its connections to the myth of the Golden Age It also delves into the architectural and societal contexts of the period demonstrating how poets critiqued modern extravagance and upheld the moral prestige of country living Through a detailed analysis of seminal works the study reveals how these poets used the country house as both a symbol of cultural stability and a stage for their critiques of contemporary life blending aesthetic appreciation with social commentary The genre deeply intertwined with notions of labor productivity and divine order serves as a lens through which to view the changing dynamics of seventeenth century England This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1977 Faulkner's Uses of the Classics Joan M. Tracing T. S. Eliot's Spirit Anthony David Moody,1996-08 T S Eliot s lifelong quest for a world of the spirit is the theme of this book by leading Eliot scholar A David Moody The first four essays in the collection map Eliot s spiritual geography the American taproot of his poetry his profound engagement with the philosophy and religion of India his near and yet detached relations with England and his problematic cultivation of a European mind At the centre of the collection is a study of the Latin poem Pervigilium Veneris a fragment of which figures enigmatically in the concluding lines of The Waste Land The third part of the collection is a set of five investigations of Eliot s poems dealing particularly with The Waste Land Ash Wednesday and Four Quartets and attending to how they express and shape what he called the deeper unnamed feelings which form the substratum of our being Classical Weekly ,1916 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1913

A Mind For Ever Voyaging W. K. Thomas,Warren U. Ober,1989 Wordsworth depicted Newton as Roubiliac may well have done in his statue of him as voyaging in ecstasy through God s sensorium In the Prelude passage from which the title A Mind For Ever Voyaging is derived and in various others portraying Newton and science Wordsworth seems to have written for two audiences the general public and a much smaller private audience while seeking to elevate the minds of both to God Like Pope before him Wordsworth achieved What oft was wrought but ne er so well exprest
