Taller Than Trees Roger Young,2012-12-18 Southern Rhodesia Central Africa March 1914 A trooper of police sent to contain a lawless settlement near Bulawayo the countrys largest city told on his arrival there that all the violence was caused by government restrictions not true took them at their word and made a single simple rule No one may initiate the use of force including me simple because to him it was no more than a policemen s job Common Law would be upheld he said robbery rape fraud etc Statute Law restrictions wouldnt If they obeyed it so would he that was the deal and his grim reputation needed only to be tested once After this he withdrew and let them all get on with their affairs He was thought to be from the American Far West and his rule being based upon a moral principle initiating force is wrong which cant be circumvented by the Law police politics or even at the will of a majority with taxes and legislation set aside and everything done willy nilly by agreement not by vote sure enough and right away Queenstown became like one in the American Far West a free society But with this difference no force eliminated anything to do with government Question But how can a society exist let alone succeed without a government Answer This is what the book is all about Poets & Writers ,2000
