

DIARY ENTRY

What is a Diary Entry?

A diary entry is a personal record of events and feelings affecting the writer. It is written for personal record and reflection; therefore, it may not always be objective in its view. It almost always details the events occurring in the present. It includes facts, observations, perceptions and descriptions all according to the writer's world view.

Tips for Writing a Diary Entry

- The word limit of a diary entry is 150 words. Everything you wish to say should be encompassed within this limit.
- Remember that a diary entry is not a documentary. Include only those things which were the highlight of the day.
- Spend a few moments going over the entire day and categorise the events which affected you the most.
- Focus on the emotions, feelings and thoughts that the day's event(s) triggered.
- Use a personal confessional tone as the entry is a record of your personal life and past.
- Maintain the correct chronological order while noting things. Avoid skipping from one thought to the other.
- An anticipatory note at the end of the entry looking forward to the following day is a good way of concluding it.
- Use grammatically correct sentences and avoid spelling mistakes. Also avoid using long complex sentences.
