Educational Learning and Development

Margaret Baguley, Patrick Alan Danaher, Andy

Davies, L. De George-Walker, Janice K. Jones, Karl J. Matthews, Warren Midgley, Catherine H. Arden, Linda De George-Walker, 2014-02-26 Through ten research projects this book explores the topic of educational learning and development in order to examine issues that are impacting either positively or negatively on current research in this area. The authors explore the capacity building potential of the projects and what factors impacted on or assisted their development.

Evidence-Based Interventions for Students with Learning and Behavioral Challenges Richard J. Morris, Nancy Mather, 2008-01-14 This book assembles into one volume summaries of school based intervention research that relates to those who deal on a regular basis with the growing body of students having high incidence learning disabilities and or behavior disorders, special educators, school psychologists and clinical child psychologists. Chapter authors begin with an overview of their topic followed by a brief section on historical perspectives before moving on to the main section, a critical discussion of empirically based intervention procedures. In those instances where evidence based prescriptions can legitimately be made, authors discuss best practices and the conditions, e.g., classroom environment, teacher expertise, under which these practices are most effective. A final section deals with policy issues.

Instructional Strategies for Middle and High School Social Studies Bruce E. Larson, 2016-08-10 Instructional Strategies for Middle and High School Social Studies: Methods, Assessment, and Classroom Management is an exciting, methods-based text that integrates appropriate management and assessment techniques with seven distinct teaching strategies. Writing explicitly for pre-service social studies teachers, veteran teacher educator Bruce E. Larson offers detailed descriptions of a range of instructional strategies along with guidelines for deciding how and when to use each. Part I offers the foundations for teaching and learning in a social studies classroom and explores contextual, theoretical, and policy factors that all teachers need to consider before entering the classroom. Part II delivers a range of comprehensive strategies for providing instruction that is appropriate for particular lessons, student abilities, and classroom environments. The practical strategies in Part II build upon the learning theories described in Part I, positioning Instructional Strategies for Middle and High School Social Studies to be the go-to all-inclusive teacher's guide to the social studies classroom. New to this Edition: A list of goals before each chapter presents an overview of the chapter's content focus and provides an outline for the chapter review. Extensively revised Part I: chapters 1-4 provides an updated review of national standards developed for teaching history, geography, civics, and economics. In-depth applications of the Common Core State Standards for the social studies are also explored. New Reality Check feature provides directions for integrating field-based experiences into the chapters and contextualizes the ideas in the book for a classroom setting. Each chapter in Part II: chapters 5-11 has been expanded to include a section labeled Enhancing Student Learning with Technology, offering websites, links, and other resources for integrating recent technologies into the classroom. Chapters 5-11 include a new Making Your Lesson More Meaningful for ELLs feature, which provides ideas based on current research and theories about learning language for engaging ELLs specific for each instructional strategy. Expanded discussion of the
