Elizabeth Johnson,2014-01-01 Feasting on the Gospels is a new series that follows up on the success of the Feasting of the Word series to provide another trusted preaching resource this time on the most preached on books in the Bible the four Gospels Inside cover      A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J. Alter,2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus s physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus s

Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

Humor in the Gospels Terri Bednarz, 2015-05-05 Humor in the Gospels is the most comprehensive resource on Gospel humor to date Terri Bednarz reviews and critiques a 150 years of biblical scholarship on the subject from little known journal articles and out of print books to the most well respected classical works of today She covers a range of scholarly discussions on the various forms and functions of Gospel humor from frivolity to witty allusions to satirical barbs She examines the barriers of associating humor with the Gospel depictions of Jesus the difficulties of identifying humor in ancient biblical texts and the advances of literary contextual and rhetorical approaches to recognizing Gospel humor This important work includes an extensive bibliography for further study of Gospel humor in particular and Biblical humor in general

Toward Decentering the New Testament Mitzi J. Smith, Yung Suk Kim, 2018-08-21 Toward Decentering the New Testament is the first introductory text to the New Testament written by an African American woman biblical scholar and an Asian American male biblical scholar This text privileges the voices scholarship and concerns of minoritized nonwhite peoples and communities It is written from the perspectives of minoritized voices The first few chapters cover issues such as biblical interpretation immigration Roman slavery intersectionality and other topics Questions raised throughout the text focus readers on relevant contemporary issues and encourage critical reflection and dialogue between student teachers and teacher students
