Feather In The Storm A Childhood Lost In Chaos:

Feather in the Storm Emily Wu, Larry Engelmann, 2009-01-16 Emily Wu's account of her childhood under Mao opens on her third birthday as she meets her father for the first time in a concentration camp. A well-known academic, her father had been designated an ultra rightist and class enemy. As a result, Wu's family would be torn apart and subjected to unending humiliation and abuse. Wu recounts this hidden holocaust in which millions of children and their families died. Feather in the Storm is an unforgettable story of the courage of one child in a quicksand world of endless terror.

Conflicts in Childhood Miriam Damrow, Helen Hearn, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2014. Childhood is not merely a simple developmental stage prior to adulthood but rather a complex changeable concept that is of interest and debated by international scholars from diverse disciplinary fields. One emerging debate is the perceived conflicts in childhood. Some of these are from adults' representations of children, for example in literature, law, and education to the practical and relational conflicts children experience at school and at home between peers, siblings, and others. This volume presents a collection of these conflicts in childhood from interdisciplinary perspectives. Consideration is given to children's rights and freedom, childhood relationships, gender, children's representation in media, and policies and politics about children.

Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li, 2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history. The plethora of history, literary, and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified, often contested interpretations of contemporary China. Li Li's critical examination of autobiographic, filmic, and fictional presentations in Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English-speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only to reflect memories of those who lived through that period but also memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross-cultural environment.

Christianity, Femininity and Social Change in Contemporary China Li Ma, 2019-12-11 Women make up the vast majority of Protestant Christians in China, a largely faceless majority as their stories too often go untold in scholarly research as well as popular media. This book writes Protestant Chinese women into the history of twenty-first century China. It features the oral histories of over a dozen women highlighting themes of spiritual transformation, politicized culture, social mobility, urbanization, and family life. Each subject narrates not only her own story but that of her mother as well, revealing a deeply personal dimension to the dramatic social change that has occurred in a matter of decades. By uncovering the stories of Christian women in China, Li Ma offers a unique window onto the interactions between femininity and Christianity and onto the socioeconomic upheavals that mark recent Chinese history.
