Research Methods for the Marginalized Staci B. Smith, Brian G. Smith, 2025-07-18 This edited volume explores how to effectively and ethically conduct social science research and work with marginalized and vulnerable populations Many researchers find themselves unprepared for the challenges of studying or working with populations that may be outside their personal expectations and experiences affecting their ability to accurately represent the lived experiences of marginalized and vulnerable communities Written by a diverse group of international scholars within the fields of strategic communication and communication studies this volume provides real world insights from researchers who not only have direct experience working with marginalized populations but many of whom are members of these communities Imperatives include critical lessons for access and accessibility in research Contributors draw on their own studies to guide readers through the main phases of research including study design data collection and data analysis The volume is especially suited as a supplementary text for researchers and students studying qualitative research methods in strategic communication and communication studies

Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies Jennifer Cooke, Line Nyhagen, 2024-08-14 Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies Applications in the Social Sciences and Humanities is a multi disciplinary volume in which emerging and established scholars present new feminist research methods and re evaluate existing approaches This collection examines how both new and established feminist methods address intersecting identities and structures of inequality including gender race sexuality and class Each chapter provides a case study of a methodology or methodologies that have been adopted developed or adapted within the author's field including sociology criminology political science history literature and performance studies The volume articulates the importance of knowledge production that arises from the situated and lived experiences of individuals groups and communities It discusses how we survive as feminists in today's neoliberal universities and includes research on trans and nonbinary people Indonesian history and the MeToo movement world literature from the Philippines memory work and crime on the London transport network The contributors engage with intersectionality in different ways but collectively they demonstrate the pervasiveness of intersectional thinking and practice in feminist scholarship today Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies will be of value to both undergraduate and graduate students conducting research as well as doctoral researchers and more established feminist researchers

Feminist Research Practice Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2013-07-18 The fully revised and updated Second Edition of Feminist Research Practice A Primer edited by Sharlene Nagy Hesse Biber draws on the expertise of a stellar group of interdisciplinary scholars who cover cutting edge research methods and explore research questions related to the complex and diverse issues that deeply impact women's lives. This text offers a unique hands-on approach to research by featuring engaging and relevant exercises as well as behind-the-scenes glimpses of feminist researchers at work. The in-depth examples cover the range of research questions that feminists engage with, including issues of gender inequality, violence against women, body image issues, and the discrimination of other marginalized groups. Written in a clear, concise manner that invites students to explore and practice a wide range of research, the Second Edition offers seven new chapters that reflect the latest scholarship in the field, a stronger focus on ethics, new examples that bring concepts to life, effective learning tools, and more.

Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, 2012. The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research: Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on and for women. The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies, methodologies, and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women's studies scholarship. The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible. It continues to engage readers with cutting-edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change. It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology, methodology, and method. The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women's lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change.

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology Carla Willig, Wendy Stainton Rogers, 2017-03-31. One of our bestselling handbooks, The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Research in Psychology is back for a second edition. Since the first edition, qualitative research in psychology has been transformed. Responding to this, existing chapters have been updated, and three new chapters introduced on Thematic Analysis, Interpretation, and Netnography. With a focus on methodological progress throughout, the chapters are organized into three sections: Section One, Methods; Section Two, Perspectives and Techniques; and Section Three, Applications. In the field of psychology and beyond, this handbook will constitute a valuable resource for both experienced qualitative researchers and novices for many years to come.

Handbook of Feminist Research: Methodologies in Management and Organization Studies Saija Katila, Susan Meriläinen, Emma Bell, 2023-11-03. The Handbook of Feminist Research: Methodologies in Management and Organization Studies focuses on the interlinkages between feminist theories, methodologies, and research methods and their practical implementation in business and management research. Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field of management and organization studies, this groundbreaking Handbook analyses key theoretical texts and their methodological implications, as well as topical approaches including postcolonial feminism and critical race theory This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Berger,Laura S. Lorenz,2016-03-09 This groundbreaking text makes an intervention on behalf of disability studies into the broad field of qualitative inquiry Ronald Berger and Laura Lorenz introduce readers to a range of issues involved in doing qualitative research on disabilities by bringing together a collection of scholarly work that supplements their own contributions and covers a variety of qualitative methods participant observation interviewing and interview coding focus groups autoethnography life history narrative analysis content analysis and participatory visual methods The chapters are framed in terms of the relevant methodological issues involved in the research bringing in substantive findings to illustrate the fruits of the methods In doing so the book covers a range of physical sensory and cognitive impairments This work resonates with themes in disability studies such as emancipatory research which views research as a collaborative effort with research subjects whose lives are enhanced by the process and results of the work It is a methodological approach that requires researchers to be on guard against exploiting informants for the purpose of professional aggrandizement and to engage in a process of ongoing self reflection to clear themselves of personal and professional biases that may interfere with their ability to hear and empathize with others

Doing Gender Diversity Rebecca F. Plante,Lis M. Mau,2018-04-17 This cutting edge reader demonstrates the multiple ways in which the universe of gender is socially culturally and historically constructed The selections focus on gender itself how gender operates socioculturally exists functions and is presented in micro and macro interactions In order to avoid balkanization the authors examine the various ways in which culture intersects with individuals to produce the range of presentations of self that we call gender from people born male who become adult men to lesbian women to transmen and everyone else on the diverse gender spectrum      Gender Trouble Makers Jennifer Rothchild,2007-05-07 International development efforts aimed at improving girls lives and education have been well intended somewhat effective but ultimately short sighted and incomplete This is because international development efforts often operate under a reductive understanding of the term gender and how it influences the lives of girls and boys Gender is more commonly conceived by international efforts as characteristics which are ascribed to girls as norms for behaviour In particular the analysis in Gender Trouble Makers focuses on the social constructions of gender and the ways in which gender was reinforced and maintained through a case study in rural Nepal In developing countries like Nepal promoting access to and participation in existing formal education programme is clearly necessary but it is not in itself sufficient to transform gender power relations in the broader society When gender is properly addressed as a process then all stakeholders involved researchers governmental officials and community members can begin to understand and devise more effective ways to increase both girl and boy students enrollment participation and success in school

Feminisms Matter Victoria L. Bromley, 2012-01-01 Feminisms Matter confronts the major reasons people offer for not being feminists by breaking apart stereotypes of feminists unraveling myths about women's history and challenging assumptions about feminists and feminisms

Speaking Out Linde Zingaro, 2017-03-02 Many professionals in health education and community service roles are caught in a particular bind of identity they live in a complex social borderland of credibility and professional authority while experiencing or having experienced the same discrimination violence or trauma that they are committed to conquering For some the disclosure of their own stories of marginalization has become a tool for advocacy for telling a larger truth for others self disclosure is a more personal action intended to assist isolated others in developing trust and connection Linde Zingaro a lifelong social service worker and activist interviewed several colleagues who have chosen to speak out in this way talking with them about their ethics and intentions and collaborating to identify some of the risks of negative personal and professional consequences for the practitioner She uses their voices and her own to illustrate some of the ways that these people have learned to safely and effectively use the transformative potential of storytelling as significant social action This examination of speaking out as a meaningful social practice may help other workers activists and community researchers in their efforts to be heard in the interests of a more just society

Research and Evaluation in Education and Psychology Donna M. Mertens, 2010 Focused on fully discussing what is considered to be good research Research and Evaluation in Education and Psychology explains quantitative qualitative and mixed methods and incorporates the viewpoints of various research paradigms into its descriptions of these methods The work covers four major paradigms postpositivist constructivist transformative and pragmatic Special emphasis is provided on conducting research in culturally complex communities based on the perspectives of feminists ethnic racial minorities and people with disabilities In each chapter Donna M Mertens carefully explains a step of the research process from the literature review to analysis and reporting Additionally she includes a sample study and abstract in each chapter to illustrate the concepts discussed in that section of the book Now in its third edition Research and Evaluation in Education and Psychology is perfect as a core text for research courses in departments of education psychology and sociology as well as social work and other human services disciplines It can be used by itself or in conjunction with other texts focusing on specific methodologies

In urban American school systems the children of recent immigrants and low income parents of color disproportionately suffer from overcrowded classrooms lack of access to educational resources and underqualified teachers The challenges posed by these problems demand creative solutions that must often begin with parental intervention But how can parents without college educations American citizenship English literacy skills or economic stability organize to initiate change on behalf of their children and their community In Mothers United Andrea Dyrness chronicles the experiences of five Latina immigrant mothers in Oakland California one of the most troubled urban school districts in the country as they become informed and engaged advocates for their children's education These women who called themselves Madres Unidas Mothers United joined a neighborhood group of teachers and parents to plan a new small and autonomous neighborhood based school to replace the overcrowded Whitman School Collaborating with the author among others to conduct interviews and focus groups with teachers parents and students these mothers moved from isolation and marginality to take on unfamiliar roles as researchers and community activists while facing resistance from within the local school district Mothers United illuminates the mothers journey to create their own space centered around the kitchen table that enhanced their capacity to improve their children's lives At the same time Dyrness critiques how community organizers teachers and educational policy makers despite their democratic rhetoric repeatedly asserted their right as experts reproducing the injustice they hoped to overcome A powerful inspiring story about self learning consciousness raising and empowerment Mothers United offers important lessons for school reform movements everywhere      Where Am I in the Picture? Claudia Mitchell, Katarina

Giritli-Nygren, Relebohile Molestane, 2023-12-18 Positionality and researcher reflexivity how to account for one's subject position remain as challenges for new researchers But they also remain as challenges for experienced researchers who are often involved in multiple research projects simultaneously Where Am I in the Picture sheds light on the idea of researcher positionality through visual methodologies particularly in the context of studying rurality in Canada Sweden and South Africa The book is intended for new and experienced researchers seeking to decolonize their own perspectives in research in the social sciences and humanities It incorporates photographs drawings and memory work to highlight the social constructedness of what counts as rural Drawing together compelling narratives from researchers about their positionality in studying rurality the book highlights a need for greater attention to where we are in the picture more broadly It suggests that when it comes to the rural researchers need to rethink the interplay of dominant images insider and outsider perspectives and what this interplay means in relation to interpretation Where Am I in the Picture presents a new vision of how to take into consideration positionality in research

Researching Amongst Elites Luis L.M. Aguiar, Christopher J. Schneider, 2016-04-22 Academics often direct their research across in order to examine issues that grip members of the middle classes or down in order to understand the difficulties workers and other marginalized groups endure Research that is directed up at individuals and groups with positions of greater wealth and power is less common yet studying up can contribute to our understanding of growing inequality economic polarization and social change by studying the rich powerful and elite in our society Presenting the latest empirical case studies from Canada The USA and Australia this volume explores the challenges and difficulties involved in conducting research amongst the rich and elite whilst shedding light on the manner in which power is harnessed protected and controlled to manage and manipulate resources A demonstration of the importance of studying up to our understanding of decision making governance and the nature of contemporary democracy in the global economy Researching Amongst Elites will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists and geographers working in areas such as social research methods social stratification the sociology of elites and relations of class wealth and power
