Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology:

Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Shahnaz R. Nadjmabadi, 2009 During recent years attempts have been made to move beyond the Eurocentric perspective that characterized the social sciences especially anthropology for over 150 years A debate on the anthropology of anthropology was needed one that would consider other forms of knowledge modalities of writing and political and intellectual practices This volume undertakes that challenge it is the result of discussions held at the first organized encounter between Iranian American and European anthropologists since the Iranian Revolution of 1979 It is considered an important first step in overcoming the dichotomy between peripheral anthropologies versus central anthropologies The contributors examine from a critical perspective the historical cultural and political field in which anthropological research emerged in Iran at the beginning of the twentieth century and in which it continues to develop today

Nomadism in Iran Daniel T. Potts, 2014 Potts examines the development of nomadism in Iran over the course of three millennia Evidence of nomadism in prehistory is examined and found insufficient to justify claims of its great antiquity The background of the earliest nomadic groups identified as Persian tribes by Herodotus is examined within the context of the migration of Iranian speakers onto the Iranian plateau in the late second or early first millennium B C Thereafter evidence of nomadic groups in Late Antiquity and early Islamic times is reviewed

Methodologies of Mobility Alice Elliot, Roger Norum, Noel B. Salazar, 2017-05-01 Research into mobility is an exciting challenge for the social sciences that raises novel social cultural spatial and ethical questions At the heart of these empirical and theoretical complexities lies the question of methodology how can we best capture and understand a planet in flux Methodologies of Mobility speaks beyond disciplinary boundaries to the methodological challenges and possibilities of engaging with a world on the move With scholars continuing to face different forms and scales of mobility this volume strategically traces innovative ways of designing applying and reflecting on both established and cutting edge methodologies of mobility

The Routledge Handbook of Field Research Daniel Hammett, Naomi Holmes, 2025-07-28 The Routledge Handbook of Field Research presents a comprehensive go to resource for staff and students in preparing for and thinking about the doing of field research including both individual fieldwork and group field classes Framed by rapidly evolving debates relating to environmental and social justice decolonialism the climate crisis and post truth society as well as taking into account ethical health and safety and other practical considerations researchers are faced with a complex and evolving set of factors when making decisions Working from foundational questions relating to the need for and importance of field research of where the field is through logistical and practical concerns to complex debates around equality and diversity power relations sustainability and ethical conundrums this book is not a simple formulaic how to guide Instead the handbook offers a more critical and reflective approach acting more as a how to start to think critically about text In providing a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of key debates and considerations in the planning doing and wrapping up of field research the handbook shares examples and reflections from experienced field researchers and field class leaders as well as scenarios debates and critical questions to help guide field researchers through their research journey While there is a rapidly expanding array of books on research methods and epistemologies this handbook offers a unique contribution that addresses distinct gaps in the current literature Through a strong emphasis on field class and group based field research this handbook offers a unique resource to support field class leaders in thinking through the design and doing of field classes and adopts a pedagogical approach in asking difficult questions of the reader rather than offering the answer In so doing we promote a deeper reflective engagement with the complexities of the research journey The Routledge Handbook of Field Research includes contributions from over 50 leading authors culminating in an essential resource for both experienced field researchers and field class leaders as well as newcomers to lone and group based field research

Persian Literature and Modernity Hamid Rezaei Yazdi, Arshavez Mozafari, 2018-12-07 Persian Literature and Modernity recasts the history of modern literature in Iran by elucidating the bonds between the classical tradition and modernity and exploring textual generic and discursive formations through heterodoxical investigations This is first done through the rehabilitation of concepts embedded in tradition including the munzirah debate Ahrman the demonic tajarrud radical aloneness and nризyat discontent Following this are broader structural and processual treatments including the emergence of the genre of the social novel the international dimension of Persian and Persianate canon formation and the development of salvage ethnography and anthropological discourse in Iran Covering literary experiments from the twelfth to the twentieth centuries the chapters in this volume make a case for stepping outside the bounds of orthodox literary scholarship in Iranian studies with its associated political and orientalist determinants in order to provide a more nuanced conception of literary modernity in Iran Offering an alternative reading of modernity in Persian literature this book is an invaluable resource for scholars and students interested in the history of modern Iran and Persian Literature

Minorities in Iran R. Elling, 2013-02-18 Based on the premise that nationalism is a dominant factor in Iranian identity politics despite the significant changes brought about by the Islamic Revolution this cross disciplinary work investigates the languages of nationalism in contemporary Iran through the prism of the minority issue

Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck, 2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941-79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqai a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people's tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqai a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropology Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

Racial Blackness and Indian Ocean Slavery Parisa Vaziri, 2023-12-26 Rethinking the history of African enslavement in the western Indian Ocean through the lens of Iranian cinema From the East African and Red Sea coasts to the Persian Gulf ports of Bushihr Kish and Hurmuz sailing and caravan networks supplied Iran and the surrounding regions with African slave labor from antiquity to the nineteenth century This book reveals how Iranian cinema preserves the legacy of this vast and yet long overlooked history that has come to be known as Indian Ocean slavery How does a focus on blackness complicate traditional understandings of history and culture Parisa Vaziri addresses this question by looking at residues of the Indian Ocean slave trade in Iranian films from the second half of the twentieth century Revealing the politicized clash between commercial cinema filmfare and alternative filmmaking the Iranian New Wave she pays particular attention to the healing ritual zar which is both an African slave descendent practice and a constitutive element of Iranian culture as well as to cinematic symbols of Persian black play Moving beyond other studies on Indian Ocean and trans Saharan slavery Vaziri highlights the crystallization of a singular mode of historicity within these cinematic examples one of absence that reflects the relative dearth of archival information on the facts surrounding Indian Ocean slavery Bringing together cinema studies Middle East studies Black studies and postcolonial theory Racial Blackness and Indian Ocean Slavery explores African enslavement in the Indian Ocean through the revelatory and little known history of Iranian cinema It shows that Iranian film reveals a resistance to facticity representative of the history of African enslavement in the Indian Ocean and preserves the legacy of African slavery's long duration in ways that resist its overpowering erasure in the popular and historical imagination Retail ebook files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Professing Selves Afsaneh Najmabadi, 2014-03-14 Since the mid 1980s the Islamic Republic of Iran has permitted and partially subsidized sex reassignment surgery In Professing Selves Afsaneh Najmabadi explores the meaning of transsexuality in contemporary Iran Combining historical and ethnographic research she describes how in the postrevolutionary era the domains of law psychology and psychiatry Islamic jurisprudence and biomedicine became invested in distinguishing between the acceptable true transsexual and other categories of identification notably the true homosexual an unacceptable category of existence in Iran Najmabadi argues that this collaboration among medical authorities specialized clerics and state officials which made transsexuality a legally tolerated if not exactly celebrated category of being grew out of Iran's particular experience of Islamicized modernity Paradoxically state regulation has produced new spaces for non normative living in Iran since determining who is genuinely trans depends largely on the stories that people choose to tell on the selves that they profess

Lineages and Advancements in Material Culture Studies Timothy Carroll, Antonia

Walford, Shireen Walton, 2020-11-10 This volume comprises a curated conversation between members of the Material Culture Section of University College London Anthropology. In laying out the state of play in the field, it challenges how the anthropology of material culture is being done and argues for new directions of enquiry and new methods of investigation. The contributors consider the ramifications of specific research methods and explore new methodological frameworks to address areas of human experience that require a new analytical approach. The case studies draw from a range of contexts including digital objects, infrastructure, data, extraterrestriality, ethnographic curation, and medical materiality. They include timely reappraisals of now classical analytical models that have shaped the way we understand the object, the discipline, knowledge formation, and the artefact.

Conceptualising Arbitrary Detention Carla Ferstman, 2024-05-28 Available open access digitally under CC BY-NC-ND licence. This book examines what happens when states and other authorities use detention to abuse their power, deter dissent, and maintain social hierarchies. Written by an author with decades of practical experience in the human rights field, the book examines a variety of scenarios where individuals are unlawfully detained in violation of their most basic rights to personal liberty and exposes the many fallacies associated with arbitrary detention. Proposing solutions for future policy to scrutinise processes, this is a call for greater respect for the rule of law and human rights.

The Pearl of Dari Zuzanna Olszewska, 2015-11-16 An ethnographic study of poetry and its place among young Afghan refugees living in urban regions of Iran. The Pearl of Dari takes us into the heart of Afghan refugee life in the Islamic Republic of Iran through a rich ethnographic portrait of the circle of poets and intellectuals who make up the Pearl of Dari cultural organization. Dari is the name by which the Persian language is known in Afghanistan. Afghan immigrants in Iran, refugees from the Soviet war in Afghanistan, are marginalized and restricted to menial jobs and lower income neighborhoods. Ambitious and creative refugee youth have taken to writing poetry to tell their story as a group and to improve their prospects for a better life. At the same time, they are altering the ancient tradition of Persian love poetry by promoting greater individualism in realms such as gender and marriage. Zuzanna Olszewska offers compelling insights into the social life of poetry in an urban Middle Eastern setting largely unknown in the West. Praise for The Pearl of Dari: The Pearl of Dari offers the reader the precious pearl of a genuine reading and learning experience. Zuzanna Olszewska combines solid scholarship with uplifting sensitivity to create a lively narrative replete with joyful discoveries of genuine personhood, agency, and humanity in the midst of multiple marginalities: an account of growing up amid layer upon layer of tension, bravely defying overwhelming odds. Ahmad Karimi Hakkak, University of Maryland. Olszewska's virtuoso study explores how young progressive Afghan intellectuals use the writing and performance of poetry as a prestigious discourse to sustain community and claim dignity in exile. Her work makes an essential new contribution in Persian literary studies, ethnolinguistics, and refugee cultural studies worldwide. Margaret A. Mills, Professor Emerita of Persian and Folklore, Ohio State University.

Prozak Diaries Orkideh Behrouzan, 2016-10-26 Prozak Diaries is an analysis of emerging psychiatric discourses in post

1980s Iran It examines a cultural shift in how people interpret and express their feeling states by adopting the language of psychiatry and shows how experiences that were once articulated in the richly layered poetics of the Persian language became by the 1990s part of a clinical discourse on mood and affect In asking how psychiatric dialect becomes a language of everyday the book analyzes cultural forms created by this clinical discourse exploring individual professional and generational cultures of medicalization in various sites from clinical encounters and psychiatric training to intimate interviews works of art and media and Persian blogs Through the lens of psychiatry the book reveals how historical experiences are negotiated and how generations are formed Orkideh Behrouzan traces the historical circumstances that prompted the development of psychiatric discourses in Iran and reveals the ways in which they both reflect and actively shape Iranians cultural sensibilities A physician and an anthropologist she combines clinical and anthropological perspectives in order to investigate the gray areas between memory and everyday life between individual symptoms and generational remembering Prozak Diaries offers an exploration of language as experience In interpreting clinical and generational narratives Behrouzan writes not only a history of psychiatry in contemporary Iran but a story of how stories are told

Freedom in Captivity Radhika Gupta, 2023-05-11 How do borderland dwellers living along militarised frontiers negotiate regimes of state security and their geopolitical location in everyday life What might freedom mean to those who do not resist captivity engendered by borders Focusing on the predicaments of a double minority Freedom in Captivity examines the affective attachments political imaginaries and ethical claims making among the Shia Muslims of Kargil In contrast to calls for freedom in the Kashmir Valley Shias on the frontiers of Kashmir have sought belonging to India Yet they do not entirely succumb to its hegemonic ideological boundaries Departing from the dominant focus on physical cross border mobility this book is an invitation to reimagine borderlands as cartographies of ideas cutting across spatial scales Based on original ethnographic research conducted between 2008 and 2021 this monograph offers a unique long dur e insight into the lives of people residing at the intersections of the biggest states in Asia
