Migrant World Making Sergio F Juárez, Julia Khrebtan-Hörhager, Michael Lechuga, Arthur Soto-Vásquez, 2023-12-01 For most migrants developing communication strategies in host countries is vital for finding social connections navigating the pressures of assimilation and maintaining links to their original cultures Migrant World Making explores this process of constructing a homeplace by creating a network of communication tools and strategies to connect with multiple communities Since what it means to be a migrant differs from person to person the contributors to this edited collection showcase numerous practices migrants adopt to communicate and connect with others as they forge their own identities in globalized yet highly nationalistic societies With varying aspirations and motives for seeking new homes migrants build communities by telling stories engaging in social media activism protesting writing scholarly criticism and using many other modes of communication To match this variety the transnational scholars represented here use a wide array of rhetorical cultural and communication methodologies and epistemologies to describe what the experience of migration means to those who have lived it

People, Technology, and Social Organization Dirk vom Lehn, Will Gibson, Natalia Ruiz-Junco, 2023-10-19 This insightful and accessible book is a response to the increasing important role that technology plays in everyday life and the urgent need for empirical studies that analyse the impact of technology on social practices The chapters in this co edited collection reveal how technology is oriented to and embedded within the social organization of action in a wide range of settings and institutions including education markets arts and culture health and social care media politics and science In their analyses the contributing authors adopt interactionist perspectives to explore how the meanings of technology emerge and are negotiated within and through action and interaction The volume comprises 14 empirical chapters from authors working in fields such as symbolic interactionism ethnomethodology conversation analysis discourse methods ethnographic enquiry video based methods and others The chapters are framed by an introduction and a concluding discussion by the co editors which draws out the key themes and issues that the individual chapters speak to and show the importance of these themes for the social sciences and for society The book is primarily aimed at researchers in the social sciences including sociology social psychology organization studies and beyond whose work is concerned with the interplay between social interaction technology and institutions

A Sociology of Crime Stephen Hester, Peter Eglin, 2017-05-15 A Sociology of Crime has an outstanding reputation for its distinctive and systematic contribution to the criminological literature Through detailed examples and analysis it shows how crime is a product of processes of criminalisation constituted through the interactional and organizational use of language In this welcome second edition the book reviews and evaluates the current state of criminological theory from this grammatical perspective It maintains and develops its critical and subversive stance but greatly widens its theoretical range including dedicated chapters on gender race class and the post als including postcolonialism It now also provides questions exercises and further readings alongside its detailed analysis of a set of international examples both classical and contemporary

An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba Doctor Nahla Abdo, Nur Masalha, 2018-05-15 In 2018 Palestinians mark the 70th anniversary of the Nakba when over 750 000 people were uprooted and forced to flee their homes in the early days of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Even today the bitterness and trauma of the Nakba remains raw and it has become the pivotal event both in the shaping of Palestinian identity and in galvanising the resistance to occupation Unearthing an unparalleled body of rich oral testimony An Oral History of the Palestinian Nakba tells the story of this epochal event through the voices of the Palestinians who lived it uncovering remarkable new insights both into Palestinian experiences of the Nakba and into the wider dynamics of the ongoing conflict Drawing together Palestinian accounts from 1948 with those of the present day the book confronts the idea of the Nakba as an event consigned to the past instead revealing it to be an ongoing process aimed at the erasure of Palestinian memory and history In the process each unique and wide ranging contribution leads the way for new directions in Palestinian scholarship

Gender in Early Childhood Nicola Yelland, 2002-09-11 This book will explore the ways in which young children perceive themselves and are viewed by others in terms of their gendered identities as individuals and as members of society It considers research from a variety of perspectives in the context of home family and school Topics covered include the construction of gender from the time the child is conceived the politics of category membership analyses of play and art making young children's experiences with technology the influence of popular culture on the body image gender equity policies in early childhood education understanding sexual orientation An examination and reflection of the issues will enable educators to improve their practice and have a greater understanding of the families and the children whom they teach The diverse range and content of the research will make this book a valuable resource for all those interested in the education of young children This book covers the issue of gender expectations of children with disabilities and also discusses young children's experiences with technology and the ways in which they feel about their bodies This book will be of great interest to all early childhood educators who are concerned about the ways in which the home and school impact on the lives of young children in terms of how they view themselves and how others view them Trainee teachers will find this book helpful in developing their own attitudes understandings and behaviours in relation to gender equity and young children

Language, Structure and Reproduction (Routledge Revivals) Paul Atkinson, 2014-06-17 Basil Bernstein is one of the most creative and influential of contemporary British sociologists yet his work especially that relating to language and social structure is widely misunderstood and misrepresented This book first published in 1985 addresses the underlying themes and continuities in Bernstein's work and portrays him as a sociologist in the Durkheimian tradition This reissue will be of particular value to students interested in the sociology of education language and society anthropological linguistics and communication studies

Value, Conflict, and Order Edward Hall, 2020-08-12 Is the purpose of political philosophy to articulate the moral values that political regimes would realize in a virtually perfect world and show what that implies for the way we should behave toward one another That model of political philosophy driven by an effort to draw a picture of an ideal political society is familiar from the approach of John Rawls and others Or is political philosophy more useful if it takes the world as it is acknowledging the existence of various morally non ideal political realities and asks how people can live together nonetheless The latter approach is advocated by realist thinkers in contemporary political philosophy In Value Conflict and Order Edward Hall builds on the work of Isaiah Berlin Stuart Hampshire and Bernard Williams in order to establish a political realist's theory of politics for the twenty first century The realist approach Hall argues helps us make sense of the nature of moral and political conflict the ethics of compromising with adversaries and opponents and the character of political legitimacy In an era when democratic political systems all over the world are riven by conflict over values and interests Hall s conception is bracing and timely
