Bevens, Roger P. Schroeder, 2011 A collection of essays that demonstrates that to be effective in the twenty first century mission must be prophetic as it encounters other cultures and religious traditions When we speak as mission as dialogue then we are about as far away from imagining mission as conquering the world for Christ and missionaries as marines of the Catholic Church as we probably can get There has indeed been a radical shift both in the world in which the church does mission and within the church s own consciousness of the goodness and even holiness of that world These words from one of the essays in this superb collection clearly demonstrate the changing of mission today In this volume Fathers Bevens and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic The Vision of Vatican II Ormond Rush, 2019-08-26 2020 Catholic Press Association first place award theology theological and

Missa Est! Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2016-12-15 The twenty first century church cannot afford to neglect mission When church and culture no longer share a common outlook the only way forward is mission Pope Francis recognizes this in his call for a missionary conversion of the church Responding to this invitation is a constructive work in ecclesiology addressing the relationship between liturgy and mission in the church s life It advances a notion of the church grounded in both liturgy and mission where neither is subordinated to nor collapsed into the other The church s liturgical rites disclose and enact the church s identity as a missionary community Close examination of the sources at the heart of traditional communion ecclesiology Trinitarian theology the sacraments of initiation and eucharistic theology yields an ecclesiology in which the church is constituted by both liturgy and mission These are two distinct ways of participating in the triune life of God which is revealed in the paschal mystery The church s pilgrimage to God s kingdom takes it through the world in mission The church as the body of Christ is given away to God and to the world for the world s salvation The result is a contemporary restatement of traditional ecclesiology transposed into a missional key

The New Evangelization , 2015-02-26 The Second Vatican Council endorsed an engagement with the modern and secularized world through a renewed proclamation of the Gospel John Paul II described this as the New Evangelization and in 2010 Benedict XVI confirmed this priority by creating the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization to re propose the perennial truth of the Gospel The New Evangelization was the subject of the Synod of Bishops in 2012 and in 2014 Pope Francis gave his reflections on the topic in Evangelii Gaudium The New Evangelization draws on material presented and discussed at the conference Vatican II 50 Years On The New Evangelization organised by Leeds Trinity University on 26-29th June 2012 Part I traces the historical and theological links between the Council and the New Evangelization Part II examines the renewed understanding of the Church as a result of the Council and the extent to which it is shaped by civilization Part III analyzes the nature of the New Evangelization and its outworking in today s multifarious context of cultures religions and societies Part IV deals with the implementation of the New Evangelization by different communities and organizations and the issues this raises In the Introduction and Conclusion the editors reflect on the New Evangelization in the light of significant developments since 2012

Collinge, 2012 With about one billion members the Catholic Church is one of the world s largest religious bodies and its history is crucially linked to global events In the Historical Dictionary of Catholicism author William J Collinge provides the reader with a comprehensive introduction to the theology doctrines and worship of the religion He covers the entire Catholic

Will Many Be Saved? Ralph P. Martin, 2012-08-20 The question of whether and how people who have not had the chance to hear the gospel can be saved goes back to the beginnings of Christian reflection It has also become a much debated topic in current theology In Will Many Be Saved Ralph Martin focuses primarily on the history of debate and the development of responses to this question within the Roman Catholic Church but much of Martin's discussion is also relevant to the wider debate happening in many churches around the world In particular Martin analyzes the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church the document from the Second Vatican Council that directly relates to this question Contrary to popular opinion Martin argues that according to this text the conditions under which people who have not heard the gospel can be saved are very often in fact not fulfilled with strong implications for evangelization

Toward a New, Praxis-Oriented Missiology Rosalia Meza, 2020-06-17 The new and different frontiers and factors discussed in missiology are reshaping the meaning of mission Christian mission today is searching for new directions to approach the postmodern postcolonial and ecumenical paradigms This book argues that mission is the process of embodying the content and praxis of the gospel not the transmission of knowledge that keeps an established structure and culture alive often justified by a specific ecclesiological model Thus mission initiates a transformative process of faith which leads to personal and social transformation This work brings into dialogue Stephen Bevans's notion of mission as prophetic dialogue and Paulo Freire's concept of conscientiza o The aim is not to discover a method to do mission but to rescue the process that leads to transformation allowing one to encounter the other where they are while respecting the uniqueness of every person culture church and society Prophetic dialogue enriched by conscientiza o and vice versa can open new perspectives within missiology and provide a new approach to mission praxis This approach is then analyzed through the experiential and transformative elements of the Verbum Dei charism applied in ministry demonstrating the effectiveness of prophetic dialogue and conscientiza o in the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity mission praxis

Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live Religious Life and Priesthood Maryanne Confoy, 2008 Religious Life and Priesthood reclaims the vision of Vatican II for contemporary priests religious and ecclesial ministers The book examines the historical context the key players and the implementation of Vatican II documents on the priesthood the training of priests and the religious life BOOK JACKET The Laity and Christian Education Dolores R. Leckey, 2006 This book tells the story of how the role of the laity as essential in the life of the Church moved to center stage during the Council and how lay people were among those who made it happen Peoples and Places Matthew Hirt, 2022-05-27 Jesus s final command to his disciples was to make disciples of all nations But who are the nations How do we know we are being obedient to the task Do our current lists of ethnolinguistic people groups sufficiently answer the question For the last fifty years missiologists and missionaries have discussed this topic but much of the conversation has been focused on definitions that give little attention to biblical theology When we explore how the Bible describes the nations we find some other categories that have been overlooked forgotten or set aside in the development of missions strategy Geography is one of these categories However this is not simply bringing current geo political entities back into our missions strategy Instead Matthew Hirt is calling on missiologists missions researchers and missionaries on the field to discover how people groups identify their own geographies and in turn how that geography contributes to a people group s identity A Culture of Engagement Cathleen Kaveny, 2016-03-01 Religious traditions in the United States are characterized by ongoing tension between assimilation to the broader culture as typified by mainline Protestant churches and defiant rejection of cultural incursions as witnessed by more sectarian movements such as Mormonism and Hassidism However legal theorist and Catholic theologian Cathleen Kaveny contends there is a third possibility a culture of engagement that accommodates and respects tradition It also recognizes the need to interact with culture to remain relevant and to offer critiques of social political legal and economic practices Kaveny suggests that rather than avoid the crisscross of the religious and secular spheres of life we should use this conflict as an opportunity to come together and to encounter challenge contribute to and correct one another Focusing on five broad areas of interest Law as a Teacher Religious Liberty and Its Limits Conversations about Culture Conversations about Belief and Cases and Controversies Kaveny demonstrates how thoughtful and purposeful engagement can contribute to rich constructive and difficult discussions between moral and cultural traditions This provocative collection of Kaveny s articles from Commonweal magazine substantially revised and updated from their initial publication provides astonishing insight into a range of hot button issues like abortion assisted suicide government sponsored torture contraception the Ashley Treatment capital punishment and the role of religious faith in a pluralistic society At turns masterful and inspirational A Culture of Engagement is a welcome reminder of what can be gained when a diversity of experiences and beliefs is brought to bear on American public life
