Mission as Hospitality Edward L. Smither, 2021-01-05 God is a missionary God God is also hospitable in his nature He makes his enemies friends and invites them to intimate communion The mission of God in Scripture often occurs through hospitality when God's people encounter the not yet people of God at table or in hospitable environments and invite them to believe This motif of mission as hospitality plays out through the Old and New Testament Scriptures and through the Eucharist It can also be observed through the witness of monks and contemporary missionaries who embraced a hospitable approach to mission For the church to participate in God's mission today a vision to win conquer or change the world should be exchanged for a conviction to welcome the stranger and make room for others while proclaiming the gospel that is to imitate the hospitable God in mission

An Ethic of Hospitality Emily Jeptepkeny Choge, 2020-07-30 In our increasingly xenophobic world countries are turning away refugees and immigrants Based on the situation in Kenya this book offers a countercultural ethic of hospitality and welcome to the stranger an ethic fraught with dangers and yet filled with great opportunities for transforming our world Drawing on the scriptural pilgrim motif and specifically on the book of Hebrews this study paints a picture of refugees not only as needy strangers to be herded into camps but as brothers and sisters who bring with them treasures and talents that can enrich our understanding of our Christian identity and mission as pilgrims in the world The hospitality practice seen in Hebrews offers hope and promise not only for refugees themselves but also for the pilgrim church Like the ancient heroes of faith portrayed
