

Church for Every Context

An Introduction to Theology and Practice

MICHAEL MOYNAGH

with Philip Harrold

'This book is a double achievement. Michael Moynagh has gathered, ordered and presented the best learning from the fresh expressions movement. And in so doing he has extended our understanding through his own reflections. Fresh expressions are not church life and this book gives them the theological substance they merit. I commend it enthusiastically.'

Graham Cray Archbishops' Missioner and Leader of the Fresh Expressions Team

Church For Every Context An Introduction To Theology And Practice:

Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2012 Fresh Expressions of Church are one of the most important developments within the contemporary church There has been and continues to be much learning about how to plant Fresh Expressions of church in contemporary culture and about theological resources to support this Church in Context is the first textbook that reflects this learning Church in Context addresses the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions church planting Topics will include ecclesiology Fresh Expressions in the New Testament social forces behind Fresh Expressions today theologies to underpin fresh expressions how fresh expressions develop the missional dynamics involved discipleship worship and how Fresh Expressions can be sustained and supported

Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2014-04-15 The first comprehensive textbook on the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions one of the most important developments within the contemporary church

Humble Confidence Paul Weston, 2023-05-09 Lesslie Newbigin remains one of the most important missionary theologians of the twentieth century In responding to the challenges of late modernity he developed a fresh paradigm of missionary theology and cultural engagement that continues to be compelling and prophetic This book also explores the way in which Michael Polanyi's understanding of personal knowledge helps to give language and metaphor to Newbigin's convictions about cultural engagement and responsive witness and suggests vibrant insights and applications for mission today

Sharing Friendship John B. Thomson, 2016-03-03 Sharing Friendship represents a post liberal approach to ecclesiology and theology generated out of the history practices and traditions of the Anglican Church Drawing on the theological ethics of Stanley Hauerwas this book explores the way friendship for the stranger emerges from contextually grounded reflection and conversations with contemporary Anglican theologians within the English tradition including John Milbank Oliver O'Donovan Rowan Williams Daniel Hardy and Anthony Thiselton Avoiding abstract definitions of character mission or friendship John Thomson explores how the history of the English Church reflects a theology of friendship and how discipleship in the New Testament the performance of worship and the shape of Anglican ecclesiology are congruent with such a theology The book concludes by rooting the theme of sharing friendship within the self emptying kenotic performance of Jesus mission and looks at challenges to the character of contemporary Anglican ecclesiology represented by secularization and globalization as well as by arguments over appropriate new initiatives such as Fresh Expressions

A Field Guide to Methodist Fresh Expressions Michael Adam Beck, 2020-03-23 According to Fresh Expressions U.S. a Fresh Expression is a form of church for our changing culture established primarily for the benefit of those who are not yet part of any church Fresh Expressions are introducing people to Jesus expanding the kingdom and revitalizing churches Congregations need a practical and theological resource that can help them cultivate Fresh Expressions As consultants who work nationwide and as innovative pastors authors Michael Beck and Jorge Acevedo awaken congregational leaders and ministry teams to a distinctive Wesleyan approach for the Fresh

Expressions movement In Wesleyan Fresh Expressions they show congregations how to cultivate and customize fresh expressions that fit their local context They motivate ministry teams to take risks experiment and when necessary fail well On April 2 1739 John Wesley went to a field just outside what was then the city limits of Bristol England There he tried a missional innovation called field preaching Thousands of people showed up many of whom who had no connection with a church Today most Methodists and other Wesleyans don t know their own story Lost in the milieu of divisive issues that threaten to tear the church apart Wesleyans have forgotten their DNA as a renewal movement born not from doctrinal disputes but from a missional imperative In this sense the Fresh Expressions movement is the most Methodist thing in the denomination today This iteration of the Spirit is taking it to the fields again Wesleyan Fresh Expressions will help guide the way

Kingdom Learning David Heywood ,2017-06-23 For generations most churchgoers have been encouraged to see the responsibility for the life and mission of the church in the hands of the trained clergy A church embracing God s call to mission requires these same worshipers to see themselves as missionary disciples with a vital part to play in the church s ministry How is a change of this magnitude to be accomplished Drawing on the discipline of adult education and his own research into the way people learn David Heywood explains how churches can become learning communities in which people grow as disciples and find their place in a collaborative pattern of ministry He challenges the prevailing approach to ministerial training as overly theoretical and individualistic and points towards a model of training based around shared reflection on practice

The God Who Walks Slowly Benjamin Aldous,2022-10-30 We live in a world in which the church inhabits a deep existential anxiety about its future feels pushed to the edges of society and doesn t deal well with its marginalisation Kosuke Koyama s writing most notably in his famous Three mile an Hour God acts as an antidote for the preoccupation with speed size and the spectacular God walks slowly because He is love In The God Who Walks Slowly missiologist Ben Aldous explores how Koyama s theology encourages an approach to mission which truly reflects the rhythm pace vision and surrender of Christ

Body and Blood Andrew R. Hardy,Keith Foster,2019-06-07 The largest missional challenge facing the church of Christ in the West is to equip every member to engage in missionary endeavor in third places Third places are those social zones in society like coffee shops gyms shopping malls pubs etc that everyone and anyone can meet in as commonly owned spaces The authors argue that for too long the church has not equipped and trained its members to engage in mission in the public square The mobilization of every member to become the hands and feet of the missional sacramental body of Christ to carry the message of God s generous love to not yet Christians is vital if we want to witness the kingdom reign of God extend into their lives Places are important to the sovereign Lord of mission and this book challenges the churches of Christ to become what they properly need to be equipping agencies for every member mission and ministry

Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy,Dan Yarnell,2018-03-14 It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today

Crossing Thresholds Timothy Carson, Nigel Rooms, Lisa Withrow, Rosemary Fairhurst, 2021-01-01 The human transformation available at the limen literally the edge or threshold noticed across different cultures by anthropologists is at the heart of the Gospel Indeed the liminal place is the place of transformation and change par excellence We live in age of enormous and rapid change to which we do not yet see an end There is therefore a kairos moment here for the church to understand the importance of liminality through this unique book Reading this book will offer new lenses to understand humanity God's world the shape of Christian discipleship the church and its mission differently The authors believe engaging with liminality can help both readers faith and the church to be re imagined and have included case studies exercises and questions in each chapter to help this process

Humble Confidence Benno van den Toren, Kang-San Tan, 2022-12-20 Benno van den Toren and Kang San Tan provide a global intercultural model of apologetics as crosscultural dialogue and accountable witness Filled with Scriptural examples and real world experiences this is a conversational patient holistic and embodied guide to creating true dialogue in our multicultural multifaith world

Christian Faith and Christian Learning Clare Watkins, James Butler, 2025-07-31 Following a critical analysis of the pedagogical theology and practice of Christian learning this book develops a radical alternative account of faith learning Recognising the ways in which institutionally anxious churches are turning to processes of education and discipling it takes the reader through a theological action research journey to offer a practical theological response to the question of how Christian faith is learnt and handed on in ways that really make a difference Through close engagement with the practicalities of one declining denomination British Methodism the authors offer a distinctive vision of Christian learning and enable fresh thinking and practice There is a call for a move beyond educational courses towards a more profound engagement with the complexities of real life as not only the place but the matter of faith learning Theologically the book offers a vision which pursues questions of divine and human agency the work of the Spirit in learning the role of normative tradition and the important place of Christian lay people and their daily lives in learning Ultimately it seeks to give substance to a fresh concept of faith learning which is holistic integrative and inductively achieved and finds its fulfilment in lives lived in faith hope and love

Ecclesial Futures: Volume 1 Issue 1 Nigel Rooms, Steve Taylor, 2020-06-30 Ecclesial Futures publishes original research and theological reflection on the development and transformation of local Christian communities and the systems that support them as they join in the mission of God in the world We understand local Christian communities broadly to include traditional parish churches and independent local churches religious communities and congregations new church plants so called fresh expressions of church emergent churches and new monastic communities We are an international and ecumenical journal with an interdisciplinary understanding of our approach to theological research and reflection the core disciplines being theology missiology and ecclesiology Other social science and theological disciplines may be helpful in supporting the holistic nature of any research e g anthropology and ethnography sociology statistical research biblical studies leadership studies and adult learning The journal fills an important reflective space between the academy and on the ground practice within the field of mission studies ecclesiology and the so called missional church This opportunity for engagement has emerged in the last twenty or so years from a turn to the local and the local church and in the western world at least from the demise of Christendom and a rapidly changing world which also affects the church globally The audience for the journal is truly global wherever the local church and the systems that support them exists We expect to generate interest from readers in church judicatory bodies theological seminaries university theology departments and in local churches from all God s people and the leaders amongst them

The Deconstructed Church Gerardo Marti, Gladys Ganiel, 2014-04-22 Winner of the Distinguished Book Award from the Society for the Scientific Study of Religion The Emerging Church Movement ECM is a creative entrepreneurial religious movement that strives to achieve social legitimacy and spiritual vitality by actively disassociating from its roots in conservative evangelical Christianity and deconstructing contemporary expressions of Christianity Emerging Christians see themselves as overturning outdated interpretations of the Bible transforming hierarchical religious institutions and re orienting Christianity to step outside the walls of church buildings toward working among and serving others in the real world Drawing on ethnographic observation of emerging congregations pub churches neo monastic communities conferences online networks in depth interviews and congregational surveys in the US UK and Ireland Gerardo Marti and Gladys Ganiel provide a comprehensive social scientific analysis of the development and significance of the ECM Emerging Christians they find are shaping a distinct religious orientation that encourages individualism deep relationships with others new ideas about the nature of truth doubt and God and innovations in preaching worship Eucharist and leadership      Missional Leadership Nelus Niemandt, 2019-12-12 The purpose and aim of this book is to develop an appropriate leadership model for missional churches This implies a positioning of this book within the broader theology of mission and a consensus on the theology of the Missio Dei originating at the 1952 conference of the International Missionary Council in Willingen Germany In this approach to the theology of mission mission is understood as the work of the Trinitarian God and the church is privileged to participate in God s mission It is against this background that the growing consensus on missional ecclesiology challenges leadership models developed for a different time and a different kind of church with less or no emphasis on the missional character of the church The aim is to reflect theologically on the role of leadership in the missional church What kind of ideas about power authority and leadership are appropriate for a missional church New missional challenges demand new ideas about missional leadership Church organisation and leadership reflects a theological position there is a strong relation between ecclesiology and church organisation The nature of the church provides the framework to understand the character of the church What the church is determines what the church does The church organises what it does and agrees on rules that regulate ministries and organisation Issues such as the way the church organises and governs what it does and thus church leadership need to be answered against this background and understanding Church polity and organisation as well as leadership must reflect the identity calling life and order of the church This book therefore addresses life in the Trinity participation in the Missio Dei and contours of the missional church as the point of entry to develop leadership insights It contributes towards the development of an appropriate model of leadership for missional churches because although recent developments in the theology of mission comprehensively addressed the area of missional ecclesiology there is a gap in the development of a leadership model based on the concept of authority in the missional church
