Kwajalein Atoll, the Marshall Islands and American Policy in the Pacific Ruth Douglas Currie, 2016-10-27 For centuries the Marshall Islands have been drawn into international politics primarily because of their central location in Oceania After World War II they came into the American sphere as part of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands At the outset of the Cold War the Marshalls were a site for nuclear tests and later for the U S Army s ballistic missile testing as part of President Reagan s Strategic Defense Initiative This book focuses on the islanders tenacious negotiations for independence and control of their land accomplished as the Republic of the Marshall Islands in a Compact of Free Association with the U S The creation of American policy in the Pacific was a struggle between the U S departments of the Interior and State and the military s goals for strategic national defense as illustrated by the case of the Army s base at Kwajalein Atoll Poisoning the Pacific Jon Mitchell, 2020-10-12 In this devastating expos investigative journalist Jon Mitchell reveals the shocking toxic contamination of the Pacific Ocean and millions of victims by the US military For decades US military operations have been contaminating the Pacific region with toxic substances including plutonium dioxin and VX nerve agent Hundreds of thousands of service members their families and residents have been exposed but the United States has hidden the damage and refused to help victims After World War II the United States granted immunity to Japanese military scientists in exchange for their data on biological weapons tests conducted in China in the following years nuclear detonations in the Pacific obliterated entire islands and exposed Americans Marshallese Chamorros and Japanese fishing crews to radioactive fallout At the same time the United States experimented with biological weapons on Okinawa and stockpiled the island with nuclear and chemical munitions causing numerous accidents Meanwhile the CIA orchestrated a campaign to introduce nuclear power to Japan the folly of which became horrifyingly clear in the 2011 meltdowns in Fukushima Prefecture Caught in a geopolitical grey zone US territories have been among the worst affected by military contamination including Guam Saipan and Johnston Island the final disposal site of apocalyptic volumes of chemical weapons and Agent Orange Accompanying this damage US authorities have waged a campaign of cover ups lies and attacks on the media which the author has experienced firsthand in the form of military surveillance and attempts by the State Department to impede his work Now for the first time this explosive book reveals the horrific extent of contamination in the Pacific and the lengths the Pentagon will go to conceal it Civilizational Discourses in Weapons Control Ritu Mathur,2020-07-11 This book seeks to decolonize practices of arms control and disarmament In this endeavor it seeks to problematize our understanding of time and civilization as rhetorical resources The need for such an undertaking can be premised on the claim that while problems of modernity ethnocentrism and universalism are now a central concern within the field of international relations these ideas are scarcely debated or contested within the field of arms control and disarmament The singular focus on technological innovations and specific policy oriented agreements in practices of arms control and disarmament appears to stymie the need for such engagements This book is an invitation to explore intersecting discourses on colonialism racialism nationalism and humanitarianism within a historically grounded terrain of weapons control An understanding of these practices is vital not to prescribe any standards of civilization or exceptionalism in weapons control but to be cognizant through critique of the dangers embedded in any effort at reconstellating the constitutional nuclear order Daughters of the Pacific Zohi Dé Ishtar,1994 This book gives a voice to the Pacific women and shows what strength there is in these underknown cultures our nearest neighbours The nuclear industry tourism dumping of waste pollution of the oceans all carry a huge price for these islands on the rim of the world and on the rim of our imaginations The World's Oceans Rainer F.
