The Death of Psychotherapy Donald A. Eisner,2000-01-30 Psychologist attorney Eisner puts psychotherapy on trial by critically examining its effectiveness through the lens of the scientific method From psychoanalysis to cognitive behavior therapy as well as the 500 or so other psychotherapies there is not a single experimental study that supports the effectiveness of psychotherapy over a placebo or religious healing Using both case examples and clinical research this book challenges the conclusion that there is empirical support for the notion that psychotherapy is effective

Spirit, Symbols, and Change among the Aymara Inocente Salazar,2021-04-07 Spirit Symbols and Change is more than a how to manual it is a celebration of how to relate to people with a vastly different culture language and set of values It is an adventure that takes the reader into an Andean world very different from our own As a missionary among the Aymara of Peru Salazar initially tried to convince them to become strongly committed Catholics However the Aymara did not show much promise of accepting his mission nor had they changed their way of life for the last five hundred years As the author tried to get beyond this impasse he became friends with Marcelino a blind shaman and through him entered a totally unfamiliar world the mind and the spiritual history of the Aymara From these insights the author developed an understanding of their values and assisted them in making the needed changes that broke their isolation and exclusion from mainstream society in Peru

The Cannabis Health Index Uwe Blesching,2015-12-01 This comprehensive sourcebook combines evidence based insights from more than 1 000 studies from cannabinoid and consciousness research to present a convincing case for the powerful healing effects of medical marijuana on over 100 chronic symptoms and diseases Written by a former paramedic with a PhD in alternative healthcare this in depth reference shows that the subtle shifts in awareness commonly observed in cannabis using patients vastly contribute to these compounds therapeutic potential The Cannabis Health Index is organized into condition specific chapters with eye catching ratings of cannabis efficacy for each symptom along with recommendations for use and sidebars that suggest related mindfulness based practices that enhance the body s own ability to heal Organized alphabetically from aging to wound care with sections on a variety of conditions including infections cancer cardiovascular health eye diseases inflammatory diseases neurological diseases and much more the Index reveals that the huge body of scientific studies focused on cannabis is a tremendously under utilized repository of knowledge In synthesizing the findings of these studies Blesching brings clarity to the process of making informed decisions about cannabis as a valid treatment Informative user friendly and practical The Cannabis Health Index presents striking evidence that cannabis is remarkable safe and effective when used within the proper therapeutic window especially compared with the risks of managing chronic symptoms with pharmaceuticals

Participatory Pedagogic Impact Research Mike Seal,2018-06-14 Involvement of community partners in the structure and design of services is largely accepted in principle but its practice is heavily contested This book argues that the co production of research is one of the best ways to involve community partners As well as having intrinsic value in and of itself research embeds a culture of learning co production and of valuing research within organizations It also creates a mechanism for developing evidence for monitoring and evaluating subsequent ideas and initiatives that arise from other co production initiatives The book makes a case for research to be a synthesis of participatory research critical pedagogy peer research and community organizing It develops a model called Participatory Pedagogic Impact Research PPIR Participatory research is often criticized for not having the impact it promises PPIR ensures that the issues chosen and the recommendations developed serve the mutual self interest of stakeholders are realistic and realizable At the same time this approach pushes the balance of power towards the oppressed using methods of dissemination that hold decision makers to account and create real change PPIR also develops a robust method for creatively identifying issues methods and analytic frameworks Its third section details case studies across Europe and the United States of PPIR in action with professional researchers and community partners reflections on these experiences This book gives a unique articulation of what makes for genuinely critical reflective spaces something underdeveloped in the literature It should be considered essential reading for both participatory research academics and those involved in health and social care services in the planning commissioning and delivery of services
