The Orthodox Church in Ukraine Nicholas E. Denysenko, 2018-11-23 The bitter separation of Ukraine's Orthodox churches is a microcosm of its societal strife From 1917 onward church leaders failed to agree on the church's mission in the twentieth century The core issues of dispute were establishing independence from the Russian church and adopting Ukrainian as the language of worship Decades of polemical exchanges and public statements by leaders of the separated churches contributed to the formation of their distinct identities and sharpened the friction amongst their respective supporters In The Orthodox Church in Ukraine Nicholas Denysenko provides a balanced and comprehensive analysis of this history from the early twentieth century to the present Based on extensive archival research Denysenko's study examines the dynamics of church and state that complicate attempts to restore an authentic Ukrainian religious identity in the contemporary Orthodox churches An enhanced understanding of these separate identities and how they were forged could prove to be an important tool for resolving contemporary religious differences and revising ecclesial policies This important study will be of interest to historians of the church specialists of former Soviet countries and general readers interested in the history of the Orthodox Church

Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2017-02-09 From 1962 to 1965 in perhaps the most important religious event of the twentieth century the Second Vatican Council met to plot a course for the future of the Roman Catholic Church After thousands of speeches resolutions and votes the Council issued sixteen official documents on topics ranging from divine revelation to relations with non Christians But the meaning of the Second Vatican Council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and the years since its completion have seen a battle for the soul of the Church waged through the interpretation of Council documents The Reception of Vatican II looks at the sixteen conciliar documents through the lens of those battles Paying close attention to reforms and new developments the essays in this volume show how the Council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded The contributors to this volume represent various schools of thought but are united by a commitment to restoring the view that Vatican II should be interpreted and implemented in line with Church Tradition The central problem facing Catholic theology today these essays argue is a misreading of the Council that posits a sharp break with previous Church teaching In order to combat this reductive way of interpreting the Council these essays provide a thorough instructive overview of the debates it inspired     Eastern Christianity in Its Texts Cyril Hovorun, 2022-08-25 Surveying theological literature produced in the Christian East from the first through the 20th century Eastern Christianity in its Texts explores different theological themes analytical and mystical genres epistles treatises and poetry and milieux Greek Armenian Western and Eastern Syriac Russian and Romanian The book illustrates the evolution of the Orthodox thought how it influenced and was influenced by intellectual social and political environments It demonstrates a theology in context and yet displays consistency in the traditions spread through different epochs and countries The book is divided in five parts each standing for an epoch with distinct features formation of the Christian identity in the era before Constantine golden age of theology in the period of Late Antiquity the pinnacle of erudism and mysticism in the eastern Middle Ages wrestling with the Modernity imported from the West in the 18th 19th centuries and finally theological polyphony in the 20th century
