The Gathering Storm Harold Lindsell, 1980 Voices from the Gathering Storm Glenn M. Linden, 2001 Voices from the Gathering Storm explains the dramatic change in thinking about the nature and value of the American Union from 1846 to 1861 which impelled citizens from 11 southern states to declare independence and the remaining 22 states to fight the bloodiest war in the nation's history. This reader tells the story of seventeen Northerners and Southerners who lived through the critical fifteen years prior to the Civil War. In their letters and diaries they describe in their own words what it was like to live during the sectional crisis and the coming of the war. Men like Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis thought deeply about issues of patriotism and states rights issues which remain of great importance today. Women and black Americans were also passionate in their beliefs. Harriet Beecher Stowe felt so strongly about slavery that she wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin. Frederick Douglass and Charlotte Forten Grimké wrote of their abhorrence of slavery and the need to end that evil institution. The lives of Southern women were also affected as they were forced to confront the issue of slavery and the Northern effort to end it. The voices of these men and women are heard in this new volume. At this time the North and South made decisions that resulted in two very different civilizations: the South embraced slavery and states rights while the North rejected the expansion of slavery and accepted the idea of an indivisible Union. These pre-Civil War years contain the key to understanding how the war came to be and also enable students to comprehend the modern North and South. Voices from the Gathering Storm is the only text that uses primary sources to illustrate the conflicts that divided the nation before the war. This use of primary sources allows students to enter more deeply into the lives of Northerners and Southerners and to understand and appreciate the way in which they responded to this tense period in American history. The Gathering Storm Mal Couch, 2005-02 The purpose of this book is to signal the warning that a gathering storm is on the horizon. Events are leading us closer to the prophesied apostasy and the rapture of the church. In the growing darkened social and spiritual climate, Christians may face a deepening isolation and an outright denial of the opportunity to witness the saving grace of Christ Jesus. Churches may also begin to feel a sharp curtailment of ministry, especially in speaking against the moral evils of the culture. Not all of the chapters in this book are warning chapters, but together they are meant to lay out a mosaic of things to come. Some of those things have to do with what is taking place in the world, but other issues also point to drastic changes within the larger Evangelical culture.

1. Sixteen outstanding authors and scholars have come together to warn Christians that the storm prophesied in Scripture is on the horizon.
2. The majority of Evangelical seminaries are shifting away from the teaching of prophetic truth. Learn why in this book.
3. Why are truths like the rapture, the tribulation, and the kingdom reign of Christ being denied? This book is written to tell you.
4. In the growing denial of Bible prophecy, what can we expect next?

As the November election of 2004 neared, America awakened and found itself split down the middle between two ideologies: between liberal and conservative, but more between moral Christian values and between humanistic and secular.

values Never before has the nation been so divided in such a deep and devious way Events that unfold and transpire past 2004 will tell us just how deep the split is in the psyche of the nation But while America is coming to terms with a liberal agenda that is without doubt destructive in Europe and Asia there is no division because Christian mores have nothing to do with what is taking place in those cultural and religious climates Europe long ago repudiated the spiritual heritage left over from the Reformation And it can be fair to say that the tombstone is about to be placed over the Christian influences that have so led this nation in the past The changes are now coming so fast spiritually and morally that the entire social fabric of the country is about to tear and fragment Here are some examples | In 1993 63% of Americans claimed to be Protestant but unfortunately in that survey Mormons and Jehovah Witnesses were included in the count In 2002 the number saying they are Protestant Christians had dropped to 52% Within a few years Protestants will be a minority in America | In 2003 14% percent of Americans claimed to have no religion | Up to 1993 Protestant denominations retained 90% of their congregants The number now is 80% It is admitted that because the mainline denominations are turning so quickly to liberalism they are shrinking rapidly and may soon disappear altogether The signs that the nation and the world is rapidly moving quickly to social and moral humanism are seen in the issues listed below on which Christian values no longer have an influence Abortion Stem cell research using aborted baby tissue Homosexual agendas Same sex marriage Galloping socialism Euthanasia While some argue that these issues are simply social shifts that will not sap the strength of the western nations such rapid changes point to an outright repudiation of biblical morality Then there is the Middle East and Israel Evangelicals who hold strongly to what the Bible teaches about the end times see prophetic patterns in the establishment of the nation of Israel along with the return of the Jewish people to the promised land and the rise of militant Islam The Middle East is a powder keg that could explode and draw into that area the entire world Changes in Europe also point to prophetic signposts Europe is now virtually a united one nation It now uses a Euro dollar and has a sitting parliament with an elected president It also is rapidly moving to a total economic inter dependence Many of these changes point clearly to the prophesied one world government that will dominate the globe during the great seven year tribulation period I have assembled some close friends and outstanding spiritual scholars to write about the deepening moral darkness looming on the horizon of our world I trust that what they have written will help believers in Christ to understand the times we live in but too to become more diligent about sharing the good news of salvation found only in the Lord Jesus Christ Kliatt Young Adult Paperback Book Guide ,1997 Saving Lives, Saving Honor Jeremy C.
