Speaking of Writing: A Brief Rhetoric - with MLA 2021 Update Allegra Goodman, Michael Prince, 2022-12-13 Co authored by a novelist and a scholar Speaking of Writing follows four college students from diverse backgrounds as they face the challenges of reading writing and critical thinking in first year composition classes and across the disciplines Each chapter engages students in relatable often humorous scenarios that focus on key challenges Through its story based approach this brief rhetoric enacts process based pedagogy showing student writers grappling with fundamental questions How can I apply my own strategies for success to new assignments How can I maintain my own voice when asked to compose in an academic style What do college professors mean by a thesis Why is my argument weak and how can I make it stronger The book vividly dramatizes a draft and revision process that includes instructor feedback peer review and careful research

Storytelling Industries Anthony N. Smith, 2018-06-28 This book shows how the unique characteristics of traditionally differentiated media continue to determine narrative despite the recent digital convergence of media technologies The author argues that media are now each largely defined by distinctive industrial practices that continue to preserve their identities and condition narrative production Furthermore the book demonstrates how a given medium s variability in institutional and technological contexts influences diverse approaches to storytelling By connecting US film television comic book and video game industries to their popular fictional characters and universes including Star Wars Batman Game of Thrones and Grand Theft Auto the book identifies how differences in industrial practice between media inform narrative production This book is a must read for students and scholars interested in transmedia storytelling
