

Message Discussion Guide

THE GOSPEL DEMANDS RADICAL GIVING

The Church at Brook Hills,

Dr. David Platt

October 5, 2008

Luke 16:19-31

This guide is to help you facilitate discussion with your Small Group. Use it as a resource to lead your group in discovering and owning the truths of God's Word. There may be questions you do not want to use and there may be instances where you just want to focus on a particular point or truth. Some questions may bring out emotions and cause people to dwell on their relationship with God. Your role is to facilitate this experience not to complete the discussion guide. Use this as a flexible teaching tool not a rigid teaching task list.

Connect . . .

Use one or both of the following options to introduce the discussion time to follow.

Option 1

Ask the learners to begin your time by discussing the following questions in regard to caring for the poor and needy:

- Do you think that the church in America has done well in caring for the poor and needy? Why or why not? What about individual Christians? Why or why not?
- What are things that hinder the church from radically helping the poor and needy?
- What are some reservations that people, including Christians, have for giving to the poor? Do you feel that these reservations are from applying wisdom or excuses to hold on to our possessions?
- Who should have the larger role in caring for the poor and needy: the church or the government?
- What are some opportunities that you, personally, have had to take care of the poor and needy? How did this change your perspective of your responsibility to the poor and needy?
- How have these opportunities to care for the poor and needy affected your relationship with Christ?

Explain to the learners that we will be discussing how the gospel demands a radical view of giving. We will be learning how caring for the poor and needy is commanded over and over both in the Old and New Testaments. It characterized Jesus' ministry and He tells us that it should characterize the ministry of His followers.

Option 2

Read Proverbs 21:13 and 28:27 and ask the following questions:

- What do these verses say are the consequences for not helping the poor and needy?
- Does this seem harsh? Does this seem uncharacteristic for God, who is love? Explain your answers.

Follow that with this thought: Derek Webb is a Christian recording artist with a song entitled This Too Shall Be Made Right. The last verse of the song says:

"I don't know the sufferings of people outside my front door
And I join the oppressors of those I choose to ignore
I'm trading comfort for human life
And that's not just murder, it's suicide
And this too shall be made right."

- Is this song lyric based on biblical principles or is the songwriter's point overstated or over exaggerated?
- What are practical ways that we contribute to oppressing the poor and needy?

Explain to the learners that today, we will be discussing how God responds the poor and how His people are expected to respond to the poor. We will also look at what judgment faces those who do not help the poor and needy.
