Clarity

Clarity Refers to the presence of inclusions in a diamond. Inclusions are natural identifying characteristics such as minerals or fractures, appearing while diamonds are formed deep beneath the earth's crust. They may look like tiny crystals, clouds or feathers. The clarity scale, ranging from F (Flawless) to Included (I), is based on the visibility of inclusions at a magnification of 10x.

Color

The classification of body color of diamonds Extends from D (colorless) to Z (light yellow or brown) . Color grades are determined by comparing each diamond to a master set. Each letter grade represents a range of color and is a measure of how noticeable a color is.

Cut

Diamonds can be cut in various shapes (e.g. square, pear or heart). The round brilliant is probably the best known shape.

RADIANT

Colored Gemstones David Federman, 2012-12-06 Since early 1989 a gem dealer I've known for years has been calling me every few weeks to brief me on mounting mayhem in Colombia's lucrative emerald market. The troubling gist of these calls is always this: There is a full-fledged turf war going on between that South American country's bustling drug and gem trades for control of its emerald export business. According to this dealer and several others anywhere from two to four thousand emerald industry people, mostly miners and dealers, have been murdered since 1980. No doubt the gem sector itself never gun-shy has retaliated in full and in kind. After all, the two groups have banded together in an intermittent alliance against a common enemy: Communist guerillas, with results the CIA would envy. I mention this bloodshed because of something the gem dealer once said to me: I bet you never think of what a gem has to go through to get to a jewelry store. He's right. I tend to think of colored stones as things of beauty, not objects of gruesome power struggles between mining kingpins and drug lords. Can you blame me or anyone with insider knowledge if a gem sheds any connection with its past once sculpted by a cutter into the glittering marvel we see in a jeweler's showcase? Like Odysseus listening to the sirens' song, we become victims of an aesthetics-induced amnesia.
