Congress, International Association for the History of Religions, 1998 This volume is based upon papers read during the innovative section Western Esotericism and the Science of Religion organized at the 17th International Congress of the International Association for the History of Religions IAHR in Mexico City August 5 12 1995 The section was created in order to fill a long standing hiatus in the academic study of religions whereas phenomena such as gnosticism and hermetism in antiquity and even the occult sciences of that period have long been recognized as subjects worthy of serious investigation the history of similar and related phenomena in more recent periods has hardly received the same measure of scholarly attention and recognition. The present volume is devoted to the academic emancipation of these areas as constituting a legitimate domain of research which may be referred to by the generic label western esotericism Preceded by an introductory essay on the birth of this new discipline in the study of religion the volume provides a sample of current research in the field and devotes special attention to some central methodological questions Access to Western Esotericism Antoine Faivre, 1994-12-05 This is the first systematic treatment of esotericism to appear in English Here is also a historical survey beginning with the Alexandrean Period of the various esoteric currents such as Christian Kabbalah Theosophy Alchemy Rosicrucianism and Hermeticism Common characteristics of these currents are the notion of universal interdependency and the experience of spiritual transformation The author establishes a rigorous methodology provides clarifying definitions of such key terms as gnosis theosophy occultism and Hermeticism and offers analysis of contemporary esotericism based on three distinct pathways The second half of the book presents a series of studies on several important figures works and movements in Western esotericism studies devoted to some of the most characteristic and illuminating aspects that this form of thought has taken such as theosophical speculations on androgyny rosicrucian literature and Masonic symbolism The book is completed by a rich and selective Bibliography conceived as a means of orientation and a tool for research Hermetica II, 2018-06-21 This volume presents in new English translations the scattered fragments and testimonies regarding Hermes Thrice Great that complete Brian Copenhaver's translation of the Hermetica Cambridge 1992 It contains the twenty nine fragments from Stobaeus including the famous Kore Kosmou the Oxford and Vienna fragments

Clack, 2000-08-30 From the Middle Ages to the close of the 17th century alchemy was fundamental to Western culture as scores of experimenters sought to change lead into gold Though its significance declined with the rise of chemistry alchemy continued to captivate the imagination of writers and its images still appear in modern creative works This book examines the literary representation of alchemical theory and the metaphor of alchemical regeneration in the works of Edward Taylor Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne and Margaret Fuller While Taylor used alchemical metaphors to illustrate the redeeming grace of God upon the soul these same metaphors were used by Poe Hawthorne and Fuller to depict a broader concept of redemption These later writers used alchemical imagery to describe both the regeneration of the individual and the possible transformation of society For Poe alchemy became a metaphor for the transforming power of imagination for Hawthorne it became a means of representing the redeeming power of love for Fuller it figured the reconciliation of gender opposites Thus these four American writers incorporated the idea of regeneration in their works and the tropes and metaphors of the medieval alchemists provided a fascinating way of imagining the transformative process
