1996 Hanna Heath an Australian rare book expert is offered the job of a lifetime analysis and conservation of the famed Sarajevo Haggadah which has been rescued from Serb shelling during the Bosnian war Priceless and beautiful the book is one of the earliest Jewish volumes ever to be illuminated with images When Hanna a caustic loner with a passion for her work discovers a series of tiny artifacts in its ancient binding an insect wing fragment wine stains salt crystals a white hair she begins to unlock the book s mysteries The reader is ushered into an exquisitely detailed and atmospheric past tracing the book s journey from its salvation back to its creation In Bosnia during World War II a Muslim risks his life to protect it from the Nazis In the hedonistic salons of fin de si cle Vienna the book becomes a pawn in the struggle against the city s rising anti-Semitism In inquisition era Venice a Catholic priest saves it from burning In Barcelona in 1492 the scribe who wrote the text sees his family destroyed by the agonies of enforced exile And in Seville in 1480 the reason for the Haggadah s extraordinary illuminations is finally disclosed Hanna s investigation unexpectedly plunges her into the intrigues of fine art forgers and ultra nationalist fanatics Her experiences will test her belief in herself and the man she has come to love Inspired by a true story People of the Book is at once a novel of sweeping historical grandeur and intimate emotional intensity an ambitious electrifying work by an acclaimed and beloved author

Memorial Days Geraldine Brooks,2025-02-04 A New York Times Bestseller Brooks tracks the geography of grief with patience and grace as she comes to terms with the ongoing nature of outliving the ones you love most Her memoir is certainly a testament to her own unique loss but it s moreover a lifeline to others who will find themselves in this familiar shattered landscape of grief Los Angeles Times A rich account of marriage and mourning Washington Post A heartrending and beautiful memoir of sudden loss and a journey towards peace from the bestselling Pulitzer Prize winning author of Horse Many cultural and religious traditions expect those who are grieving to step away from the world In contemporary life we are more often met with red tape and to do lists This is exactly what happened to Geraldine Brooks when her partner of more than three decades Tony Horwitz just sixty years old and to her knowledge vigorous and healthy collapsed and died on a Washington D C sidewalk After spending their early years together in conflict zones as foreign correspondents Geraldine and Tony settled down to raise two boys on Martha s Vineyard The life they built was one of meaningful work good humor and tenderness as they spent their days writing and their evenings cooking family dinners or watching the sun set with friends at the beach But all of this ended abruptly when on Memorial Day 2019 Geraldine received the phone call we all dread The demands were immediate and many Without space to grieve the sudden loss became a yawning gulf Three years later she booked a flight to a remote island off the coast of Australia with the intention of finally giving herself the time to mourn In a shack on a pristine rugged coast she often went days without seeing another person There she pondered the various ways in which cultures grieve and what rituals of her own might help to rebuild a life around the void of Tony s death A spare and profoundly moving memoir that joins the classics of the genre Memorial Days is a portrait of a larger than life man and a timeless love between souls that exquisitely captures the joy agony and mystery of life
