

- c. Planning for recovery care is time consuming and involves dealing with many complicated details.
- d. Recovery care is usually done on an outpatient basis and so is generally better accepted by patients.

ANS: B

Much attention is paid to recovery care since effective recovery care helps improve patient outcomes and thus minimize subsequent hospitalizations. Recovery care is not necessarily less expensive than acute care.

Although effective recovery care planning may be time consuming and detail oriented, that is not the reason for implementing it.

Recovery care is not necessarily well accepted by patients.

8. The nurse is attending a neighborhood meeting where a half-way house is being proposed for the neighborhood when a member of the community states, "We don't want the facility; we especially don't want violent people living near us." The response by the nurse that best addresses the public's concern is:

- a. "In truth, most individuals with psychiatric disorder are passive and withdrawn and pose little threat to those around them."
- b. "The mentally ill seldom behave in the manner they are portrayed by movies; they are people just like the rest of us."
- c. "Patients with psychiatric disorder are so well medicated that they do not display violent behaviors."
- d. "The mentally ill deserve a safe, comfortable place to live among people who truly care for them."

ANS: A

A major reason for the existence of the stigma placed on persons with mental illness is lack of knowledge. The main fear is of violence, although only a small percentage of patients with mental illness display this behavior. Providing the public with accurate information can help reduce stigma. The remaining options do not directly
