Formations Of The Secular Formations Of The Secular:

Formations of the Secular Talal Asad, 2003-02-03 Opening with the provocative query what might an anthropology of the secular look like this book explores the concepts practices and political formations of secularism with emphasis on the major historical shifts that have shaped secular sensibilities and attitudes in the modern West and the Middle East Talal Asad proceeds to dismantle commonly held assumptions about the secular and the terrain it allegedly covers He argues that while anthropologists have oriented themselves to the study of the strangeness of the non European world and to what are seen as non rational dimensions of social life things like myth taboo and religion the modern and the secular have not been adequately examined The conclusion is that the secular cannot be viewed as a successor to religion or be seen as on the side of the rational It is a category with a multi layered history related to major premises of modernity democracy and the concept of human rights This book will appeal to anthropologists historians religious studies scholars as well as scholars working on modernity

Formations of the Secular, 2003 Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age Michael Warner, Jonathan VanAntwerpen, Craig J. Calhoun, 2013-03-04 What does it mean to say that we live in a secular age This apparently simple question opens into the massive provocative and complex A Secular Age where Charles Taylor positions secularism as a defining feature of the modern world not the mere absence of religion and casts light on the experience of transcendence that scientific explanations of the world tend to neglect In Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age a prominent and varied group of scholars chart the conversations in which A Secular Age intervenes and address wider questions of secularism and secularity The distinguished contributors include Robert Bellah Jos Casanova Nil fer G le William E Connolly Wendy Brown Simon During Colin Jager Jon Butler Jonathan Sheehan Akeel Bilgrami John Milbank and Saba Mahmood Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age succeeds in conveying to readers the complexity of secularism while serving as an invaluable guide to a landmark book

The Political Psychology of the Veil Sahar Ghumkhor,2019-11-21 Veiled women in the West appear menacing Their visible invisibility is a cause of obsession What is beneath the veil more than a woman This book investigates the preoccupation with the veiled body through the imaging and imagining of Muslim women It examines the relationship between the body and knowledge through the politics of freedom as grounded in a natural body in the index of flesh The impulse to unveil is more than a desire to free the Muslim woman What lies at the heart of the fantasy of saving the Muslim woman is the West s desire to save itself The preoccupation with the veiled woman is a defense that preserves neither the object of orientalism nor the difference embodied in women s bodies but inversely insists on the corporeal boundaries of the West s mode of knowing and truth making The book contends that the imagination of unveiling restores the West s sense of its own power and enables it to intrude where it is other thus making it the centre and the agent by promising universal freedom all the while stifling the question of what freedom is world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references

Tibetan Democracy Trine Brox, 2016-06-10 How do you govern 130 000 people from exile Tibet and the struggles of diaspora Tibetans are elements of an ongoing and highly debated issue The Dalai Lama's democratisation process during his time in India from 1959 2011 and the subsequent election of Lobsang Sangay as prime minister in exile marked to the Tibetan people the move away from a seemingly feudal societal structure and traditional theocratic governance Central to these Tibetan democracy aspirations is the freedom struggle in which Tibetans dream of an ideal politics which includes both Tibetans residing in Tibet and those in exile with the ultimate goal of returning to a self ruled Tibet However some have questioned whether the fight for democracy has helped or hindered a united and free Tibet To elucidate this complex debate Trine Brox has undertaken extensive fieldwork investigating how democracy is viewed and practised amongst Tibetans in exile In so doing she explores how the Tibetans living in India imagine organise and negotiate governance that is modern and democratic but uniquely Tibetan This is an important book for those with an interest in Tibet diaspora communities and democracy

The Evolution of Atheism Stephen LeDrew, 2016 In The Evolution of Atheism Stephen LeDrew argues that militant atheists have more in common with religious fundamentalists than they would care to admit advancing what LeDrew calls secular fundamentalism LeDrew draws on public relations campaigns publications podcasts and in depth interviews to explore the belief systems internal logics and self contradictions of atheists He argues that evolving understandings of what atheism means and how it should be put into action are threatening to irrevocably fragment the movement After Secular Law Winnifred Sullivan, Mateo Taussig-Rubbo, 2011-08-29 Bringing together scholars with a variety of perspectives and orientations this work examines the interconnections between law and religion and the unexpected histories and anthropologies of legal secularism in a globalizing modernity
