Hermeneutics and the Problem of Translating Traditional Arabic Texts Alsayed M. Aly Ismail,2017-08-21 This book focuses on the problematic issues arising when translating and interpreting classical Arabic texts which represent a challenging business for many scholars especially with regards to religious texts Additionally the reception of these interpretations and translations not only informs the perception of Muslims and their awareness of the outside world but also impacts the vision and perception of non

Muslims of Islam and the Muslim world Consequently this book reconsiders the concepts of understanding and interpretation and their nexus in the mechanism of translation and proposes a novel hermeneutic method of translating interpreting and understanding traditional and classical Arab texts Handling the issues of understanding from a hermeneutical perspective is shown here to remove the possibility of translation and interpretation rendering a distorted translated text Drawing on the powerful interpretive theories of Hans Georg Gadamer and Martin Heidegger the hermeneutic method of translation starts from a premise that the meaning of a classical text cannot be deduced solely by linguistic analysis of its words but requires in depth investigation of the invisible contextual elements that control and shape its meaning Traditional texts are seen in this model as travelling texts whose meaning is transformed across time and space The hermeneutic method of translation allows the translator to identify those elements from the real world that informed a classical text at the time of its writing so that it can be adapted and made relevant to its contemporary context Traditional texts can enlighten our minds and cultivate our souls religious texts can elevate our behavior and thinking and help refine our confused contemporary lives When texts become isolated from their world they lose this lofty goal of enlightenment and elevation

International Approaches to Bridging the Language Gap Huertas-Abril, Cristina-Aránzazu, Gómez-Parra, María Elena, 2019-11-15 In the age of information an essential priority in the context of international education is the development of language learning and its inconsistencies The gap between language and education has intermittently grown through time with mistaken assumptions about how linguistic shortcomings are being solved around the world Research on comparative educational approaches to teaching verbiage and the foundation of future language development are instrumental in positively impacting the global narrative of dialectal education International Approaches to Bridging the Language Gap is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of second language teaching as well as social developments regarding intercultural learning While highlighting topics including curricular approaches digital competence and linguistic disparities this book is ideally designed for language instructors linguists teachers researchers public administrators cultural centers policymakers government officials academicians researchers and students seeking current research on the latest advancements of multilingual education

Empirical modelling of translation and interpreting Hansen-Schirra, Silvia, Czulo, Oliver, Hofmann, Sascha, 2017 Empirical research is carried out in a cyclic way approaching a research area bottom up data lead to interpretations and ideally to the abstraction of laws on the basis of which a theory can be derived Deductive research is based on a theory on the basis of which hypotheses can be formulated and tested against the background of empirical data Looking at the state of the art in translation studies either theories as well as models are designed or empirical data are collected and interpreted However the final step is still lacking so far empirical data has not lead to the formulation of theories or models whereas existing theories and models have not yet been comprehensively tested with empirical methods This publication addresses these issues from several perspectives multi method product as well as process based research may gain insights into translation as well as interpreting phenomena These phenomena may include cognitive and organizational processes procedures and strategies competence and performance translation properties and universals etc Empirical findings about the deeper structures of translation and interpreting will reduce the gap between translation and interpreting practice and model and theory building Furthermore the availability of more large scale empirical testing triggers the development of models and theories concerning translation and interpreting phenomena and behavior based on quantifiable replicable and transparent data Non-professional Interpreting and Translation Rachele Antonini,Letizia Cirillo,Linda Rossato,Ira Torresi,2017-06-15 In the light of recent waves of mass immigration non professional interpreting and translation NPIT is spreading at an unprecedented pace While as recently as the late 20th century much of the field was a largely uncharted territory the current proportions of NPIT suggest that the phenomenon is here to stay and needs to be studied with all due academic rigour This collection of essays is the first systematic attempt at looking at NPIT in a scholarly and at the same time pragmatic way Offering multiple methods and perspectives and covering the diverse contexts in which NPIT takes place the volume is a welcome turn in an all too often polarized debate in both academic and practitioner circles

Theory of Mind in Translation Annegret Sturm,2020-06-12 Taking the perspective of others is central to translation But does translation train this uniquely human capacity This book introduces the concept of Theory of Mind ToM to model one of the central features of translation the meta representation of others and presents three innovative studies which investigate the question using brain scans eye tracking and key logging to shed new light on the role of non linguistic macro competences on the translation process Monolingualism and Linguistic Exhibitionism in Fiction Anjali Pandey,2016-01-25 How are linguistic wars for global prominence literarily and linguistically inscribed in literature This book focuses on the increasing presence of cosmetic multilingualism in prize winning fiction making a case for an emerging transparent turn in which momentary multilingualism works in the service of long term monolingualism Research Anthology on Military and Defense Applications, Utilization, Education, and Ethics Management Association, Information Resources,2021-05-28 Military technology is highly advanced in terms of technology being used in the field computer applications artificial intelligence and software applications These high performance technologies range from weapons to communications technology to automation in vehicles and weaponry These technologies must be both secure and reliable in harsh environments Research is being focused specifically on that including how military and defense applications operate what modern technologies are being used and the ethics surrounding these applications A holistic view of these applications is necessary for both understanding current military tactics and tools along with the future applications The Research Anthology on Military and Defense Applications Utilization Education and Ethics focuses specifically on military and defense operations expenditure technologies and tools and the ethics surrounding technologies like weaponry and artificial intelligence in the military The chapters cover a wide and diverse range of military and defense applications while providing crucial information on the
