politicians emerged Thatcher Reagan Mitterrand Kohl The late twentieth century heyday they oversaw carried the Western democracies triumphantly to victory in the Cold War and into the economic boom of the 1990s But equally it led them into the fiasco of Iraq to the high drama of the financial crisis in 2007 8 and ultimately to the anti liberal surge of our own times The present crisis of liberalism is leading us toward as yet unscripted decades The era we have all been living through is closing out and democracy is turning on its axis once again Brilliantly Reid Henry calls for the salvation of democracy from the choices of its own leaders if it is to survive Samuel Moyn Yale University European Business Debra Johnson, Colin Turner, 2015-10-06 The third edition of European Business is published at a time of turbulence in Europe This uncertainty puts Europe's unique business environment at risk Key features of the new edition include assessments of how individual member states affect the integration process and bring diversity to European business new material on the links between Europe and the World's other main regions including emerging economies new case studies on topics such as the rise of the BRICs the energy crisis enlargement and the Euro The book retains popular pedagogical features to help students make sense of a confusing and complex environment A unique and accessible text the book is ideal reading for students of European and International Business and important additional reading for those interested in European politics and economics The Institutions and Dynamics of the European Community, 1973-83 Johnny Laursen, 2015-03-26 Based on fresh archival research and interviews this book offers a new look at the history of this distinct era of European integration Chapters from leading scholars include subjects ranging from European law to EC expansion and from the European Currency System to the application of Greece to join the Community Overall the book provides a fresh interpretation of the period as one not simply of crisis and stagnation Euro-Visions Mariana Liz, 2016-09-22 Examines the meaning of Europe in contemporary art house and popular films from across the continent European Enlargement Across Rounds and Beyond Borders Haakon A. Ikonomou, Aurélie Andry, Rebekka Byberg, 2017-03-16 This volume suggests new theoretically informed approaches for historians and social scientists to engage with the policy of enlargement across rounds and in all its diversity It follows three approaches first tracing Longue Durée developments second investigating enlargement Beyond the Road to Membership and third exploring the Entangled Exchanges and synergies between the EC EU and its outside It attempts to properly historicise the process of enlargement with contributions from historians social scientists and a legal scholar exemplifying suggested approaches and theoretical reflections from the various disciplines Interrupting Capitalism Matthew Allen Shadle, 2018 Interrupting Capitalism traces the history of Catholic thinking about economic life from the perspective of a theology of interruption The church's social teaching provides a way for Christians to interrupt capitalism to live out economic life faithfully in the midst of the global economy Helmut Schmidt and British-German Relations Mathias Haeussler, 2019-03-28 The young Helmut Schmidt and British German relations 1945 74 Harold Wilson 1974 76 James Callaghan 1976 79 Margaret Thatcher 1979 82 A Concise History of the World Since 1945 W. M.

Spellman, 2020-09-16 This lively synthesis of global history since the end of World War II offers a gripping account of an interdependent world and the challenges facing individuals in the 21st century The narrative is arranged around two key tensions the struggle between socialism and free market capitalism and the interaction between cultural fragmentation and the competing integrative force of globalization Considering the historical experience of Africa Asia and Latin America as well as the West it addresses the ever expanding gulf between the developed North and developing South and the environmental impact of development on the planet s delicate ecosystems Authoritative and well written this is an ideal introductory guide for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on global history since 1945 It is also a fascinating primer for anyone with an interest in global history and the issues affecting the globe today New to this Edition Updated to cover events since 2006 including the conflicts in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria China s economic and military advance to great power status the refugee crises and the global financial crisis of 2008 New material on the international drugs trade global opioid crisis and healthcare implications Expanded material on social media Updated material on environmental issues considering US disengagement from traditional global partners in the area of climate change and the Trump administration s distrust of climate science and executive roll back of established environmental laws More social history especially coverage of women and recent developments around issues of sexuality Expanded section on Islam to include developments within the mainstream as opposed to radical tradition worldwide and current historiography The European Union and its eastern neighbourhood Mike Mannin, Paul Flenley, 2018-01-17 This volume is timely in that it explores key issues which are currently at the forefront of the EU s relations with its eastern neighbours It considers the impact of a more assertive Russia the significance of Turkey the limitations of the Eastern Partnership with Belarus and Moldova the position of a Ukraine in crisis and pulled between Russia and the EU security and democracy in the South Caucasus It looks at the contested nature of European identity in areas such as the Balkans In addition it looks at ways in which the EU s interests and values can be tested in sectors such as trade and migration The interplay between values identity and interests and their effect on the interpretation of europeanisation between the EU and its neighbours is a core theme of the volume Universalism and Liberation Jacopo Cellini, 2017-05-11 The changing attitude of Catholic culture towards modernity After decades of a problematic if not plainly hostile approach to modernity by Catholic culture the 1960s marked the beginning of a new era As the Church employed a more positive approach to the world voices in the Catholic milieu embraced a radical perspective channeling the need for social justice for the poor and the oppressed The alternative and complementary world views of universalism and liberation would drive the engagement of Catholics for generations to come shaping the idea of international community in Catholic culture Because of its traditional connection with the papacy and because of its prominent role in the map of European progressive Catholicism Italy stands out as an ideal case study to follow these dynamics By locating the Italian scenario in a broader geographical frame Universalism and Liberation offers a new vantage point from which to investigate the social and political relevance of religion in an age of crisis

The Radical Left Party Family in Western Europe, 1989-2015 Paolo Chiocchetti, 2016-10-04 This book provides an innovative analysis and interpretation of the overall trajectory of the Western European radical left from 1989 to 2015 After the collapse of really existing communism this party family renewed itself and embarked on a recovery path seeking to fill the vacuum of representation of disaffected working class and welfarist constituencies created by the progressive neoliberalisation of European societies The radical left thus emerged as a significant factor of contemporary political life but despite some electoral gains and a few recent breakthroughs SYRIZA in Greece PODEMOS in Spain it altogether failed to embody a credible alternative to neoliberalism and to pave the way for a turn to a different developmental model This book investigates why this was the case combining aggregate 17 countries case study Germany Italy and France and comparative methods It accurately charts the evolution of the nature strength cohesion and influence of the Western European radical left offering new insights in explaining its behaviour success and limits It is essential reading for scholars students and activists interested in the radical left and in contemporary European politics

The EU and Member State Building Soeren Keil, Zeynep Arkan, 2014-12-05 This book critically examines the process of statebuilding by the EU focusing on its attempts to build Member States in the Western Balkan region This book analyses the European Union s policies towards and the impact they have upon the states of the Western Balkans and assesses how these affect the nature of EU foreign policy To this end it focuses on the tools and mechanisms that the EU employs in its enlargement policy and examines the new instruments of direct intervention in Bosnia and Kosovo political coercion in the case of Croatia and Serbia in relation to the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and stricter conditionality in the Western Balkan countries The book discusses the key aim of this special form of statebuilding which is to establish functional liberal democratic states in Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia in order for them to join the EU and to cope with the responsibilities and pressures of membership in the future However the authors argue that while the EU sees itself as an international actor that promotes and protects liberal democratic values norms and principles its experiences in the Western Balkans demonstrate how the EU's actions in the region have undermined the basic principles of democratic decision making such as the European support for impositions in Bosnia and international law Kosovo and have consequently contributed to new tensions see police reform in Bosnia and the tensions between Kosovo and Serbia and dependencies This book will be of much interest to students of statebuilding EU politics global governance and IR Security Studies in general
