European National Identities Elements Transitions Conflicts:

European National Identities Roland Vogt, 2017-09-08 Making sense of the perplexing diversity of Europe is a challenging task How compatible are national identities in Europe What makes Europe European What do Europeans have in common European National Identities explores the diversity of European states nations and peoples In doing so the editors focus on the origins and elements of different national identities in Europe and different themes of national self understanding Each chapter contributes a unique view of national identities gravitating around myth historical experiences and traumas values ethnic and linguistic differences and religious fault lines This work grounds European national identities within cultural historical and political dynamics which makes the work approachable for many readers including historians sociologists and political scientists In addition the editors illustrate that national identities continue to be a source of contention and a challenge to political developments the demands of immigrants and minorities and the dynamics of European integration This book draws particular attention to identity shifts and conflicts within individual European countries

The Everydayness of Cities in Transition Sonja Lakić, Patrícia Pereira, Graça Índias Cordeiro, 2024-09-06 Building on the notion of everydayness as a conceptual tool and a study object in urban research this book presents 10 case studies describing and questioning how cities and urban spaces are lived experienced interpreted self produced and or appropriated The chapter authors Raffael Beier Patrícia Pereira Frédéric Vidal Elisa Lopes da Silva Priscilla Santos Graça Cordeiro Andrzej Bukowski Rianne Flock Sophie Zviadadze Rita Cachado and Sonja Lakić analyse the dynamic interchangeable relationship between material and social dimensions of urban change through thought provoking ethnographic narratives

Nationalism in Contemporary Western European Cinema James Harvey, 2018-06-21 This book investigates screen representations of 21st century nationalism arguably the most urgent and apparent phenomenon in the Western world today The chapters explore recurrent thematic and stylistic features of 21st century western European cinema and analyse the ways in which film responds to contemporary developments of mounting tensions and increasing hostilities to difference The collection blends incisive sociological and historical engagement with close textual analysis of many types of screen media including popular cinema art house productions low budget independent work documentary and video installation Identifying motifs of nationhood and indigeneity throughout the contributors of this volume present important perspectives and a timely cultural response to the contemporary moment of nationalism

Historical Parallels, Commemoration and Icons Andreas Leuttsch, 2019-03-04 Historical parallels analogies anachronisms and metaphors to the past play a crucial role in political speeches historical narratives iconography movies and newspapers on a daily basis They frame articulate and represent a specific understanding of history and can be used not only to construct but also to rethink historical continuity Almost forgotten or sleeping history can be revived to legitimize an imagined future in a political discourse today History can hardly be neutral or factual because it depends on the historian's as well the people's perspective as to what kind of events and sources they combine to make history meaningful Analysing historical analogies as embedded in narratives and images of the past enables us to understand how history and collective memory are managed and used for political purposes and to provide social orientation in time and space To rethink theories of history iconology and collective memory the authors of this volume discuss a variety of cases from Hong Kong China and Europe Personal Diplomacy in the EU Roland Vogt,2016-10-04 At a time when the economic troubles and bailouts of Greece and other European economies are casting significant doubt on the future viability of the Eurozone and the EU it is crucial to examine the origins of the political will and leadership that is necessary to move the integration process forward This book makes a significant conceptual and empirical contribution by elucidating the extent to which the integration process hinges not on institutions and norms but on the relations among leaders Vogt conducts a comparative diplomatic history of three critical junctures in the process of European integration the creation of the Common Market 1955 1957 British accession 1969 1973 and the introduction of the Euro 1989 1993 He illustrates how personal diplomacy leadership constellations and the dynamics among leaders enable breakthroughs or inhibit accords He also reveals how the EU s system of top level decision making that privileges institutionalised summitry has operated in the past and suggests in a separate chapter why it has come to atrophy and prove more dysfunctional of late The Rise and Fall of Communist Yugoslavia Tomaž Ivešić,2024-03-05 The Rise and Fall of Communist Yugoslavia Soft Nation Building in Yugoslavia examines how the Communist Party of Yugoslavia incorporated the idea of a Yugoslav nation into its ideology and created the Yugoslav Soft Nation Building project after the Second World War With an innovative approach of researching three levels of research from above from below and from the viewpoint of interethnic relations the book brings forward an original concept of soft nation building with a focus on the Slovenian Yugoslav dimension Drawing on archival sources from Ljubljana Zagreb Sarajevo and Belgrade the author argues that after the abandonment of the Yugoslav national idea two Yugoslavisms were created in the mid 1960s State based socialist Yugoslavism was propagated by the Party and had no ethnic connotations only a small proportion of the population identified themselves as Yugoslav in national terms The created vacuum was filled by old national identities The book is of interest to specialists and advanced students of cultural and intellectual history studies of nationalism but also history of science and institutions and the history of everyday life The book aims to appeal to scholars of Balkan South East European and Yugoslav history Minority Accommodation Through Territorial and Non-territorial Autonomy Tove H. Malloy,Francesco Palermo,2015 For centuries autonomy has been a public policy tool used to provide stability and cohesion to multicultural societies Examining case studies on non territorial autonomy arrangements in comparison with territorial autonomy examples this volume seeks to inform both design and decision making on managing diversity Canada's Prime Ministers and the Shaping of a National Identity Raymond B. Blake,2024-06-15 Since Confederation Canadian prime ministers have consciously constructed the national story Each created shared narratives formulating and reformulating a series of unifying national ideas that served to keep this geographically large ethnically diverse and regionalized nation together This book is about those narratives and stories Focusing on the post Second World War period Raymond B Blake shows how regardless of political stripe prime ministers worked to build national unity forged a citizenship based on inclusion and defined a place for Canada in the world They created for citizens an ideal image of what the nation stood for and the path it should follow They told a national story of Canada as a modern progressive liberal state with a strong commitment to inclusion a deep respect for diversity and difference and a fundamental belief in universal rights and freedoms Ultimately this innovative history provides readers with a new way to see and understand what Canada is and what holds us together as a nation

Religion, Gender, and Populism in the Mediterranean Alberta Giorgi,Júlia Garraio,Teresa Toldy,2023-11-22 This book offers a systematic and comparative analysis of the intersections of religion and gender in times of populism across the EU Mediterranean The chapters explore tensions and issues related to religion and gender in nations including Portugal Italy Croatia Bosnia Herzegovina Serbia Greece Turkey and Israel Palestine Shifting attention from the European Union to the Mediterranean area allows the inclusion of countries whose history is significantly interwoven taking into account the legacies of colonialism the effects of post colonialism and the role of the EU in relation to gender related issues in particular The volume investigates not only country specific cases but highlights similarities and differences in the region and aims to understand how the interconnections influence the issues at stake It draws together countries with non Christian majoritarian religions with different political regimes and where feminism and women s movements have different shapes histories and relationships with religion The book will appeal to scholars interested in the entanglements of gender religion and populism from a range of disciplines including anthropology sociology political science religious studies and gender studies

Islam and Postcolonial Discourse Esra Mirze Santesso,James McClung,2017-01-27 Largely though not exclusively as a legacy of the 2001 attack on the World Trade Center Islamic faith has become synonymous in many corners of the media and academia with violence which many believe to be its primary mode of expression The absence of a sophisticated recognition of the wide range of Islamic subjectivities within contemporary culture has created a void in which misinterpretations and hostilities thrive Responding to the growing importance of religion specifically Islam as a cultural signifier in the formation of a postcolonial self this multidisciplinary collection is organized around contested terms such as secularism Islamopolitics female identity and Islamophobia The overarching goal of the contributors is to facilitate a deeper understanding of the full range of experiences within Islam as well as the figure of the Muslim thus enabling a new set of questions about religion s role in shaping postcolonial identity

Celebrating Canada Raymond B. Blake,Mathew Hayday,2018-02-05 Popular and government funded anniversaries and commemorations combined with national symbols play significant roles in shaping how we view Canada and also provide opportunities for people to challenge the pre existing or dominant conceptions of the country Volume 2 of Celebrating Canada continues the scholarly debate about commemoration and national identity

Raymond B Blake and Matthew Hayday bring together emerging and established scholars to consider key moments in Canadian history when major anniversaries of Canada's political social or cultural development were celebrated The contributors to this volume capture the multiple and multi layered meanings of belonging in the Canadian experience investigate various attempts at shaping and re shaping identities and explore episodes of groups resisting or participating in the identity formation process By considering the small voices and those on the margins of Canada's many commemorative anniversaries the contributors to Celebrating Canada reveal how important it is to think not only about anniversary moments but also about what they can tell us about our history and the shifting function of nationalism

Small states in world politics Matthias Maass, 2017-11-01 What is the story behind the paradoxical survival of small and weak states in a world of great powers and crude power politics And what explains the dramatic rise and fall in the number of states overtime following no consistent trend and not showing an immediately obvious direction or pattern The answers lie at the system level Small states survival is shaped by the international states system Small state survival and proliferation is determined first and foremost by features of and dynamics created at the states system As the states system changes and evolves the chances for small states to survive or proliferate change as well In fact a quantitative investigation confirms this showing that over the course of more than 31 2 centuries the number of small states did fluctuate widely and at times dramatically

Writing the History of Nationalism Stefan Berger, Eric Storm, 2019-09-19 What is nationalism and how can we study it from a historical perspective Writing the History of Nationalism answers this question by examining eleven historical approaches to nationalism studies in theory and practice An impressive cast of contributors cover the history of nationalism from a wide range of thematic approaches from traditional modernist and Marxist perspectives to more recent debates around gender postcolonialism and the global turn in history writing This book is essential reading for undergraduate students of history politics and sociology wanting to understand the complex yet fascinating history of nationalism

The Politics of Fear Ruth Wodak, 2020-10-12 Far right populist politics have arrived in the mainstream We are now witnessing the shameless normalization of a political discourse built around nationalism xenophobia racism sexism antisemitism and Islamophobia But what does this change mean What caused it And how does far right populist discourse work The Politics of Fear traces the trajectory of far right politics from the margins of the political landscape to its very centre It explores the social and historical mechanisms at play and expertly ties these to the micro politics of far right language and discourse From speeches to cartoons to social media posts Ruth Wodak systematically analyzes the texts and images used by these groups laying bare the strategies rhetoric and half truths the far right employ The revised second edition of this best selling book includes A range of vignettes analyzing specific instances of far right discourse in detail Expanded discussion of the normalization of far right discourse A new chapter exploring the challenges to liberal democracy An updated glossary of far right parties and movements More discussion of the impact of social media on the rise of the far right Critical analytical and impassioned The Politics of Fear is essential reading for anyone looking to understand how far right and populist politics have moved into the mainstream and what we can do about it Identity, Language and Belonging on Jersey Jaine Beswick, 2020-06-11 This book examines transnational identities integration and linguistic practices on Jersey one of the Channel Islands Within the context of major historical events and migratory flows the author considers the significance of the multicultural small island space ideologies regarding long standing as well as emergent identification practices and language use and conceptualizations of belonging focusing in particular on the Madeiran Portuguese diaspora The juxtaposition of historical and contemporary migratory flows opens up a compelling discussion concerning the maintenance and use of heritage languages in a multilingual environment allowing a rare comparison of the symbolic role as ethnic identifiers of Jersey French Standard French English and more contemporary migrant languages such as Portuguese The author analyses the role of language in social integration and the potential for consequent shifts in group allegiances as well as receptor community ideological and legislative responses concluding with a hypothesised look at the future of migration to Jersey This book advances research on migration transnational lives and language use in an era of globalization and will be of particular interest to students and scholars in the fields of sociolinguistics multilingualism migration studies and intercultural communication

Liberal Religion Emanuel de Kadt, 2018-01-17 In recent years there has been an upsurge of interest in religion and religious issues Some have linked this to a neo liberal form of individualism while others noted that secularism has left people bereft of a humanly necessary link with the transcendent The importance of identity issues has also been remarked upon This book examines how liberal forms of religion are allowing people to engage with religion on their own terms while also feeling part of something more universal Looking at liberal approaches to the Abrahamic faiths Judaism Protestant and Roman Catholic Christianity and Islam this book teases out how postmodern culture has shaped the way in which people engage with these religions It also compares and contrasts how liberal thinking and theology have been expressed in each of the faiths examined as well as the reactionary responses to its emergence By considering how liberalism has influenced the narrative around the Abrahamic faiths this book demonstrates how malleable faith and spirituality can be As such it will be of interest to scholars working in Religious Studies Theology Sociology and Cultural Anthropology

Reviews of National Policies for Education Education for a Bright Future in Greece OECD, 2018-04-19 After a decade of severe fiscal crisis also impacting education Greece is looking ahead Now is the time to invest effectively in education and define a forward looking path for Greece Politik mit der Angst Ruth Wodak, The Europeanisation of Conflict Resolutions Boyka Stefanova, 2013-07-19 This book is about the EU s role in conflict resolution and reconciliation in Europe Ever since it was implemented as a political project of the post World War II reality in Western Europe European integration has been credited with performing conflict resolution functions It allegedly transformed the long standing adversarial relationship between France and Germany into a strategic partnership Conflict in Western Europe became obsolete The end of the Cold War further reinforced its role as a regional peace project While these evolutionary dynamics are uncontested the deeper meaning of the process its transformative power is still to be elucidated How does European integration restore peace when its equilibrium is broken and conflict or the legacies of enmity persist This book sets out to do exactly that It explores the peace and conflict resolution role of European integration by testing its somewhat vague albeit well established macro political rationale of a peace project in the practical settings of conflicts The analytical lens of that of Europeanization The central argument of the book is that the evolution of the policy mix resources framing influences and political opportunities through which European integration affects conflicts and processes of conflict resolution demonstrates a historical trend through which the EU has become an indispensable factor of conflict resolution It begins with the pooling together of policy making at the European level for the management of particular sectors early integration in the European Coal and Steel Community through the functioning of core EU policies Northern Ireland to the challenges of enlargement Cyprus and the European perspective for the Western Balkans Kosovo The book will be of value to academics and non expert observers alike with an interest in European integration and peace studies The Human Journey Kevin Reilly, 2018-05-04

The Human Journey offers a truly concise yet satisfyingly full history of the world from ancient times to the present The book's scope as the title implies is the whole story of humanity in planetary context Its themes include not only the great questions of the humanities nature versus nurture the history and meaning of human variation the sources of wealth and causes of revolution but also the major transformations in human history agriculture cities iron writing universal religions global trade industrialization popular government justice and equality In each conceptually rich chapter leading historian Kevin Reilly concentrates on a single important period and theme sustaining a focused narrative and analytical perspective Chapter 2 for example discusses the significance of bronze age urbanization and the advent of the Iron Age Chapter 3 examines the meaning and significance of the age of classical civilizations Chapter 4 explains the spread of universal religions and new technologies in the postclassical age of Eurasian integration But these examples also reveal a range of approaches to world history The first chapter is an example of current Big History the second of history as technological transformations the third of comparative history the fourth the history of connections that dominates and thus narrows so many texts Free of either a confined limiting focus or a mandatory laundry list of topics this book begins with our most important questions and searches all of our past for answers Well grounded in the latest scholarship this is not a fill in the blanks text but world history in a grand humanistic tradition
