explorations of Australia the Batavia shipwreck and the Baudin expedition by setting them in unexpected contexts and alongside unfamiliar texts and people The book will be of interest to among others intellectual and cultural historians literary scholars historians of cartography the visual arts women s and post colonial studies      The Making and Remaking of Australasia Tony Ballantyne,2022-11-03 This book explores the emergence of Australasia as a way of thinking about the culture and geography of this region Although it is frequently understood to apply only to Australia and New Zealand the concept has a longer and more complicated history Australasia emerged in the mid 18th century in both French and British writing as European empires extended their reach into Asia and the Pacific and initially held strong links to the Asian continent The book shows that interpretations and understandings of Australasia shifted away from Asia in light of British imperial interests in the 19th century and the concept was adapted by varying political agendas and cultural visions in order to reach into the Pacific or towards Antarctica The Making and Remaking of Australasia offers a number of rich case studies which highlight how the idea itself was adapted and moulded by people and texts both in the southern hemisphere and the imperial metropole where a range of competing actors articulated divergent visions of this part of the British Empire An important contribution to the cultural history of the British Empire Australia New Zealand and Pacific Studies this collection shows how Australasia has had multiple often contrasting meanings      Topos in Utopia: A peregrination to early modern utopianism's space Sotirios Triantafyllos,2021-09-07 Topos in Utopia examines early modern literary utopias and intentional communities social and cultural conception of space Starting from Thomas More s seminal work published in 1516 and covering a period of three centuries until the emergence of Enlightenment s echronia this work provides a thorough yet concise examination of the way space was imagined and utilised in the early modern visions of a better society Dealing with an aspect usually ignored by the scholars of early modern utopianism this book asks us to consider if utopias imaginary lands are based not only on abstract ideas but also on concrete spaces Shedding new light on a period where reformation zeal humanism s optimism colonialism s greed and a proto scientific discourse were combined to produce a series of alternative social and political paradigms this work transports us from the shores of America to the search for the Terra Australis Incognita and the desire to find a new and better world for us      Matthew Flinders, Maritime Explorer of Australia Kenneth Morgan,2016-03-24 This book provides a thoroughly researched biography of the naval career of Matthew Flinders with particular emphasis on his importance for the maritime discovery of Australia Sailing in the wake of the 18th century voyages of exploration by Captain Cook and others Flinders was the first naval commander to circumnavigate Australia s coastline He contributed more to the mapping and naming of places in Australia than virtually any other single person His voyage to Australia on H M S Investigator expanded the scope of imperial geographical and scientific knowledge This biography places Flinders s career within the context of Pacific exploration and the early white settlement of Australia Flinders s connections with other explorers his use of patronage the dissemination of his findings and his posthumous reputation are also discussed in what is an important new scholarly work in the field Comparative Map History and “the History of Cartography” Matthew H. Edney, 2025-07-10 The apparently centuries old field of the history of cartography was invented after 1950 through incomplete historiographies by leading map historians This monograph uses an empirically grounded analysis of the ways in which early maps have been systematically studied since the early 1800s to offer an innovative account of the practices and institutions of comparative map history in support of Western imperialism and nationalism and of how the field was reconfigured as the core of a newly idealized discipline of the history of cartography

Tracing Private Conversations in Early Modern Europe Johannes Ljungberg, Natacha Klein Käfer, 2024-03-01 This open access book provides a multifold exploration of how people in early modern Europe understood conducted and actively used private conversations From sharing personal matters to discussing delicate secrets all layers of early modern society had their motives for wanting to keep certain exchanges out of public eyes and ears and ways of trying to achieve this Detecting such instances in historical sources typically becomes a complex pursuit full of subtle references that require creative approaches especially when it comes to more informal practices Yet in a reading against the grain different sources can offer us hints of how conversations took place in private The book consists of a historiographical and methodological introduction to the study of private conversations followed by ten case studies from a variety of cities villages and countryside across early modern Europe The concluding epilogue suggests some pathways to further explore the terrain of how people have talked in private in past societies

Terrae Incognitae: Mapping the Unknown Carla Lois, 2024-12-23 The blank spots on a map and the legends that speak of terrae incognitae are among the most seductive sirens of the cartographic imagination They hint at the existence of unknown lands yet tell us nothing about what they are or what they might be like Do such lands even exist How many types of terrae incognitae are there What does it mean and what has it meant to mark a land as unknown Why do so many maps of the last five centuries insist on reserving a place for unknown geographies This book navigates the cartographic unknown exploring its contribution to the history of knowledge and geographical culture     The Dasmariñases, Early Governors of the Spanish Philippines John Newsome Crossley, 2016-03-22 Building upon Dr Crossley's 2011 book Hernando de los R os Coronel and the Spanish Philippines in the Golden Age this new work further expands our understanding of the Spanish Philippines by looking at G mez P rez Dasmari as and his son Luis successive governors from 1589 Drawing upon a rich selection of documents from the official Spanish archives principally the Archivo General de Indias Seville and earlier histories the book also utilizes an unpublished 628 page manuscript in the Lilly Library at Indiana University to provide many details not available elsewhere In so doing the book reveals the complex situation that existed in the Philippines and how the two governors and the people around them threw out and responded to challenges from a variety of different cultures Born into a rich family in north western Spain about 1539 G mez P rez Dasmari as had a distinguished career in Spain before being selected in 1588 to become the new governor of the Philippines A devout Christian intent on converting the new country in which he found himself Dasmari as epitomised the Spanish state's increasing emphasis on its missionary role He departed Spain with clear instructions from the king which had been drawn up in response to requests from the Philippines asking for a better governor and one of higher moral standards than they had previously enjoyed From the evidence found in his sources John Newsome Crossley argues that Dasmari as largely measured up to these requirements Killed in an attempt to capture the fort at Ternate in the Moluccas in 1593 G mez P rez Dasmari as was succeeded by his son Luis After being replaced himself as governor in 1596 Luis remained in the Philippines until his death in the Chinese rebellion of 1603 in Manila In revealing the story of the two Dasmari as governors this book further illuminates the history of the Spanish Philippines and its relationship both with the wider Spanish empire and the regional powers including China Japan Siam and Cambodia     A Masterpiece of World Literature : From Classical to Present Era Dr. Rishikesh Tewari, 2025-05-14 This magnum opus A MASTERPIECE OF WORLD LITERATURE From Classical To Present Era is a seminal work that encapsulates the vast expanse of literary theory and criticism traversing the realms of American Australian and Indian literature This comprehensive tome delves into the complexities of colonial and post colonial literatures while also exploring the ancient and new literatures in English Furthermore it ventures into the domain of comparative literature offering a nuanced understanding of the diverse literary traditions that have shaped the world's cultural heritage A distinctive feature of this book is its focus on Contemporary Indian Literature in English Translation providing a platform for the voices of Indian writers to be heard globally Additionally it examines the significance of English studies in India highlighting the impact of linguistic and cultural diversity on literary expression By weaving together these disparate threads this masterpiece presents a rich tapestry of world literature serving as an invaluable resource for scholars students and literature enthusiasts alike     Humour in the Arts Vivienne

Westbrook, Shun-liang Chao, 2018-07-27 This collection demonstrates the usefulness of approaching texts verbal visual and aural through a framework of humour Contributors offer in depth discussions of humour in the West within a wider cultural historical context to achieve a coherent chronological sense of how humour proceeds from antiquity to modernity Reading humorously reveals the complexity of certain aspects of texts that other reading approaches have so far failed to reveal Humour in the Arts explores humour as a source of cultural formation that engages with ethical political and religious controversies whilst acquainting readers with a wide range of humorous structures and strategies used across Western cultures
