Evelyn Waugh A Biography Capuchin Classics:

Evelyn Waugh Selina Hastings,1994 One of the foremost writers of our times Evelyn Waugh was also one of its most extraordinary eccentrics Here in intimate detail are the collapse of Waugh s first marriage and his conversion to the Catholic Church his second marriage and the social milieu satirized in such classics as Brideshead Revisited and A Handful of Dust Photos

The British Aristocracy in Popular Culture Stefania Michelucci,Ian Duncan,Luisa Villa,2020-05-18 As traditional social hierarchies fall away ever steeper levels of economic inequality and the entrenchment of new class distinctions lend a new glamor to the idea of aristocracy witness the worldwide popularity of Downton Abbey or the seemingly insatiable public fascination with the private lives of the British royal family This collection of new essays investigates the enduring attraction to the icon of the aristocrat and the spectacle of aristocratic society It traces the ambivalent reactions the aristocracy provokes and the needs political ideological psychological and otherwise it caters to in modern times when the economic power of the landed classes have been eroded and their political role curtailed In this interdisciplinary collection aristocracy is considered from multiple viewpoints including British and American literature European history and politics cultural studies linguistics visual arts music and media studies

Public Opinion Polling in Mid-Century British Literature

Megan Faragher,2021-08-19 Whereas modernist writers lauded the consecrated realm of subjective interiority mid century writers were engrossed by the materialization of the collective mind An obsession with group thinking was fuelled by the establishment of academic sociology and the ubiquitous infiltration of public opinion research into a bevy of cultural and governmental institutions As authors witnessed the materialization of the once opaque realm of public consciousness for the first time their writings imagined the potentialities of such technologies for the body politic Polling opened new horizons for mass politics Public Opinion Polling in Mid Century British Literature traces this most crucial period of group psychology s evolution the mid century when psychography a term originating in Victorian spiritualism transformed into a scientific praxis The imbrication of British writers within a growing institutionalized public opinion infrastructure bolstered an aesthetic turn towards collectivity and an interest in the political ramifications of meta psychological discourse Examining works by H G Wells Evelyn Waugh Val Gielgud Olaf Stapledon Virginia Woolf Naomi Mitchison Celia Fremlin Cecil Day Lewis and Elizabeth Bowen this book utilizes extensive archival research to trace the embeddedness of writers within public opinion institutions providing a fresh explanation for the new material turn so often associated with interwar writing

The Journalist in British Fiction and Film Sarah Lonsdale,2016-07-14 Why did Edwardian novelists portray journalists as swashbuckling truth seeking super heroes whereas post WW2 depictions present the journalist as alienated outsider Why are contemporary fictional journalists often deranged murderous or intensely vulnerable As newspaper journalism faces the double crisis of a lack of trust post Leveson and a lack of influence in the fragmented internet age how do cultural producers view journalists and their role in society today In The Journalist in British Fiction and Film Sarah Lonsdale traces the ways in which journalists and newspapers have been depicted in fiction theatre and film from the dawn of the mass popular press to the present day The book asks first how journalists were represented in various distinct periods of the 20th century and then attempts to explain why these representations vary so widely This is a history of the British press told not by historians and sociologists but by writers and directors as well as journalists themselves In uncovering dozens of forgotten fictions Sarah Lonsdale explores the bare knuckled literary combat conducted by writers contesting the disputed boundaries between literature and journalism Within these texts and films there is perhaps also a clue as to how the best aspects of Fourth estate journalism can survive in the digital age Authors covered in the volume include Martin Amis Graham Greene George Orwell Pat Barker Evelyn Waugh Elizabeth Bowen Arnold Wesker and Rudyard Kipling Television and films covered include House of Cards US and UK versions Spotlight Defence of the Realm Secret State and State of Play Evelyn Waugh ,1982
