Everyday Arguments Katherine J. Mayberry, 2004-07 Everyday Arguments combines a practical student oriented argument rhetoric with an anthology of illustrative readings drawn from arguments of everyday life The rhetoric portion of the text contains a four part taxonomy and guides students through the process of generating drafting composing and revising written arguments The anthology of readings is closely tied to the principles and practices introduced in the rhetoric section Throughout the text the author emphasizes that much can be learned about written argument and its practice from the texts we encounter on a daily basis Writing intensive exercises in each chapter encourage students to practice new skills as they learn them while refreshing their knowledge of previously mastered skills These exercises emphasize the value of collaboration revision and responsible research Helpful student samples encourage students in their own writing

Everyday Arguments Katherine J. Mayberry, 2008-02 Everyday Arguments combines a highly practical student oriented argument rhetoric with an anthology of illustrative readings drawn from everyday life Part I includes thirteen chapters devoted to the actual demonstration of how to write arguments ranging from the motives behind writing and the intended audience to effectively supporting and using logic in writing Part II is devoted to readings that exemplify the kinds of arguments laid out in the first part of the book Readings are divided into thematic chapters Today's College Student The Internet Sports Earning Your Living Diet and Reading Popular Culture
