Europe's Encounter With Islam The Secular And The Postsecular Interventions:

Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli, 2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe s secular tradition and its role in Europe s conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault s spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jurg n Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter s achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe s secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe s incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe

War, Police and Assemblages of Intervention Jan Bachmann, Colleen Bell, Caroline Holmqvist, 2014-11-13 This book reflects on the way in which war and police policing intersect in contemporary Western led interventions in the global South The volume combines empirically oriented work with ground breaking theoretical insights and aims to collect for the first time thoughts on how war and policing converge amalgamate diffuse and dissolve in the context both of actual international intervention and in understandings thereof The book uses the caption WAR POLICE to highlight the distinctiveness of this volume in presenting a variety of approaches that share a concern for the assemblage of war police as a whole The volume thus serves to bring together critical perspectives on liberal interventionism where the logics of war and police policing blur and bleed into a complex assemblage of WAR POLICE Contributions to this volume offer an understanding of police as a technique of ordering and collectively take issue with accounts of the character of contemporary war that argue that war is simply reduced to policing In contrast the contributions show how both historically and conceptually the two are always already connected Contributions to this volume come from a variety of disciplines including international relations war studies geography anthropology and law but share a critical poststructuralist approach to the study of international intervention war and policing This volume will be useful to students and scholars who have an interest in social theories on intervention war security and the making of international order International Intervention in a Secular Age Audra Mitchell, 2014-04-03 International intervention is not just about saving human lives it is also an attempt to secure humanity's place in the universe This book explores the Western secular beliefs that underpin contemporary practices of intervention most importantly beliefs about life death and the dominance of humanity These beliefs shape a wide range of practices the idea that human beings should intervene when human lives are at stake analyses of violence and harm practices of intervention and peace building and logics of killing and letting die Ironically however the Western secular desire to ensure the meaningfulness of human life at all costs contributes to processes of dehumanization undercutting the basic goals of intervention To explore this paradox International Intervention in a Secular Age engages with examples from around the world and draws on interdisciplinary sources anthropologies of secularity and IR posthumanist political philosophy ontology and the sociology of death This book offers new insight into perennial problems such as the reluctance of intervenors to incur fatalities and international inaction in the face of escalating violence It also exposes new dilemmas such as the dehumanizing effects of quantifying casualties Western secular logics of killing and the appropriation of lives and deaths through peace building processes It will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations political philosophy international ethics and social anthropology The Global Politics of Interreligious Dialogue Michael Daniel Driessen, 2023 In The Global Politics of Interreligious Dialogue Michael D Driessen examines the growth of state sponsored interreligious dialogue initiatives in the Middle East and their use as a policy instrument for engaging with religious communities and ideas Using a novel theoretical framework and drawing on five years of ethnographic fieldwork Driessen explores both the history of interreligious dialogue and the evolution of theological approaches to religious pluralism in the traditions of Catholicism and Sunni Islam Compelling and nuanced this book illustrates how religion operates in contemporary global politics offering important lessons about the development of alternative models of democracy citizenship and modernity A Poststructuralist Discourse Theory of Global Politics Dirk Nabers, 2015-10-07 This book develops a discourse theory of crisis and change in global politics Crisis is conceptualized as structural dislocation resting on difference and incompleteness Change is seen as the continuous but ultimately futile effort to gain a full identity The incompleteness and contingent character of the social represents the most important condition for democratic politics to become possible and for a theory of crisis and change to become conceivable In this new understanding crisis loses its everyday meaning of a periodically occurring event Instead crisis becomes an omnipresent feature of the social fabric It represents the absence of ground of social foundation and it rests within the subject as well as within the social whole Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari'ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari'ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari'ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today s world Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari ah As the world s second largest religion Islam remains an important force on the global stage Reasoning with God takes readers both Muslim and non Muslim beyond superficial understandings of Shari ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential

Performing the Secular Milija Gluhovic,Jisha Menon,2017-09-14 With a foreword from Rustom Bharucha this book is a timely anthology which aims to unsettle our habituated modes of thinking about the place of the secular in cultural productions The last decade alone has witnessed many religious protests against cultural productions which have led in some cases to the closure of theatre and opera performances Threats to artists led to the exile of Indian painter MF Husain and murder of Dutch film maker Theo van Gogh the controversy over the depiction of the Islamic prophet Muhammad in the Danish newspaper Jyllands Posten in 2005 led to the cancellation of performances of Mozart s Idomeneo for the season Offering fresh and provocative readings that probe the limits and promise of secularity in relation to questions of performance politics and the public sphere this book will be invaluable to scholars who seek to understand the dramatic rise of politicized theology in our new century

Islam in a Post-Secular Society Dustin Byrd,2017-04-11 Islam in the Post Secular Society Religion Secularity and the Antagonism of Recalcitrant Faith critically examines the unique challenges facing Muslims in Europe and North America From the philosophical perspective of the Frankfurt School s Critical Theory this book attempts not only to diagnose the current problems stemming from a marginalization of Islam in the secular West but also to offer a proposal for a Habermasian discourse between the religious and the secular By highlighting historical examples of Islamic and western rapprochement and rejecting the clash of civilization thesis the author attempts to find a common language between the religious and the secular which can serve as a vehicle for a future reconciliation

Confronting Secularism in Europe and India Brian Black,Gavin Hyman,Graham M. Smith,2014-06-19 Can secularism continue to provide a foundation for political legitimacy It is often claimed that one of the cultural achievements of the West has been its establishment of secular democracy wherein religious belief is respected but confined to the sphere of private belief In more recent times however political secularism has been increasingly called into question Religious believers in numerous traditions have protested against the distortion and confinement that secularism imposes on their faith Others have become uneasily aware of the way in which secularism no longer commands universal assent in the way it once did Confronting Secularism in Europe and India adds to this debate by staging a creative encounter between European and Indian conceptions of secularism with a view to continuing new and distinctive trajectories of thought about the place and role of secularism in contemporary times Looking at political secularism the relationship between secularism and religion and religious and secular violence this book considers whether there are viable alternatives to secularism in Europe and in India Orhan Pamuk, Secularism and Blasphemy Erdağ M. Göknar, 2013 This book examines the literary politics of Orhan Pamuk's novels within the framework of contestations over Turkishness Islam and secularization Moving beyond a traditional study of literature this book turns to literature to ask larger questions about Turkish history identity collective memory and cultural practice It concludes with an interview with Orhan Pamuk The SAGE Handbook of European Studies Chris Rumford, 2009-07-01 This volume brings together some of the biggest names in European Studies to analyse the most important trajectories of Europe's development and the challenges faced by the continent today No one interested in Europe will be able to ignore this extraordinary collection of scholarship Professor Thomas Diez University of Birmingham In its range and comprehensiveness it will be hard to beat and it will certainly become an invaluable resource for sociologists political scientists historians and all others seeking the best information and most up to the date approaches to the study of Europe today Professor Krishan Kumar University of Virginia An impressive account of the state of the art of the study of contemporary Europe This is an outstanding work and a definite companion to all those interested in contemporary Europe Journal of Contemporary European Studies Europe is one of the world's oldest civilizations But what does it mean to be European today What place does Europe have in global affairs How should we analyze its key institutions system of governance and broader cultural social and political dynamics This exhaustive and timely handbook Explores the transformations that characterize contemporary Europe Investigates how we can best study Europe Consolidates European studies and provides a platform for future study Increases the profile of European studies The Handbook promotes the increasing diversity of perspectives employed in the study of contemporary Europe and EU integration and is situated within the context of Europe's transformations It offers balanced coverage of political social economic cultural and institutional dimensions of Europe and includes chapters by leading authorities including Ulrich Beck Craig Calhoun Donatella della Porta Claus Offe Anssi Paasi Ben Rosamond Gurinder Bhambra and Charles Tilly Multidisciplinary in organization inclusive in coverage and cutting edge in scope The SAGE Handbook of European Studies is a landmark resource for anyone interested in Europe The Post-secular in Question Philip Gorski, 2012-03-12 This collection of original essays by leading academics represents an interdisciplinary intervention in the continuing and ever transforming discussion of the role of religion and secularism in today's world Foregrounding the most urgent and compelling questions raised by the place of religion in the social sciences past and present The Post Secular in Question restores religion to a more central place in social scientific thinking about the world helping to move scholarship beyond unbelief book jacket Post-Secular Society Peter Nynäs, Mika Lassander, Terhi Utriainen, 2012 Are we still secular If not what can one possibly mean by post secular The answers depend on what one considers secular as well as the people societies and institutions that one considers Post Secular Society argues for the experience of living in a secular world and a

secular age and the experience of living without religion as a normal condition Religion in the Western world is often described as being marked to some degree by both innovation and disarray The past couple of decades have seen the emergence of reformulated versions of theories of secularization variants of rational choice and supply side models of religion and new theoretical perspectives on the secularization of religion In spite of these different approaches and perspectives a majority of scholars agree that the West is experiencing a general resurgence of religion and that the public visibility of religious actors and discourses is on the rise across most Western societies Post Secular Society discusses the changes in religion related to globalization as well as New Age and other forms of popular religion The contributors review religion that is rooted in the globalized political economy and the relationship of post secularism to popular and consumer culture They also detail current innovative discourse as a religious belief system discuss theories of the post secular religious and spiritual well being and consider healing practices in Finland and environmentalism Secularism, Islam and public intellectuals in contemporary France Nadia Kiwan, 2019-11-30 This book examines the thought of Abdenour Bidar Malek Chebel Le la Bab s Abdelwahab Meddeb and Dounia Bouzar In doing so it investigates how these five figures all contribute in their diverse and varying ways to broader understandings of the relationship between Islam and secularism in contemporary French society Islam and the Governing of Muslims in France Frank Peter, 2021-01-28 Will Islam be able to adapt to France's secularity and its strict separation of public and private spheres Can France accommodate Muslims In this book Frank Peter argues that the debate about Islam and Muslims is not simply caused by ignorance or Islamophobia Rather it is an integral part of how secularism is reasoned Islam and the Governing of Muslims in France shows that understanding religion as separate from other aspects of life such as politics economy and culture disregards the ways religion has operated and been managed in secular societies such as France This book uncovers the varying rationalities of the secular that have developed over the past few decades in France to govern Islam in order to examine how Muslims engage with the secular regime and contribute to its transformation This book offers a close analysis of French secularism as it has been debated by Islamic intellectuals and activists from the 1990s until the present It will influence the study of secularism as well as the study of Islam in the French Republic and reveal new connections between Islamic traditions and secular rationalities The Religious Identity of Young Muslim Women in Berlin Synnøve Bendixsen, 2013-04-17 The Religious Identity of Young Muslim Women in Berlin offers an in depth ethnographic account of Muslim youth's religious identity formation and their everyday life engagement with Islam It deals with the reconstruction of selfhood and the collective content of identity formation in an urban and transnational setting The Muslim Question in Europe Peter O'Brien, 2016-02-29 In this book the author argues that the vehement controversies surrounding European Muslims are better understood as persistent unresolved intra European political tensions rather than as a clash between Islam and the West This title was made Open Access by libraries from around the world through Knowledge Unlatched Secular Muslim

Feminism Hind Elhinawy, 2024-12-26 For over a century Muslim women have championed their own brand of feminism rooted in human rights principles and a deep understanding of their diverse cultural contexts Yet secular Muslim feminism remains shrouded in misunderstanding and contention This book boldly confronts the complexities and controversies surrounding this contested concept offering a nuanced exploration of its potential to bridge divides and empower women The book challenges the simplistic portrayals of Muslim women dismantling the harmful narratives of oppression and victimhood propagated by both Western and Islamist agendas It critiques the selective glorification of religious agency by some feminists recognizing how this can inadvertently reinforce patriarchal ideologies Additionally it exposes the hijacking of the secular Muslim feminist movement by the far right disguised as advocates for women's rights but fueled by anti Muslim sentiments Drawing on over two decades of personal observations and interactions with diverse organizations in the Middle East and Europe the book delves into the heart of secular Muslim feminism dissecting its nuances and potential to reconcile divergent perspectives It amplifies these voices challenging the misrepresentation and limitations imposed by external agendas Secular Muslim Feminism emerges as a bold and transformative force redefining the boundaries of equality and empowering women to shape their destinies It offers a nuanced and critical framework for understanding the complex realities of Muslim women's lives paving the way for a more just and equitable future

Islamophobia in European Cities

Francesco Trupia, 2025-03-31 The demise of socialism in Southeast Europe coincided with the breakout of wars and genocidal violence against local Muslim populations After being displaced and forced to migrate to different European countries those former socialist citizens quickly developed institutions of sociability and unobtrusively enacted postulates of solidarity This book brings a spotlight on the generations after born to Balkan Muslim families whose repatriation could not take place due to the continuous political instability and insecurity in their homelands It investigates the new modes of these second generations to respond to the current crisis of liberal democracy and rampant Islamophobia in their places of residence By relating spatial issues to broader religious and political questions this study shines a light on the civic engagement religious practices and political sensitivities of young Muslims with Balkan roots in Belgium Germany Italy and Poland The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Islamic Studies Migration Studies Anthropology of Religion and Memory Studies

Cultivating New Post-secular Political Space Roger Haydon Mitchell, 2020-06-29 This comprehensive volume provides crucial insights from contemporary academics and practitioners into how positive interventions might be made into post secular political spaces that have emerged in the wake of the economic political and social upheavals of the 2008 global financial crisis The failure of liberal democracy to deal effectively with such challenges has led to scapegoating of the poor immigrants and Muslims and contributed to the populist electoral success of among others the Leave campaign during the 2016 United Kingdom European Union membership referendum and Donald Trump's Presidential campaign These shocks have highlighted contemporary political spaces defined by what has been termed all the posts postmodern post

Christendom post liberal post political and post secular This collection examines emerging attempts to understand and advance the cause of wellbeing within this context The authors address a variety of key issues including re configuring mythologies for the common good deploying love and friendship politically motivating new social movements valuing the other recovering displaced and devalued political narratives finding alternatives to the previously dominant neo liberalism listening deeply for social transformation and overcoming adversarial party politics This book was originally published online as a special issue of the journal Global Discourse
