Evaluating Fresh Expressions Explorations In Emerging Church:

Evaluating Fresh Expressions Louise Nelstrop, Martyn Percy, 2013-02-12 An impressive line up of contributors first asks what counts as a fresh expression and who decides Part 1 explores what postmodern ways of viewing the world means for the way churches explore truth and uncertainty and tradition as an evolving rather than a static enterprise Part 2 uses real examples to examines who attends fresh expressions and what it incarnational theology looks like in practice Part 3 considers the implications for clergy training and whether there is a case for making pioneer ministry a discrete type

Testing Fresh Expressions John Walker, 2016-04-01 Testing Fresh Expressions investigates whether fresh expressions of church really do what is claimed for them by the fresh expressions movement and in particular whether their unique approach helps to reverse trends of decline experienced by traditional churches Part 1 examines those claims and untangles their sociological and theological assumptions From a careful study of factors underlying attendance decline and growth Part 2 argues that long term decline can be resisted only if churches are better able to attract children the non churched or both Part 3 tests the comparative ability of a group of growing parish churches and a group of fresh expressions to resist trends of decline and discovers some intriguing social dynamics common to both groups Part 4 argues that fresh expressions do not fulfil the unique role often claimed for them but that they do have the capacity to help reinvigorate the whole church

Fresh Expressions in the Mission of the Church Church of England, 2014-08-19 Christians are increasingly seeking new ways of doing church often called fresh expressions which has created new questions and challenges for the Church as a whole This Anglican Methodist report explores the challenges raised by fresh expressions from what it means to be a church to sacramental life and the deployment of resources

An Ecumenical Field Guide For Fresh Expressions Michael Adam Beck, 2024-08-20 Learn the essentials of fresh expressions for your church An Ecumenical Field Guide for Fresh Expressions is a practical manual for understanding and implementing Fresh Expressions for a church in any denominational setting The Fresh Expressions movement is a new way of thinking about the local church and a new way of doing church as a congregation It refers to new fresh iterations or types expressions of ministry usually outside the confines of the church building These iterations or types of ministries are formed intentionally but organically out in the community where people are They are based on shared activities or interests where people are gathering already and where the people are open to or interested in learning about Jesus Christian people share their own stories of how Jesus is part of their lives Often these gatherings become regular and increasingly begin to adopt the practices of a church community like worship service study and giving Thus they become fresh expressions of the church from which they sprang

An Interweaving Ecclesiology Mark Scanlon, 2021-11-30 What is church What spaces does church occupy Can ecclesial space exist beyond the boundaries of church In An Interweaving Ecclesiology Mark Scanlan offers a fresh vision of Christian community as constructed for and by participants as potential ecclesial spaces combine to create an experience which we call church Drawing in particular on research into the dynamic between youth groups and the churches within which they operate Scanlan brings us a distinct approach to the church in mission that can nuance and develop the tired and sometimes flawed thinking around Fresh Expressions and pioneer ministry Combining deep ecclesiology with a practical approach this book will be useful to students and scholars of pioneer and youth ministry and those with a wider interest in how churches operate Critique of Fresh Expressions Jonny Gios, Crossroads Robert J. A. Doornenbal, 2012 Church Planting in the Secular West Paas, 2016 An expert study of church planting in the most secular part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with Darrell Guder and John Franke Finally Paas weaves together the various threads in the book with a theological defense of church planting Presenting new research as it does this critical missiological perspective will add significantly to a fuller understanding of church planting in our contemporary context

Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2014-04-15 The first comprehensive textbook on the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions one of the most important developments within the contemporary church Church in Life Michael Moynagh, 2018-03-28 Church in Life breaks fresh ground by proposing a new framework for thinking about innovation in the church by arguing that starting new ecclesial communities should be at the centre of the church's life and thought and by offering new theology and methodologies for church planting Church planters will find in it the theoretical and practical resources for a radical missional ecclesiology while theologians will find a nuanced reworking of the purpose and nature of the church Out of Nothing Andrew Dunlop, 2018-06-30 The two key questions often levelled at fresh expressions are What is Church and How on earth can a fresh expression be evaluated In Out of Nothing Andrew Dunlop offers an account of his journey in starting a fresh expression and along the way proposes an alternative theological foundation for evaluation the Cross Shaped approach Dunlop proposes a theological foundation which goes to the heart of God's action in the world Both accessible and critically engaged the book will provide an important resource for both pioneers and for those studying pioneer ministry Gardens in the Desert Michael Adam Beck, Kenneth H. Carter Jr., 2024-08-06 Your church can thrive in this strange new world Many church people and leaders feel like exiles in their own land We are facing tremendous challenges And just as for those who came before us the challenges are also opportunities If we adapt to our new environment as people and as the body of Christ Gardens in the Desert offers local and denominational church leaders a practical inspired scripture rooted vision for how we can do this how we can become God's church now for

God's intended future Michael Adam Beck and Ken Carter draw from Jeremiah 29 to provide wise guidance for leaders and churches seeking to adapt and thrive Jeremiah's imperatives resonate deeply today compelling us to experiment cultivate new relationships prioritize faith sharing with people of all ages interact with others in humility to seek the wellbeing of the other and to move forward with confidence The chapters are brief and packed with practical ideas and instruction The authors include ideas from leaders inside and outside the Church offering multiple ways for leaders to see and understand what it means to be an adaptive leader and how to shape an adaptive church The book is rich with lists diagrams illustrations clarifying questions and frameworks making the material easy to grasp It is an excellent resource to share with leadership teams at every level of the local church and in denominational settings Gardens in the Desert is for laity leaders and clergy who have been feeling lost immobilized powerless as exiles and who are ready to do something new

The Worship Mall Bryan D. Spinks, 2011-02 Religion today is in competition with the leisure and entertainment industries Gen Y the postmodern generation is open to spirituality but most of today's young adults have not been born into faith communities where they feel any lasting allegiance Studies suggest that for the young belief in God is an optional matter a virtual consumer choice As a result different trends in worship and worship styles are offered by different churches to suit lifestyles attitudes and personal taste

Mission From Below Dr. Janet Hodgson, 2018-01-15 A radical and controversial challenge to the top down leadership models that are so widespread in the church instead making the case for a new model of people driven servant leadership guided by the Holy Spirit towards kingdom growth rather than church growth

Present in Every Place? Will Foulger, 2023-04-30 Amidst a world of seemingly endless movement and change many of us feel a longing to be rooted It is this instinct that has led many to value the parish system and to question the place of new churches be they fresh expressions or church plants This book is about the instinct to form churches that are of and for a particular place and what this might mean in a world where place is contested interconnected and ever changing Above all it is an attempt to move the conversation beyond the binary choices of parish or non new or inherited It offers a powerful and persuasive vision for a Church that is national only by being local a vision that can only be realised as churches continually become present to their places

An Introduction to Ecclesiology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2021-03-02 What is the church In this thoroughly revised and updated text Veli Matti Kärkkäinen provides a wide ranging survey of ecclesiology in the midst of rapid developments and new horizons This unique primer not only orients readers to biblical historical and contemporary ecclesiologies but also highlights contextual and global perspectives

Christian Mysticism and Incarnational Theology Louise Nelstrop, Simon D. Podmore, 2016-05-23 This book examines the relationship between transcendence and immanence within Christian mystical and apophatic writings Original essays from a range of leading established and emerging scholars in the field focus on the roles of language signs and images and consider how mystical theology might contribute to contemporary reflection on the Word incarnate This collection of essays re-examines works from such canonical figures as Eckhart

Augustine Plotinus Pseudo Dionysius Nicolas of Cusa Teresa of Avila John of the Cross Julian of Norwich along with the philosophical thought of Iris Murdoch Jacques Lacan and Martin Heidegger and the contemporary phenomena of the Emerging Church Presenting new readings of key ideas in mystical theology and renewed engagement with the visionary and the everyday the therapeutic and the transformative these essays question how we might think about what may lie between transcendence and immanence

A Field Guide to Methodist Fresh Expressions Michael Adam Beck, 2020-03-23

According to Fresh Expressions U S a Fresh Expression is a form of church for our changing culture established primarily for the benefit of those who are not yet part of any church Fresh Expressions are introducing people to Jesus expanding the kingdom and revitalizing churches Congregations need a practical and theological resource that can help them cultivate Fresh Expressions As consultants who work nationwide and as innovative pastors authors Michael Beck and Jorge Acevedo awaken congregational leaders and ministry teams to a distinctive Wesleyan approach for the Fresh Expressions movement In Wesleyan Fresh Expressions they show congregations how to cultivate and customize fresh expressions that fit their local context They motivate ministry teams to take risks experiment and when necessary fail well On April 2 1739 John Wesley went to a field just outside what was then the city limits of Bristol England There he tried a missional innovation called field preaching Thousands of people showed up many of whom who had no connection with a church Today most Methodists and other Wesleyans don't know their own story Lost in the milieu of divisive issues that threaten to tear the church apart Wesleyans have forgotten their DNA as a renewal movement born not from doctrinal disputes but from a missional imperative In this sense the Fresh Expressions movement is the most Methodist thing in the denomination today This iteration of the Spirit is taking it to the fields again Wesleyan Fresh Expressions will help guide the way

Making

Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction Apostles Today Benjamin G McNair Scott, 2014-12-25 Are apostles amongst us today According to a growing section of the church the answer is yes This book investigates and appraises the idea seeking answers to the following questions in the context of the church in Britain and the USA Is there a robust scriptural justification for the charismatic apostolate CA that most charismatic groups are proclaiming How widespread is this belief and why has it become more commonplace What kind of apostles are being advocated by influential popular teachers What does church history and tradition have to offer to this idea Is there a way to endorse and embrace the CA ecumenically Does the CA have a future in the universal church These are important questions to answer for the sake of the church's mission and health
