

Whether you are your own boss or manage a large team, recurring tasks take time from everyone. Tasks can also be assigned to others, making it easier for you to help keep up their productivity.

For example, if you're a manager, recurring tasks can help you keep track of employee productivity, work assignments, and more. You can also use recurring tasks as an opportunity to boost morale and celebrate accomplishments. You can also use quarterly reviews on the horizon and ensure you're prepared for those regularly scheduled meetings. For bonus points, try making a notebook for each individual employee and put recurring tasks in each of their notes.

Whatever your career or personal life demands of you, recurring tasks help help you stay productive, and make it easier for you to devote your brain space to what matters. Recurring tasks may live in your notes, but that doesn't mean they have to live in your head.
