Socially Engaged Public Art in East Asia Meiqin Wang, 2022-04-12 This anthology elucidates the historical global and regional connections as well as current manifestations of socially engaged public art SEPA in East Asia It covers case studies and theoretical inquiries on artistic practices from Hong Kong Japan mainland China South Korea and Taiwan with a focus on the period since the 2000s It examines how public art has been employed by artists curators ordinary citizens and grassroots organizations in the region to raise awareness of prevailing social problems foster collaborations among people of varying backgrounds establish alternative value systems and social relations and stimulate action to advance changes in real life situations It argues that through the endeavors of critically minded art professionals public art has become activism as it ventures into an expanded field of transdisciplinary practices a site of new possibilities where disparate domains such as aesthetics sustainability placemaking social justice and politics interact and where people work together to activate space place and community in a way that impacts the everyday lives of ordinary people As the first book length anthology on the thriving yet disparate scenes of SEPA in East Asia it consists of eight chapters by eight authors who have well grounded knowledge of a specific locality or localities in East Asia In their analyses of ideas and actions emerging from varying geographical sociopolitical and cultural circumstances in the region most authors also engage with concepts and key publications from scholars which examine artistic practices striving for social intervention and public participation in different parts of the world Although grounded in the realities of SEPA from East Asia this book contributes to global conversations and debates concerning the evolving relationship between public art civic politics and society at large

Public Art Encounters Martin Zebracki, Joni M. Palmer, 2017-09-05 Public art is produced and lived within multiple interlaced and contested political economic social and cultural symbolic spheres This lively collection is a mix of academic and practice based writings that scrutinise conventional claims on the inclusiveness of public art practice Contributions examine how various social differences across class ethnicity age gender religion ability and literacy shape encounters with public art within the ambits of the design regeneration and everyday experiences of public spaces The chapters richly draw on case studies from the Global North and South providing comprehensive insights into the experiences of encountering public art via a variety of scales and realms This book advances critical insights of how socially practised public arts articulate and cultivate geographies of social difference through the themes of power the politics of encountering affect the embodied ways of encountering and diversity the inclusiveness of encountering It will appeal to scholars students and practitioners of cultural geography the visual arts urban studies political studies and anthropology

Politics as Public Art Martin Zebracki, Z. Zane McNeill, 2022-12-30 Politics as Public Art presents a keystone collection that pursues new frameworks for a critical understanding of the relationship between public art and protest movements through the utilization of socially engaged and choreopolitical approaches This anthology draws from a unique combination of interdisciplinary scholarship and activism where it integrates geographically rich perspectives from political and grassroots community contexts spanning the United States Europe Australia and Southeastern Africa The volume questions and reimagines not only how public art practice can be integral to politics including forms of surveillance and control of bodily movement It also probes into how political participation itself can be construed as a form of public artmaking for radical social change and just worlds This collection advocates for scholar activist inquiry into how socially engaged public art practices can pave the way for thinking through and working toward championing more inclusive futures and as such choreographing greater intersectional justice This book provides a wide appeal to audiences across humanities and social science scholarship arts practice and activism seeking conceptual and empirically informed tools for moving from public art and choreopolitical theory into modes of praxis critical reflection and action

The Failures of Public Art and Participation Cameron Cartiere, Anthony Schrag, 2022-08-25 This collection of original essays takes a multi disciplinary approach to explore the theme of failure through the broad spectrum of public art and social practice The anthology brings together practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators planners and educators from around the world to offer differing perspectives on the many facets of failure in commissioning planning producing evaluating and engaging communities in the continually evolving field of art in the public realm As such this book offers a survey of currently unexplored and interconnected thinking and provides a much needed critical voice to the commissioning of public and participatory arts The volume includes case studies from the UK the US China Cuba and Denmark as well as discussions of digital public art collections The Failures of Public Art and Participation will be of interest for students and scholars of visual arts design and architecture interested in how art in the public realm fits within social and political contexts

The Routledge Companion to Art in the Public Realm Cameron Cartiere, Leon Tan, 2020-10-19 This multidisciplinary companion offers a comprehensive overview of the global arena of public art It is organised around four distinct topics activation social justice memory and identity and ecology with a final chapter mapping significant works of public and social practice art around the world between 2008 and 2018 The thematic approach brings into view similarities and differences in the recent globalisation of public art practices while the multidisciplinary emphasis allows for a consideration of the complex outcomes and consequences of such practices as they engage different disciplines and communities and affect a diversity of audiences beyond the existing art world The book will highlight an international selection of artist projects that illustrate the themes This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art art history urban studies and museum studies

Museums and Public Art? Cher Krause Knight, Harriet F. Senie, 2018-06-11 While many museums have ignored public art as a distinct arena of art production and display others have either grudgingly or enthusiastically embraced it Some institutions have partnered with public art agencies to expand the scope of special exhibitions other museums have attempted to establish in house public art programs This is the first book to contextualize the collaborations between museums and public art through a range of essays marked by their coherence of topical focus written by leading and emerging scholars and artists Organized into three sections it represents a major contribution to the field of art history in general and to those of public art and museum studies in particular It includes essays by art historians critics curators arts administrators and artists all of whom help to finally codify the largely unwritten history of how museums and public art have and continue to intersect Key questions are both addressed and offered as topics for further discussion Who originates such public art initiatives funds them and most importantly establishes the philosophy behind them Is the efficacy of these initiatives evaluated in the same way as other museum exhibitions and programs Can public art ever be a permanent feature in any museum And finally are the museum and public art ultimately at odds or able to mutually benefit one another

Art in the City, the City in Art Elisha Masemann, 2024-03-31 This Book examines an interplay between discourses on the city that stress the need for rational functional order and art's imaginative deviations from the topdown structures of urban life Moving between theory and praxis the book situates the city as both a concept and physical construct through which lives and possibilities are shaped or defined In response certain modalities of art create spontaneous non rational and playful interludes that risk escape from the urban apparatus and a hyper valorisation of rational order A three part framework is used to discuss this push pull dynamic and to assess the strategies of shock performative embodiment and intervention that emerged in post war art movements and in contemporary performance and participatory art practices The book examines how the disturbances introduced by artists throw the city construct into sharp relief making it visible and activating momentary encounters where new modes of expression can emerge This Book offers a new approach to interdisciplinary studies of art and urbanity The book aims to delineate how the city as concept and construct is made visible through artistic practice and in turn challenged or interrogated Students researchers and professionals with an interest in the interaction between art and urban studies will discover a new perspective on how urban conditions and issues have been addressed through artistic practice The book contributes to an evolving discourse in the urban humanities through an exposition of the city's default construct that is made visible or reimaged through visual art in public spaces

Socially Engaged Art and Ethics Anthony Schrag, 2025-07-18 Bringing together artists curators activists academics managers and educators from around the world this unique anthology examines the notion of ethics within socially engaged art The volume aims to deepen conversations around what good or right activities could be in this developing and expanding practice and readers are invited to consider the contextual nature of socially engaged art its politics infrastructures and values Supported by case studies from the United Kingdom the United States China Cuba South Africa and Norway as well as discussions relating to education cultural policy and activism this volume provides a much needed critical analysis in the making curating commissioning and managing of socially engaged art This collection is an ideal text for interdisciplinary courses that place visual arts including design or performance within social and political contexts but also for students and scholars of art art history and visual studies more generally

The City as Subject Carolyn S. Loeb, 2022-02-24 In The City as Subject Carolyn S Loeb examines distinctive bodies of public art in Berlin legal and illegal murals painted in West Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s post reunification public sculptures and images and sites from the street art scene Her careful analyses show how these developed new architectural and spatial vocabularies that drew on the city s infrastructure and daily urban experience These works challenged mainstream urban development practices and engaged with citizen activism and with a wider civic discourse about what a city can be Loeb extends this urban focus to her examination of the extensive outdoor installation of the Berlin Wall Memorial and its mandate to represent the history of the city s division She studies its surrounding neighborhoods to show that while the Memorial adopts many of the urban oriented vocabularies established by the earlier works of public art she examines it truncates the story of urban division which stretches beyond the Wall s existence Loeb suggests that by embracing more multi vocal perspectives the Memorial could encourage the kind of participatory and heterogeneous construction of the city championed by the earlier works of public art A Companion to Curation Brad Buckley, John Conomos, 2020-01-29 The definitive reference text on curation both inside and outside the museum A Companion to Curation is the first collection of its kind assembling the knowledge and experience of prominent curators artists art historians scholars and theorists in one comprehensive volume Part of the Blackwell Companion series this much needed book provides up to date information and valuable insights on the field of curatorial studies and curation in the visual arts Accessible and engaging chapters cover diverse contemporary methods of curation its origin and history current and emerging approaches within the profession and more This timely publication fills a significant gap in literature on the role of the curator the art and science of curating and the historical arc of the field from the 17th century to the present The Companion explores topics such as global developments in contemporary indigenous art Asian and Chinese art since the 1980s feminist and queer feminist curatorial practices and new curatorial strategies beyond the museum This unique volume Offers readers a wide range of perspectives on curating in both theory and practice Includes coverage of curation outside of the Eurocentric and Anglosphere art worlds Presents clear and comprehensible information valuable for specialists and novices alike Discusses the movements models people and politics of curating Provides guidance on curating in a globalized world Broad in scope and detailed in content A Companion to Curation is an essential text for professionals engaged in varied forms of curation teachers and students of museum studies and readers interested in the workings of the art world museums benefactors and curators The Spirit of the City Janna Jones, 2023-06-01 Marshall Fredericks s Detroit sculptures capture the spirit of the Motor City and its dramatic transformation from the 1950s to the present day In this book Janna Jones analyzes eight of these enormous works of public art situating them and their structures in metro Detroit s distinctive midcentury milieu and bringing much needed critical attention to this sculptor s oeuvre Sadly some of these artworks have suffered along with the city as it shrank from its postwar zenith Both the buildings and the sculptures erected for them deserve to be rescued from neglect and then maintained and preserved for the future Placemaking and the Arts Jennifer Allen Craft, 2018-10-30 What role does place play in the Christian life In this STA volume Jennifer Allen Craft gives a practical theology of the arts contending that the arts place us in time space and community in ways that encourage us to be fully and imaginatively present in a variety of contexts the natural world our homes our worshipping communities and society The Geographies of Digital Sexuality Catherine J. Nash, Andrew Gorman-Murray, 2019-05-22 This edited book engages with the rapidly emerging field of the geographies of digital sexualities that is the interlinkages between sexual lives material and virtual geographies and digital practices Modern life is increasingly characterised by our integrated engagement in digital material landscapes activities and our intimate life online can no longer be conceptualised as discrete from real life Our digital lives are experienced as a material embeddedness in the spaces of everyday life marking the complex integration of real and digital geographies Perhaps nowhere is this clearer than in the ways that our social and sexual practices such as dating or casual sex are bound up online and online geographies and in many cases constitute specific sexuality based communities crossing the digital material divide The aim of this collection is to explore the complexities of these newly constituted and interwoven sexual and gender landscapes through empirical theoretical and conceptual engagements through wide ranging innovative and original research in a new and quickly moving field

Art Against Authoritarianism in Southwest Asia and North Africa Tijen Tunali, Josepha Ivanka Wessels, 2025-01-23 Over the past decade there has been a burgeoning interest in the realm of art activism within the Southwest Asia and North Africa region shedding light on the political implications of aesthetic representation Nevertheless a critical inquiry into how political aesthetics can formulate both discernible and imperceptible resistance strategies in response to resurging authoritarianism and counter revolution after the 2011 uprisings in the region remains conspicuously absent This book delves into a comprehensive examination of diverse art forms ranging from street art and cinema to performance art as well as music and theatre scrutinizing the manifestations of aesthetic resilience at the epicentre of the political resistance against oppression and authoritarianism in Sudan Iran Egypt Tunisia Algeria Morocco Lebanon Yemen and Syria The editors employ a multifaceted approach to investigate artistic activism encompassing analysis of visibility ephemerality and speech within the public sphere the establishment and perpetuation of collective transnational solidarities the portrayal of suppressed identities and narratives and the innovation of alternative mechanisms for producing and disseminating art
