Everyman Today Call Rome:

Everyman Today Call Rome Charles A. Coulombe, 2011-09-01 Written in 1987 this is Charles Coulombe's first book in which he yearns for a retracement back to Catholic principles This book is comprised of three sections The first and largest section outlines the history of world events which have shaped our world and have ultimately led to the current crisis in the Church The second part discusses changes in the approach to the Mass the Sacraments and Christian life as a whole Mr Coulombe closes the book by explaining how a person can safeguard the integrity of his faith amidst all the challenges of today's world Everyman Today Call Rome is a historical narrative that is loaded with wit and insights in typical Coulombe fashion that you will not want to miss

Against the Stream Richard P. Cimino, 1997 Against the Stream examines the phenomenon of young adult conversion and return to traditional Christian religiosity The book is based on 50 case studies of young adults who have converted or returned to three tradition based faiths conservative and traditionalist Roman Catholicism the conservative Reformed or Calvinist tradition and Eastern Orthodoxy The book provides an account of these young adults beliefs as well as how they relate their faith to everyday life and social issues and illuminates the challenges of adhering to religious traditions in a society shaped by pluralism and religious consumerism These young adults are going against the stream by refusing to take a pick and choose approach to religious beliefs Choice plays a major role in how these young adults adopt and adapt these faiths to their lives Such selective retrievals of tradition for these young adults provide benefits and solutions for the ills and dislocations created by modernity such as the fragmentation secularism and politicization of society Co published with Religion Watch

While the Eyes of the Great Are Elsewhere William L. Biersach, 2000-09 In the words of Mr Biersach This little tome or collection thereof is intended as a word of encouragement for those Catholics who against all odds are attempting to hold on to their Faith for dear life or perhaps trying to rediscover it in the midst of the rumbling chaos And in the words of his good friend Charles Coulombe Our fate begins with our reply to that question asked of His disciples by Jesus Christ and continually referred to by Mr Biersach in this book Who do you say that I am Mr Biersach not only shows us in many ways how we must answer that question but why we must Moreover he does so joyfully The message he brings us is good news there is a way out of this world of sin and shadows and our eternity can be unparalleled bliss That being so Mr Biersach bids us as would his patron St Phillip Neri to begin the quest for Paradise with hope with happiness and with humor Never in this writer's admittedly short experience a mere four decades has his message been so timely and so needed Amazon.com
