Everyone Needs An Editor Some Of Us More Than Others:

Everyone Needs an Editor (Some of Us More Than Others) Larry McCoy, 2015-05-10 Rude raucous and often funny in a newsroom Larry McCoy has stuck to that winning combination in this memoir covering his life from an inexperienced writer at UPI to news director at CBS Radio to a retired journalist who is as appalled as non-journalists by what many news organizations consider news these days Too old to be hired again now he pokes fun at former employers and many of their products and practices He denounces performance reviews the U S media's obsession with the British royal family broadcasters who talk down to their audience journalists who make up stories know nothing bosses and a universe where virtually everyone feels the need to tweet Never comfortable swimming with the tide McCoy says the best journalist he ever met didn't even finish high school and that newswomen may ask better questions than newsmen As a public service to workers in all professions he provides guidelines on how to write a smart snappy note to your boss and if that doesn't do the trick to your boss's boss But he has kind words for writers producers overseas stringers desk assistants technicians and yes even a few anchors

Grandma Told Me to Never Believe Anything Grandpa Says Larry McCoy, 2019-11-01 Larry McCoy believes in non-stop fun and ice cream as every grandfather should He writes amusingly about adventures with his four grandkids on bikes skis diving boards and picnics from both his perspective and theirs McCoy won awards as a newsman but nothing has been as rewarding as hanging out with Nicholas Rachel Daniella and Cristiana Despite injuries and a pouty face or two the grandkids still speak to him Having saved them early on from the perils of parsley and pickles he wishes they would take his word that sweet potatoes are good for you

I Should Have Married My World History Teacher Larry McCoy, 2024-09-11 It's not every kid who falls out of his grandmother's moving car is labeled a vandal by his hometown newspaper and covers his face with a handkerchief in World History class but gets a passing grade Say hello to Larry McCoy a proud son of Frankfort Indiana His high school years were raucous ones with his talent for misbehaving so admired he was voted Class Clown in 1955 His was a world of fun and adventure playing ball trying to pull down girls' swimming trunks emceeding a talent show lying about damage to dad's car and a world of wonderful food breaded tenderloins strawberry pie and home-made noodles piled on mashed potatoes He writes lovingly of his grandmother of a favorite uncle and of his brother Jim who turned an empty field into a baseball diamond where second base was a cow patty After high school McCoy hit some bumps at Indiana University where his social life at first was limited to stocking shelves at the A.P. Still he probably learned more there than he did in college A flirtation with Catholicism strained relations with his devout Protestant parents But goofiness and good times won out after McCoy met Irene Kristoff at IU She was smart pretty and thought he was funny Rather than having her head examined Irene contacted a minister and married Larry He picked the title I Should Have Married My World History Teacher without consulting his bride of more than 60 years A very wise move
