A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland's castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland

Conserving and Managing Ancient Monuments Keith Emerick, 2014 A survey of the theory and methods of conservation from the nineteenth century to the present day highlighting future pathways The origins and use of conservation principles and practice from the nineteenth century to the present day are charted in this volume Written from the perspective of a practitioner it examines the manner in which a single dominant mode of conservation which held sway for many decades is now coming under pressure from a different and more democratic heritage management practice favouring diversity inclusion and difference The author blends case studies from Ireland Cyprus and England with examples from current practice community heritage initiatives and political policy highlighting the development and use of international charters and conventions Central to the main argument of the book is that the sacred cows of conservation antiquity fabric and authenticity have outlived their usefulness and need to be rethought Dr Keith Emerick is an English Heritage Inspector of Ancient Monuments in York and North Yorkshire he is also a Research Associate at the University of York

The Gunns; History, Myths and Genealogy Alastair Gunn,2020-02-15 Here is a radical academically based text which demolishes the myths currently masquerading as Gunn history Gunns are best thought of as the original non related inhabitants of northern mainland Scotland They do not have an Orkney Islands origin Gunns should not be viewed as a clan as they had no founding ancestor There was never an historic Clan Gunn Chief The first Gunn known to history was Coroner Gunn of Caithness who died around 1450 His eldest son started the MacHamish Gunns of Killernan line many descendants from that line exist all around the world Major detail on this MacHamish line is included This book is an important addition to Scottish Highland history
