Strategic Pricing and Management Accounting David Dugdale,2022-11-11 Management accountants should have a key role to play in developing and executing pricing strategy and policy However their historical focus on costing and operations means that their potential as business partners with marketing and sales professionals is easily overlooked This book focuses on how management accountants can help key stakeholders in the formulation and execution of pricing policy and conversely on showing managers responsible for pricing decisions how they could be helped by management accountants It equips management accountants with a unique overview of pricing theory the practical quantitative techniques they should know and the value they can bring to the pricing function The book analyses segmentation value to customer price value maps segmental pricing product differentiation and dynamic pricing with traditional economic theory showing how these ideas have implications for management accountants and the value that they can bring to the business Differences in customer value have been integral to economic theory for decades and price discrimination the technique of charging different prices to different customers for the same or similar goods is well established This observation provides the central core of this book The methods of price discrimination are set out in detail showing how management accountants can bring their analytical skills to bear in helping executives and pricing professionals take advantage of differences in customer valuation to improve profits The book provides a thorough overview of the field and offers a good introduction for researchers and students Equally the book shows managers marketers and pricing professionals how management accountants can assist them in delivering better pricing practice Advances in Management Accounting Marc J. Epstein, John Y. Lee, 2014-06-26 Volume 23 of Advances in Management Accounting features articles on a variety of current topics in management accounting that are relevant to researchers in both academe and practice From its position as one of the premier management accounting research journals the series is well poised to meet the needs of management accounting scholars Cost Management Edward Blocher, Kung Chen, Gary Cokins, Thomas Lin, 2004-02 Cost Management A Strategic Emphasis by Blocher Chen Cokins Lin is the first cost accounting text to offer integrated coverage of strategic management topics in cost accounting The text is written to help students understand more about management and the role of cost management in helping a firm or organization to succeed This text aims to teach management concepts and methods and how managers use cost management information to make better decisions and improve their company's competitiveness In teaching these key management skills the text takes on a strategic focus It uncovers issues such as how does a firm compete What type of cost management information is needed for a firm to succeed and How does the management accountant develop and present this information This text helps students learn why when and how cost information is used to make effective decisions that lead a firm to success CMA Review, 2005 Cost Management: A Strategic Emphasis ISE Edward Blocher, Paul Juras, Steven Smith, 2024-04-09 Transfer Price Confusion? - Proposing a comprehensive Taxonomy for Academia and Practitioners Arne Schulke, Hans Olaf Warning, 2024-01-24 Transfer prices TP are charged for products or services exchanged between units within a decentralized organization A vast body of literature from three very different academic disciplines legal management and economics is concerned with the topic of Transfer Pricing Their perspectives as well as terminology differ and are sometimes not aligned To abate this the article proposes a unified taxonomy on Transfer Prices that distinguishes three very distinct characteristics of any TP its Determination Method consisting of both its Calculation Method and its Price Method and the Determination Process by which the TP is installed The aim of this is to guide future academic research and provide academics and business practitioners alike with precise language and logical structure for the design of Transfer Pricing Systems Forestry Economics John E. Wagner, 2023-12-22 Forestry Economics introduces students and practitioners to the economics of managing forests and forest enterprises The book adopts the approach of managerial economics textbooks and applies this to the unique problems and production processes faced by managers of forests and forest enterprises What many future forest and natural resource managers need is to understand what economic information is and how to use it to make better business and management decisions John E Wagner draws on his 30 years of experience teaching and working in the field of forest resource economics to present students with an accessible understanding of the unique production processes and problems faced by forest and other natural resource managers The second edition has been updated to include Expanded discussion of compounding discounting and capital budgeting as well as an expanded discussion of when to replace a capital asset that has i costs but no direct revenue stream such as a machine ii costs and a direct annual revenue stream such as a solar array or iii costs and a periodic revenue stream illustrated by the forest rotation problem New practical examples to provide students with applications of the concepts being discussed in the text most notably on New Zealand and a Radiata Pine Pinus radiata Plantation A brand new chapter that develops business plans for for profit businesses to illustrate how a business plan is derived from the economic information contained within the Architectural Plan for Profit and how it can be used to make business decisions about continuing to operate a business or to start a new business This textbook is an invaluable source of clear and accessible information on forestry economics and management not only for economics students but also for students of other disciplines and those already working in forestry and natural resources
