but inside we're strong and fiery Reese's southern heritage informs her whole life and she loves sharing the joys of southern living with practically everyone she meets. She takes the South wherever she goes with bluegrass big holiday parties and plenty of Dorothea's fried chicken. It's reflected in how she entertains, decorates her home and makes holidays special for her kids, not to mention how she talks, dances and does her hair. In these pages you will learn Reese's fail-proof, only slightly insane hot roller technique. Reese loves sharing Dorothea's most delicious recipes as well as her favorite southern traditions from midnight barn parties to backyard bridal showers, magical Christmas mornings to rollicking honky-tonks. It's easy to bring a little bit of Reese's world into your home no matter where you live. After all, there's a southern side to every place in the world, right?

Forever Will Thomas Kidwell, 2014-11-26

Residing in rural southern Oklahoma, it's only been within the last seven years that Thomas Kidwell has come to fully express his passion for writing. In his novel Forever Will, he writes about a very unlikely romance that is patterned after a true life event that unfolded in Virginia during the turbulent years of the Civil War and the reconstruction years thereafter. That such a romance could flourish between two seemingly opposite people would be difficult to fathom in today's society, but such a romance not only occurred, it endured. Thomas leads us by the hand while we experience the daily toils, traumas and passions of two very special people—people who arose from the ashes of war to make a better life for themselves. Forever Will is truly a fascinating read with a distinct message sent to us over the span of time: Love will endure.

Dr. H. Norman Stillwell: I have known Tom for over thirty years now, yet it's always been impossible for me to predict what he will do next. At seventy years of age, Tom sums it up best in his own words when he says, "I still haven't figured out what I want to do when I grow up."
