Four Views on Hell Zondervan, 2016-03-08 Recent years have seen much controversy regarding a unified Christian doctrine of hell Do we go to heaven or hell when we die Or do we cease to exist Are believers and unbelievers ultimately saved by grace in the end By focusing on recent theological arguments Four Views on Hell Second Edition highlights why the church still needs to wrestle with the doctrine of hell In the fair minded and engaging Counterpoints format four leading scholars introduce us to the current views on eternal judgment with particular attention given to the new voices that have entered the debate Contributors and views include Denny Burk representing a principle of Eternal Conscious Torment John Stackhouse representing a principle of Annihilationism Conditional Immortality Robin Parry representing a principle of Universalism Ultimate Reconciliation Jerry Walls representing a principle of Purgatory Preston Sprinkle concludes the discussion by evaluating each view noting significant points of exchange between the essayists The interactive nature of the volume allows the reader to reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of each view and come to an informed conclusion BONUS CONTENT Includes entire first edition of Four Views on Hell to help readers grasp the history of the discussion and how it has developed over the last twenty years

Living in Tension, 2 Volume Set Douglas D. Webster, 2012-08-13 If you have picked up this book chances are you are a committed follower of Christ Like many searching Christians you are tired of religious busywork and showy piety You long for authentic worship and meaningful service You came to Christ with deep expectations of transformation and service but those passions have been starved by shallow theology and superficial relationships You are looking for something more You are ready to sink your mind into what the Bible says about the call of God the priesthood of all believers and what it means to live for Christ and his kingdom The two volume Living in Tension offers in depth spiritual direction on the crucial issues shaping a theology of ministry This is not a book for pastors only Webster intentionally blurs the distinction between pastor and congregation This book is for all believers who take God's call to salvation service sacrifice and simplicity seriously Living in Tension provides need to know insights for every congregation Pastors will find that this passionate and practical theology translates well into their own lives and into the life of the church

Remarriage after Divorce in Today's Church Zondervan, 2009-12-15 Despite a strong belief in the institution and sacredness of marriage studies show that Christian spouses experience divorce at least as much as the secular population But whatever the reasons for a divorce beyond the divorce itself many Christians want to know does the Bible support remarriage The fact is that no consensus exists among evangelicals on their views of remarriage leaving many Christians confused This Counterpoints volume explores the biblical and practical cases for the three main evangelical views on remarriage after divorce Remarriage is not acceptable after divorce defended by Gordon J Wenham Remarriage is acceptable only after adultery or desertion defended by William A Heth Remarriage is acceptable for a variety of reasons defended by Craig S Keener Each of the three contributors offers his point of view succinctly and with biblical support and each interacts with the others to help readers come to their own conclusions The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Evaluating the Church Growth Movement Zondervan,2010-06-01 What exactly is the Church Growth movement This timely volume in the Counterpoints series addresses the history of the movement that has become such an enormous shaping force on the Western church today and it explores in a roundtable forum of leading voices five main perspectives on the classic Church Growth movement Effective Evangelism View presented by Elmer Towns Gospel in Our Culture View presented by Craig Van Gelder Centrist View presented by Charles Van Engen Reformist View presented by Gailyn Van Rheen Renewal View presented by Howard Snyder Each view is first presented by its proponent then critiqued by the co contributors The interactive and fair minded format allows the reader to consider the strengths and weaknesses of each view and draw informed personal conclusions Evaluating the Church Growth Movement concludes with reflections by three seasoned pastors who have grappled with the practical implications of Church Growth The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Two Views on Women in Ministry Zondervan,2010-02-23 The role of women in positions of worship and church leadership is one of the most divisive and inconclusive biblical debates Two Views on Women in Ministry furnishes you with a clear and thorough presentation of the two primary exegetical arguments so you can better understand each one s strengths weaknesses and complexities Egalitarian equal ministry opportunity for both genders represented by Linda L Belleville and Craig S Keener Complementarian men and women fill distinctive ministry roles represented by Craig L Blomberg and Thomas R Schreiner This revised edition brings the exchange of ideas and perspectives into the traditional Counterpoints format Each author states his or her case and is then critiqued by the other contributors The fair minded interactive Counterpoints forum allows you to compare and contrast the two different positions and form your own opinion concerning the practical and often deeply personal subject of women in ministry The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Are Satan and his minions active around mankind through the world the flesh and the devil Is the enmity between his seed and the seed of the woman real and on display Can humans do anything to protect themselves from this real threat Does God provide protection and answers for these threats Join Jim Davis in the style of C S Lewis and Frank Peretti in exploring and answering all these questions with a year long daily review of actual Yahoo News headlines of 2023 presenting this spiritual warfare examination with the face of the reality of evil and the promises and hope of a Savior

Four Views on Moving Beyond the Bible to Theology Zondervan,2009-12-01 Learn to identify evaluate and refine your approach to forming theological conclusions based on the biblical text The Bible has long served as the standard for Christian practice yet believers still disagree on how biblical passages should be interpreted and applied Only when readers fully understand the constructs that inform their process of moving from Scripture to theology and those of others can Christians fully evaluate teachings that claim to be biblical In this book part of the Counterpoints series scholars who affirm an inspired Bible relevant and authoritative for every era present models they consider most faithful to Scripture Walter C Kaiser Jr Principiizing Model Daniel M Doriani Redemptive Historical Model Kevin J Vanhoozer Drama of Redemption Model William J Webb Redemptive Movement Model Each position receives critiques from the proponents of the other views Moreover due to the far reaching implications this topic holds for biblical studies theology and church teaching this book includes three additional reflections by Christopher J H Wright Mark L Strauss and Al Wolters on the theological and practical interpretation of biblical texts The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Five Views on Sanctification Melvin E. Dieter,Anthony A. Hoekema,Stanley M. Horton,J. Robertson McQuilkin,John F. Walvoord,2011-04-19 Christians generally recognize the need to live a holy or sanctified life But they differ on what sanctification is and how it is achieved How does one achieve sanctification in this life How much success in sanctification is possible Is a crisis experience following one s conversion normal or necessary If so what kind of experience and how is it verified Five Views on Sanctification part of the Counterpoints series brings together in one easy to understand volume five major Protestant views on sanctification Wesleyan View represented by Melvin E Dieter Reformed View represented by Anthony A Hoekema Pentecostal View represented by Stanley M Horton Keswick View represented by J Robertson McQuilkin Augustinian Dispensationalism View represented by John F Walvoord Writing from a solid evangelical stance each author describes and defends his own understanding of the doctrine sanctification and then responds to the views of the other authors The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Are Miraculous Gifts for Today? Zondervan,2011-10-11 Are

Miraculous Gifts for Today takes you to the heart of one of the most dividing questions in the Church today how are the Holy Spirit's miracles at work among God's people now Is he still actively giving the gifts of tongues prophecy and healing that fill the book of Acts Is he driving out demons when Christians command them to flee Or are these events confined to the time of the early church and the apostles This volume of the Counterpoints series provides an impartial format for comparing the four main positions on present day miracles including the history and distinctions between the three positions that affirm miraculous gifts with voice also given to a large sector of open but cautious evangelicals Cessationist there are no miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit today Pentecostal gifts are intended for today with certain nuances focused on baptism and speaking in tongues Charismatic gifts are intended for today and should be actively practiced Third Wave gifts are intended for today with greater emphasis on baptism and less on tongues This thought provoking book will help Christians on every side of the miraculous gifts debate to better understand their own position and the positions of others The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Five Views on Law and Gospel Greg L. Bahnsen, Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., Douglas J.

Moo, Wayne G. Strickland, Willem A. VanGemeren, 2010-09-21 An introduction to a complex theological issue that impacts our daily lives as believers in Christ What is the relevance of the Old Testament Law to our understanding of the Gospel and how it should be lived This book explores five major approaches to this important biblical topic as they've developed in Protestant circles Non Theonomic Reformed View the law is the perfection of righteousness in Jesus Christ Theonomic Reformed View the goodness of the law is dependent on how it's used and does not offer a way to salvation Heavily focused on Paul's discussion of the Law Law as Gracious Guidance View emphasizes the contrasts between the Mosaic law and the Gospel of grace while still asserting the Law's value Dispensational View approaches the Law from a historical perspective to help us understand its presentation treatment and recipients Modified Lutheran View the Law of Christ as the fulfillment of the Law of Moses This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Three Views on the Millennium and Beyond Zondervan, 2010-08-10 Is there biblical evidence for a thousand year earthly kingdom the Millennium ruled by Christ before the fulfillment of the new heaven and new earth Revelation chapter 20 seems to suggest so but few books of the Bible are so difficult to interpret And a discussion of the Millennium branches out into many other theological questions about the end times eschatology Are these the last days What must happen before Jesus returns What part does the church play This Counterpoints volume compares three views of the Millennium Premillennial Christ will come again before this kingdom is established Postmillennial our present age represents that kingdom and that the church is and must move toward the fulfillment of this kingdom Amillennial a future Millennium is not a literal kingdom and when Christ returns he will usher in an immediate new heaven and new earth Robert B Strimple Kenneth L Gentry Jr and Craig A Blaising offer their perspectives giving their exegetical reasoning Each of them then responds to the views held by their peers in a respectful and informative setting making it easy for you to compare their beliefs and gain a better understanding of how this aspect of Christianity's great hope the return of Jesus is understood by the church The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Five Views on Apologetics Zondervan, 2010-06-01 Of the most common approaches to apologetics which is most effective The goal of apologetics is to persuasively defend Christianity against charges of falsehood inconsistency or credulity It's an intellectual discipline that serves to bolster the faith of Christian believers and to aid the task of evangelism but are some methods more effective than others Five Views on Apologetics examines the how to of apologetics putting five prominent techniques under the microscope Classical represented by William Lane Craig Evidential represented by Gary Habermas Cumulative Case represented by Paul D Feinberg Presuppositional represented by John M Frame Reformed Epistemology represented by Kelly James Clark Offering a forum for presentation critique and defense this book allows the contributors for the different viewpoints to respond to the others Your own informed conclusions can then guide you as you meet the questions of a needy world with the claims of the gospel The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Four Views on the Apostle Paul Zondervan, 2012-08-07 An introduction to ongoing debates on the apostle Paul's life and teaching and his letters ramifications for the Church of today The apostle Paul was a vital force in the development of Christianity Paul's historical and religious context affects the theological interpretation of Paul's writings no small issue in the whole of Christian theology Recent years have seen much controversy about the apostle Paul his religious and social context and its effects on his theology In the helpful Counterpoints format four leading scholars present their views on the best framework for describing Paul's theological perspective including his view of salvation the significance of Christ and his vision for the churches Contributors and views include Reformed View Thomas R Schreiner Catholic View Luke Timothy Johnson Post New Perspective View Douglas Campbell Jewish View Mark D Nanos Like other titles in the Counterpoints Bible and Theology collection Four Views on the Apostle Paul gives theology students the tools they need to draw informed conclusions on debated issues General editor and New Testament scholar Michael F Bird covers foundational issues and provides helpful summaries in his introduction and conclusion New Testament scholars pastors and students of Christian history and theology will find Four Views on the Apostle Paul an indispensable introduction to ongoing debates on the apostle Paul's life and teaching The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Don't Fire Your Church Members Jonathan Leeman, 2016-01-15 Church membership is not just a status it's an office Leaders shouldn't fire members from the responsibilities given to them by Jesus they should train them When members are trained the church grows in holiness and love discipleship and mission Complacency and nominalism are diminished Jesus gives every church member an office in the church's government to assume final responsibility for guarding the what and the who of the gospel in the church and its ministry Similarly Jesus gives leaders to the church for equipping the members to do this church building and mission accomplishing work In our day the tasks of reinvigorating congregational authority and elder authority must work together The vision of congregationalism pictured in this book offers an integrated view of the Christian life Congregationalism is biblical but biblical congregationalism just might look a little different than you expect It is nothing less than Jesus' authorization for living out his kingdom rule among a people on mission Three Views on the Rapture Gleason Leonard Archer, 1996 This book explores three views on the Rapture Pre Mid and Post Tribulation The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies Shaped for Service Paul W Goodliff, 2017-11-30 In the English speaking Western world alone thousands of men and women begin formal training for Christian ministry each year or informally seek to equip themselves for pastoral ministry Over the past fifty years the ancient world of virtue ethics has been reimagined as a means of forming people of character and morality today In Shaped for Service this experience is used as the framework to understand what we are doing as we form Christian ministers now and how we might strengthen that development by more consciously linking the practices of ministry with the person spirituality and wisdom of the practitioner Writing from the context of a lifetime of pastoral ministry and the oversight of ministers in the Baptist Union of Great Britain Goodliff explores what pastors do and who they are called to be using a mixture of theological and pastoral enquiry reflections upon art and personal story This book will be of interest to those who are charged with forming the next generation of ministers but anyone beginning that journey of formation for ministry themselves will also find this vision of ministry challenging and inspiring The Sacrament of the Word Made Flesh Robert J. Stamps, 2013-08-01

Robert Stamps offers us a compelling case for the significance of the theology of Thomas Torrance to current discussions about Trinitarian doctrine and worship. He shows that Torrance's Christology and Eucharistic thought validates the Reformed confession of a profound real spiritual presence in the Eucharist. This book serves as a helpful introduction to Torrance especially his framing of revelation. Moreover, it invigorates our understanding of the theological meaning of sacramental devotion. Its readers will be stimulated, provoked, and dare I say inspired by its insights into and critiques of one of the most important and recent Reformed thinkers. In sum, this is a timely and exciting book. It will well serve pastors, theologians, and thoughtful Christians of many theological perspectives. MARK VALERI E T Thompson, Professor of Church History, Union Theological Seminary, Virginia. One of the values of this work is that it has deliberately sought not so much to discuss a particular problem or a collection of issues as to identify Torrance as an example of an archetypal Reformed theology of the Eucharist. To say that Dr Stamps has been industrious is patently an understatement; the truth is that he has been indefatigable in his search for the least morsel that Torrance offers. Yet it is not so much as a study of Torrance that this book is to be commended; its great value is that it offers a contextualization of Torrance's thinking on the Eucharist in ecclesiology, the more general dimension of an incarnational theology, as well as his understanding of cosmology and epistemology. I hope that Dr Stamps' book will not only find grateful readers but will be repaid by profound reflection on this symbol of the heart of faith. JOHN HEYWOOD THOMAS, Emeritus Professor of Theology, University of Nottingham.

Three Views on the New Testament Use of the Old Testament Zondervan, 2009-08-30

Three approaches to questions about the theological connection between the Old and New Testaments. The relationship between the Testaments is not as simple and straightforward as it sometimes appears. When New Testament authors appeal to Old Testament texts to support their arguments, what is the relationship between their meanings and what was originally intended by their Old Testament forebears? Leading biblical scholars Walter Kaiser, Darrel Bock, and Peter Enns present their answers to questions about the use of the Old Testament in the New Testament, addressing elements such as Divine and human authorial intent, context of passages, historical and cultural considerations, the theological grounds for different interpretive methods. Each author applies his framework to specific texts so that readers can see how their methods work out in practice. Each contributor also receives a thorough critique from the other two authors. Three Views on the New Testament Use of Old Testament gives readers the tools they need to develop their own views on the meaning, contexts, and goals behind the New Testament citations of the Old. The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair-minded and respectful of the biblical text. Each volume is a one-stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion.
