The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera, 2024-11-18 This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post colonial Zimbabwe the book explores how those in post colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land knowledge and minds of Africans resulting in injustice and epistemicides The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti black and toxic The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence unencumbered by Western political modernity and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions structures and systems that serve the interests of Africans This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics governance and international relations

Saved and Sanctified Deidre Helen Crumbley, 2012-04-22 During the early twentieth century millions of southern blacks moved north to escape the violent racism of the Jim Crow South and to find employment in urban centers They transplanted not only themselves but also their culture in the midst of this tumultuous demographic transition emerged a new social institution the storefront sanctified church Saved and Sanctified focuses on one such Philadelphia church that was started above a horse stable was founded by a woman born sixteen years after the Emancipation Proclamation and is still active today The Church as it is known to its members offers a unique perspective on an under studied aspect of African American religious institutions Through painstaking historical and ethnographic research Deidre Helen Crumbley illuminates the crucial role these oftentimes controversial churches played in the spiritual life of the African American community during and after the Great Migration She provides a new perspective on women and their leadership roles examines the loose or nonexistent relationship these Pentecostal churches have with existing denominations and dispels common prejudices about those who attend storefront churches Skillfully interweaving personal vignettes from her own experience as a member along with life stories of founding members Crumbley provides new insights into the importance of grassroots religion and community based houses of worship

La iglesia Mark Dever, 2020-03-01 Los cristianos tienen muchas preguntas prácticas cuando se trata de la vida en la iglesia local Como se muestra el evangelio en nuestras vidas Qué se supone que debemos hacer y creer Diferentes seguidores responden de manera diferente incluso cuando predicán el mismo evangelio Qué debemos pensar de tales diferencias La vida de una iglesia la doctrina el culto e incluso su forma de manejarse son cuestiones importantes Sin embargo rara vez se abordan La Iglesia es el manual de Mark Dever sobre la iglesia para todos los que ven la Escritura como la única autoridad suficiente para la doctrina y la vida de la iglesia local Dever explica al lector lo que dice la Biblia sobre la naturaleza y el propósito de la iglesia qué es para qué sirve qué es lo que hace De hecho la Escritura nos enseña sobre toda la vida y la doctrina de la iglesia incluso cómo debemos reunirnos para la adoración corporativa y cómo debemos organizar nuestra vida corporativa en conjunto Dios se ha revelado a sí mismo a través de Su Palabra Él nos habla nos prepara para representarlo hoy y para verlo mañana Una congregación de miembros regenerados que cumplen con las responsabilidades que Cristo mismo nos confiere en Su Palabra reuniéndose regularmente liderada por un cuerpo de ancianos guiados por Dios es la imagen que Él nos ha dado de Su Iglesia en Su Palabra Christians have lots of practical questions when it comes to life in the local church How is the gospel displayed in our lives together What are we supposed to do and believe Different followers answer differently even as they preach the same gospel What should we think about such differences A church's life doctrine worship and even polity are important issues Yet they are so rarely addressed The Church is Mark Dever's primer on the church for all who see Scripture alone as a sufficient authority for the doctrine and life of the local church He explains to the reader what the Bible says about the nature and purpose of the church what it is what it's for what it does Indeed Scripture teaches us about all of the life and doctrine of the church including how we should assemble for corporate worship and how we're to organize our corporate life together God has revealed himself through his Word He is speaking to us preparing us to represent Him today and to see Him tomorrow A congregation of regenerate members fulfilling the responsibilities given to us by Christ Himself in His Word regularly meeting together led by a body of godly elders is the picture God has given us of His church in His Word The Later Works of John Dewey, Volume 7, 1925 - 1953 John Dewey, 2008 This seventh volume provides an authoritative edition of Dewey and James H Tufts 1932 Ethics The Later Works, 1925-1953 John Dewey, 1981 John Dewey's Experience and Nature has been considered the fullest expression of his mature philosophy since its eagerly awaited publication in 1925

Irwin Edman wrote at that time that with monumental care detail and completeness Professor Dewey has in this volume revealed the metaphysical heart that beats its unvarying alert tempo through all his writings whatever their explicit themes In his introduction to this volume Sidney Hook points out that Dewey's Experience and Nature is both the most suggestive and most difficult of his writings The meticulously edited text published here as the first volume in the series The Later Works of John Dewey 1925-1953 spans that entire period in Dewey's thought by including two important and previously unpublished documents from the book's history Dewey's unfinished new introduction written between 1947 and 1949 edited by the late Joseph Ratner and Dewey's unedited final draft of that introduction written the year before his death In the intervening years Dewey realized the impossibility of making his use of the word experience understood He wrote in his 1951 draft for a new introduction Were I to write or rewrite Experience and Nature today I would entitle the book Culture and Nature and the treatment of specific subject matters would be correspondingly modified I would abandon the term experience because of my growing realization that the historical obstacles which prevented understanding of my use of experience are for all practical purposes insurmountable I would substitute the term culture because with its meanings as now firmly established it can fully and freely carry my philosophy of experience

Participatory Artificial Intelligence in Public Social Services Petra Ahrweiler, 2025-03-03 This open access edited volume focuses on fairness issues concerning the use of artificial intelligence AI for social service provision in national welfare systems With this it touches upon important questions in the innovation agenda of countries across continents about the ethics justice quality responsibility accountability and transparency to use AI for state functions The volume shows that in many countries AI or at least data analytics methods are already in place to support the assessment of beneficiaries for deciding on the value criteria to distinguish between legal fraudulent deserving non-deserving or needy non-needy recipients The book provides a cross-cultural comparison of AI-based social assessment among national welfare systems of 9 countries across 4 continents Spain Estonia Germany Iran India Nigeria Ukraine China and USA Based on participatory research results from multi-stakeholder inputs especially those from vulnerable groups the chapters in this volume show that value criteria for fairness and social justice are context-bound and vary across the globe Furthermore they are in constant flux aligned to social change Thus the volume looks at pathways to developing culture-sensitive responsive and participatory AI for social assessment in public service provision The contributions are interdisciplinary and introduce perspectives from the fields of sociology computational social science computer science and public policy This topical volume is of interest to a wide readership

Complexity Thinking and China's Demography Within and Beyond Mainland China Armando Aliu, 2024-06-22

This book uses complexity thinking to explore China's demography and population driven geopolitics within and beyond mainland China From a multidisciplinary perspective the book is relevant to the debates of Chinese demography studies and politics of contemporary China It combines international relations approaches demography research and legal studies to conceive the recent demographic trends and social transformations in China and across the world The book prioritizes the anthropological viewpoint to provide a better understanding of demographic phenomena and combine an anthropological demography perspective with complexity thinking and geopolitics This book will interest scholars of China of geopolitics and demographers

Decolonising State and Society in Uganda Katherine Bruce-Lockhart, Jonathon L. Earle, Nakanyike Musisi, Edgar C. Taylor, 2022 Key book on the debates surrounding the knowledge economy and decolonialization of African Studies that brings the subject up to date for the 21st century Decolonization of knowledge has become a major issue in African Studies in recent years brought to the fore by social movements such as RhodesMustFall and BlackLivesMatter This timely book explores the politics and disputed character of knowledge production in colonial and postcolonial Uganda where efforts to generate forms of knowledge and solidarity that transcend colonial epistemologies draw on long histories of resistance and refusal Bringing together scholars from Africa Europe and North America the contributors in this volume analyse how knowledge has been created mobilized and contested across a wide range of Ugandan contexts In so doing they reveal how Ugandans have built disputed and reimagined institutions of authority and knowledge production in ways that disrupt the colonial frames that continue to shape scholarly analyses and state structures From the politics of language and gender in Bakiga naming practices to ways of knowing among the Acholi the hampering of critical scholarship by militarism and authoritarianism and debates over the names of streets lakes mountains and other public spaces this book shows how scholars and a wide range of Ugandan activists are reimagining the politics of knowledge in Ugandan public life      Family James E. Hughes, Jr.,2010-05-13 Why do some families thrive for generations What accounts for the sad deterioration that others experience This book takes families and the professionals who serve them beyond the now widely accepted practices offered in Family Wealth and offers a view of Hughes s panoramic insights into what makes families flourish and fail It lays out the basis for the vision of family governance the author has been developing through his work and research His advice addresses not only what to do but how to think about the complex issues of family governance growth and stability and the ongoing challenge of nurturing the happiness of each family member      War and Peace in Somalia Michael Keating,Matt Waldman,2019-01-01 For the last thirty years Somalia has experienced violence and upheaval Today the international effort to help Somalis build a federal state and achieve stability is challenged by deep rooted grievances local conflicts and a powerful insurgency led by Al Shabaab Consisting of forty four chapters by conflict resolution specialists and the world s leading experts on Somalia this volume constitutes a unique compendium of insights into the insurgency and its impact War and Peace in Somalia explores the legacies of past violence especially impunity illegitimacy and exclusion and the need for national reconciliation Drawing on decades of experience and months of field research the contributors throw light on diverse forms of local conflict its interrelated causes and what can be done about it They share original research on the role of women men and youth in the conflict and present new insight into Al Shabaab particularly the group s multi dimensional strategy the motivations of its fighters their foreign links and the prospects for engagement This ground breaking volume illuminates the war in Somalia and sets out what can and should be done to bring it to an end For policymakers and researchers covering Somalia East Africa extremism or conflict resolution this is a must read      The City in South Asia James Heitzman,2008-03-31 The macro region of South Asia including Bangladesh India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka today supports one of the world s greatest concentrations of cities but as James Heitzman argues in the first comprehensive treatment of urban South Asia this has been the case for at least 5 000 years With a strong emphasis on the production of space and periodic excursions into literature art and architecture religion and public culture this interdisciplinary study is a valuable text for students and scholars interested in comparative history urban studies and the social sciences      Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi,A. Yong,2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world      Policy Making at the Second Tier of Local Government in Europe Xavier Bertrana,Björn Egner,Hubert Heinelt,2015-09-07 Debates about multi level governance have led to a profound restructuring of regional and local government The second level of local government is under review in most European countries with the aim to strengthen the institutional capacity of municipalities or to develop appropriate institutional structures for governing fragmented urban areas This book provides a thematic and cross national analysis of the key actors in local government that form the crucial components of effective and democratic policy making Focussing on the second tier of local government it examines new empirical data on councillors from this level of government in 15 European countries and integrates important variables such as party politics notions of democracy finance multi level settings Divided into five parts it addresses Attitudes of county provincial councillors towards administrative and territorial reforms Their role perceptions and role behaviour Their political orientation Actor constellations and governance arrangements Political socialization and recruitment professionalization and career patterns of county provincial councillors This book will be of interest to students and scholars of local government urban studies regional studies political science sociology and geography
