New Chinese Migrants in New Zealand Bingyu Wang, 2018-08-06 There are growing waves of desirable migrants from Asia moving to New Zealand a place experiencing increasing ethnic diversity particularly in its largest metropolitan region Auckland In purely demographic terms much of this diversity has been generated by policy shifts since the 1980s and the adoption of a comparatively liberal immigration policy based on personal merit without discrimination on the grounds of race national or ethnic origin Due to these changes migrants from China and Asia more broadly have become increasingly significant in migration flows into New Zealand This in turn makes New Zealand a valuable case study for understanding how Chinese migrants integrate into and affect their host nation Wang attempts to close a gap in contemporary research by relating cosmopolitanism to migration particularly in the Asian context With a cosmopolitan gaze towards migration studies she makes four key contributions to the ongoing scholarly discussion Firstly this is the first comprehensive study to use cosmopolitanism as a framework to study the lives of contemporary Chinese migrants with implications for migration studies as a whole It sheds light on the relationship between cosmopolitanism and migrant mobility taking a new approach to examine the living paradigms of international migrants Secondly this book identifies the emergence and development of cosmopolitanism outside the domain of Western middle class groups The concept of rooted cosmopolitanism is utilised to break down the Eurocentric notion of cosmopolitanism and to show the role played by Chinese rootedness during the process of becoming cosmopolitan and encountering diversity Thirdly the book advances and enriches the knowledge of studies in everyday cosmopolitanism by focusing on cosmopolitanism from below locating quotidian and down to earth cosmopolitan engagements that are grounded in everyday migrant lives Fourthly it looks at the emotional dimension of migrants negotiating difference and engaging in cosmopolitanism particularly the ways in which emotions undermine and promote the development of cosmopolitan sociability Mobile Urbanity Neil

Carrier,Tabea Scharrer,2019-07-11 The increased presence of Somalis has brought much change to East African towns and cities in recent decades change that has met with ambivalence and suspicion especially within Kenya This volume demystifies Somali residence and mobility in urban East Africa showing its historical depth and exploring the social cultural and political underpinnings of Somali led urban transformation In so doing it offers a vivid case study of the transformative power of forced migration on urban centres and the intertwining of urbanity and mobility The volume will be of interest for readers working in the broader field of migration as well as anthropology and urban studies Rescripting Religion in the City

Alana Harris,2016-04-22 Rescripting Religion in the City explores the role of faith and religious practices as strategies for understanding and negotiating the migratory experience Leading international scholars draw on case studies of urban settings in the global north and south Presenting a nuanced understanding of the religious identities of migrants within the modern metropolis this book makes a significant contribution to fields as diverse as twentieth century immigration history the sociology of religion and migration studies as well as historical and urban geography and practical theology

Racialization and Religion Nasar Meer,2015-04-10 This volume locates the contemporary study of anti-Semitism and Islamophobia squarely within the fields of race and racism As such it challenges the extent to which discussion of the racialization of these minorities remains unrelated to each other or is explored in distinct silos as a series of internal debates By harnessing the explanatory power of long established organizing concepts within the study of race and racism this collection of articles makes a historically informed theoretical and empirical contribution to aligning these analytical pursuits The collection brings together a range of perspectives on this subject including a comparison between Islamophobia in early modern Spain and twenty first century Europe an examination of the new anti-Semitism and an analysis of online anti-Muslim and anti-Semitic jokes This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Fighting

Discrimination in Europe Mathias Möschel,Costanza Hermanin,Michele Grigolo,2013-09-13 The member states of the EU have only very recently begun to consider race and racism in the framework of equality legislation and policies As opposed to an established Anglo-Saxon tradition of naming races and using racial categorisation to fight racism most continental

European countries resist this approach This book investigates the problematic reception and elaboration of race as a socio legal category in Europe Fighting Discrimination in Europe takes a fresh and interdisciplinary look at the normative theoretical and concrete problems raised by the challenge of devising and enforcing policies to combat race discrimination in Europe It engages with the juridical and political spheres from the international level down to concrete cases of state and city policies As the multifaceted relationship between race discrimination and immigration is explored new normative positions and practical approaches are developed and new questions raised This collection presents important new research for academics researchers and advanced students of Ethnic Studies Migration Studies Legal Studies Sociology Anthropology and Policy Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Theorising

Integration and Assimilation Jens Schneider,Maurice Crul,2014-06-11 Theorising Integration and Assimilation discusses the current theories of integration and assimilation particularly those focused on the native born children of immigrants the second generation Using empirical research to challenge many of the dominant perspectives on the assimilation of immigrants and their children in the western world in political and media discourse the book covers a wide range of topics including transatlantic perspectives and a focus on the lessons to be mutually learnt from American and European approaches to integration and assimilation rich empirical data on the assimilation integration of second generations in various contexts a new theoretical approach to integration processes in urban settings on both sides of the Atlantic This volume brings together leading scholars in Migration and Integration Studies to provide a summary of the central theories in this area It will be an important introduction for scholars researchers and students of Migration Integration and Ethnic Studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Reworking Postcolonialism P.

Malreddy,B. Heidemann,O. Laursen,2015-04-22 An interdisciplinary collection of essays Reworking Postcolonialism explores questions of work precarity migration minority and indigenous rights in relation to contemporary globalization It brings together political economic and literary approaches to texts and events from across the postcolonial world Rethinking Ethnography in Central Europe Hana Cervinkova,Micha? Buchowski,Zden?k Uherek,2015-09-09 In eleven ethnographic chapters of Rethinking Ethnography in Central Europe examines how issues of global economic and cultural dependencies mobilities citizens activism social movements and socio political aspects of post socialist modernities articulate on the level of everyday discourse and practices Methodologies on the Move Anna Amelina,Thomas Faist,Devrimsel D.

Nergiz,2014-10-14 This volume establishes a new agenda for approaches to migration research and the corresponding methodologies A wide range of international contributors focus on the question of how to overcome the so called methodological nationalism within empirical studies on migration They address two main challenges how to contextualize the empirical research field and how to deal with national and ethnic categorizations within the empirical studies Methodologies on the Move outlines first of all a new epistemological basis for migration research which is pinpointing the relational concept of space Second building on the multi sited method of ethnography it provides detailed insights into novel qualitative and quantitative research designs Third it presents innovative data collection methods on geographic and virtual mobility and on cross border social practices This volume transcends the early criticisms of methodological nationalism in migration research and suggests both general methodological lines as well as helpful tools for empirical analysis This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Rights, Cultures, Subjects and Citizens Susanne Brandtstädter, Peter Wade, Kath Woodward, 2013-09-13 This book questions the political logic of foregrounding cultural collectives in a world shaped by globalization and neoliberalization Throughout the world it is no longer only individuals but increasingly collective cultures who are made responsible for their own regulation welfare and enterprise This appears as a surprising shift from the tenets of classical liberalism which defined the ideal subject of politics as the unencumbered self the free equal and self governing individual The increasing promotion and recognition of cultural rights in international legislation multiculturalism and public debates on culture as a political problem more generally indicate that culture has become a more central terrain for governance and struggles around rights and citizenship On the basis of case studies from China Latin America and North America the contributors of this book explore the links between culture civility and the politics of citizenship They argue that official reifications of culture in relation to citizenship and even the recognition of cultural rights may obey strategies of governance and control but that citizens may still use new cultural rights and networks and the legal mechanisms that have been created to protect them in order to pursue their own agendas of empowerment This book was originally published as a special issue of Economy and Society Sacred Places, Emerging Spaces Tsypylma Darieva, Florian Mühlfried, Kevin Tuite, 2018-02-19 Though long associated with violence the Caucasus is a region rich with religious conviviality Based on fresh ethnographies in Georgia Armenia Azerbaijan and the Russian Federation Sacred Places Emerging Spaces discusses vanishing and emerging sacred places in the multi ethnic and multi religious post Soviet Caucasus In exploring the effects of de secularization growing institutional control over hybrid sacred sites and attempts to review social boundaries between the religious and the secular these essays give way to an emergent Caucasus viewed from the ground up dynamic continually remaking itself within shifting and indefinite frontiers Transnationalizing Inequalities in Europe Anna Amelina, 2016-09-13 Unequal life chances became a key feature of cross border migration to and within the enlarged Europe Combining transnational intersectional and cultural sociological perspectives this book develops a conceptual tool to analyse patterns contexts and mechanisms of these cross border inequalities This book synthesizes the theories of social boundaries and of intersectionality approaching cross border relations as socially generated and as an inherent element of contemporary social inequalities It analyses the mechanisms of cross border inequalities as regimes of intersection relating spatialized cross border inequalities to other types of unequal social relations in terms of gender ethnicity race class etc The conceptual arguments are supported by empirical research on cross border migration in Europe migration of scientists and care workers between Ukraine and Germany This book integrates the analysis of space including cross border categories of global and transnational into intersectionally informed studies of social inequalities Broadly it will appeal to scholars and students in the areas of sociology political sciences social anthropology and social geography In particular it will interest researchers concerned with transnational and global social inequalities the interplay of the categories gender ethnicity and class on the one hand and global and transnational relations on the other theories of space and society and migration and mobility in Europe Transnationalities of Migrant Moral Economies in a Transforming World Vytis Čiubrinskas,Nina Glick Schiller,2025-04-01 People who are on the move often occupy a state of betwixt and between in which moral and economic value is subject to change This enlightening and geographically wide ranging reassessment of migrant moral economies Transnationalities of Migrant Moral Economies in a Transforming World delineates migrants reciprocity responsibility and dignity as they respond to and contest unequal political and economic power In doing so this volume examines the transformative potential of transnational mobility to create social networks and to sustain reciprocity capable of resisting contemporary authoritarian efforts to sacralize borders and dehumanize migrants

Whose Cosmopolitanism? Nina Glick Schiller,Andrew Irving,2017-05 The term cosmopolitan is increasingly used within different social cultural and political settings including academia popular media and national politics However those who invoke the cosmopolitan project rarely ask whose experience understanding or vision of cosmopolitanism is being described and for whose purposes In response this volume assembles contributors from different disciplines and theoretical backgrounds to examine cosmopolitanism s possibilities aspirations and applications as well as its tensions contradictions and discontents so as to offer a critical commentary on the vital but often neglected question whose cosmopolitanism The book investigates when where and how cosmopolitanism emerges as a contemporary social process global aspiration or emancipatory political project and asks whether it can serve as a political or methodological framework for action in a world of conflict and difference Mobility between Africa, Asia and Latin America Ute Röschenthaler,Alessandro

Jedlowski,2017-08-15 Trade connections and cultural exchange between Africa and the rest of the global South have existed for centuries Since the end of the Cold War these connections have expanded and diversified dramatically with emerging economies such as China India and Brazil becoming increasingly important both as sources of trade and as a destination for African migrants But while these trends have attracted growing scholarly attention there has so far been little appreciation of the sheer breadth and variety of this exchange or of its deeper social impact This collection brings together a wide array of scholarly perspectives to explore the movement of people commodities and ideas between Africa and the wider global South with rich empirical case studies ranging from Senegalese migrants in Argentina to Lebanese traders in Nigeria The contributors argue that this exchange represents a form of globalization from below which defies many of the prevailing Western assumptions about migration and development and which can only be understood if we consider the full range and complexity of migrant experiences Multidisciplinary in scope Mobility between Africa Asia and Latin America is essential reading for students and scholars across the social sciences interested in the interconnected economic and social make up of the global South Indigeneity in Real Time Ingrid Kummels, 2023-03-17 Long before the COVID 19 crisis Mexican Indigenous peoples were faced with organizing their lives from afar between villages in the Oaxacan Sierra Norte and the urban districts of Los Angeles as a result of unauthorized migration and the restrictive border between Mexico and the United States By launching cutting edge Internet radio stations and multimedia platforms and engaging as community influencers Zapotec and Ayuujk peoples paved their own paths to a transnational lifeway during the Trump era This meant adapting digital technology to their needs setting up their own infrastructure and designing new digital formats for re organizing community life in all its facets including illness death and mourning collective celebrations sport tournaments and political meetings across vast distances Author Ingrid Kummels shows how mediamakers and users in the Sierra Norte villages and in Los Angeles created a transborder media space and aligned time regimes By networking from multiple places they put into practice a communal way of life called Comunalidad and an indigenized American Dream in real time The Global Turn Eve Darian-Smith, Philip C. McCarty, 2017-08 The ability to deploy interdisciplinary theoretical perspectives that speak to interconnected global dimensions is critical if one's work is to be relevant and applicable to the emerging global scale issues of our time The Global Turn is a guide for students and scholars across all areas of the social sciences and humanities who wish to embark on global studies research projects The authors demonstrate how the global can be studied from a local perspective and vice versa They show how global processes manifest at multiple levels transnational regional national and local all of which are interconnected and mutually constitutive This book takes readers through the steps of thinking like a global scholar in theoretical methodological and practical terms and it explains the implications of global perspectives for research design The Age of Asian Migration Yuk Wah Chan, David Haines, Jonathan Lee, 2014-08-11 The second half of the 20th century witnessed a series of mass migration in Asia due to war politics and economic turbulence Combined with recent global economic changes the result is that Asia is now the world region producing the most international migrants and receiving the second most migrants Asian migration has thus been of central concern to both academic researchers and policy communities This book together with its forthcoming second volume provides a full span discussion of Asian migration from historical perspectives to updated analyses of current migration flows and diasporas The book covers six sub regional areas through focused themes Northeast Asia Coping with Diversity in Japan and Korea East Asian Chinese Migration Taiwan Hong Kong and China Vietnamese Migration and Diaspora Cambodian Lao and Hmong Diaspora and Settlement Singapore New Immigrants and Return Migration South Asian Migration and Diaspora Academics as well as general readers will find this book useful for understanding the specific features of Asian migration and how these features have evolved since the latter part of the 20th century In providing an overall reassessment of Asian migration the book enhances academic discussion of Asian migration with crucial implications for migration related policy making in the region
