Cost Of Housing In Saratov City:

The Russian City in Transition Martha De Melo, Gur Ofer, 1999 Reform in 10 regional capitals along the Volga River is associated with favorable initial conditions And both reform and favorable initial conditions are associated with relatively successful economic outcomes except where access to extra resources improves outcomes or where weak government undermines success Russian Factory Women Rose L. Glickman, 1984 A Sophisticated detailed account of the lives of Russian factory women during the formative years of Russian industrial capitalism Glickman examines the interaction of class and gender that shaped the lives of women during this period of great often tumultuous social political and economic change Following women from the countryside into Russia s workshops and factories and describing their daily li9ves at work in the family and insociety the author suggests that women s habits aspirations and expectations were scarcely altered in the transition from agrarian to industrial life Back cover Housing and Urban Development in the USSR Gregory D. Andrusz, 1985-06-30 This study of housing and the urban environment in a socialist society sheds light on the discrepancy between plan and reality It investigates the sources and consequences of the problem and shows how the U S S R has attempted to find solutions Following a general background and overview section the book deals with the construction control and use of buildings in Soviet cities It then investigates the types of housing considered to be most appropriate for today s Russian urbanite Focusing on housing sites it shows the reality of the housing situation in the U S S R and uncovers spatial patterns of social segregation in Soviet urban development The question of high and low rise housing for workers is also discussed Andrusz shows how today s Soviet society has evolved away from certain patterns created by the architects of the Revolution New norms values and demands particularly in the visible form of a more privatized lifestyle the consumer oriented car ownership seeking nuclear family with segregated role playing have resulted in new dwelling needs The book is enriched with tables notes and references and a useful bibliography Russia in the Time of Cholera John P. Davis, 2018-03-09 As the nineteenth century drew to a close and epidemics in western Europe were waning the deadly cholera vibrio continued to wreak havoc in Russia outlasting the Romanovs Scholars have since argued that cholera eventually fell prey to better sanitation and strict quarantine under the Soviets citing as evidence imperial mismanagement a backward tsarist medical system and physicians anachronistic environmental interpretations of the disease Drawing on extensive archival research and the so called material turn in historiography however John P Davis here demonstrates that Romanov era physicians environmental approach to disease was not ill grounded nor a consequence of neo liberal or populist political leanings but born of pragmatic scientific considerations The physicians confronted cholera in a broad and sophisticated way essentially laying the foundations for the system of public health that the Soviets successfully used to defeat cholera during the New Economic Policy 1922 1928 By focusing for the first time on the conclusion of the cholera epoch in Russia Davis adds an indispensable layer of nuance to the existing conception of Romanov Russia and its
