Counseling and Psychotherapy Siang-Yang Tan,2022-04-19 This substantially revised and updated edition of a widely used textbook covers the major approaches to counseling and psychotherapy from a Christian perspective with hypothetical verbatim transcripts of interventions for each major approach and the latest empirical or research findings on their effectiveness. The second edition covers therapies and techniques that are increasing in use reduces coverage of techniques that are waning in importance and includes a discussion of lay counseling. The book presents a Christian approach to counseling and psychotherapy that is Christ centered biblically based and Spirit filled Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T. Carter, Alex L. Pieterse, 2020-07-21 A large body of research has established a causal relationship between experiences of racial discrimination and adverse effects on mental and physical health In Measuring the Effects of Racism Robert T Carter and Alex L. Pieterse offer a manual for mental health professionals on how to understand assess and treat the effects of racism as a psychological injury Carter and Pieterse provide guidance on how to recognize the psychological effects of racism and racial discrimination They propose an approach to understanding racism that connects particular experiences and incidents with a person s individual psychological and emotional response They detail how to evaluate the specific effects of race based encounters that produce psychological distress and possibly impairment or trauma Carter and Pieterse outline therapeutic interventions for use with individuals and groups who have experienced racial trauma and they draw attention to the importance of racial awareness for practitioners. The book features a racial trauma assessment toolkit including a race based traumatic stress symptoms scale and interview schedule Useful for both scholars and practitioners including social workers educators and counselors Measuring the Effects of Racism offers a new framework of race based traumatic stress that helps legitimize psychological reactions to experiences of racism Women's Reproductive and Sexual Health Kristina S. Brown, 2025-03-18 This book offers a groundbreaking exploration of women s health through a feminist lens challenging the status quo for both clinicians and medical providers highlighting the critical need for a more inclusive and empathetic approach to clinical practice and mental health research Addressing a spectrum of health concerns from prevalent issues such as heart disease cancer and stroke as leading causes of death for women to conditions uniquely affecting biological women such as pregnancy menopause miscarriage abortion polycystic ovary syndrome and endometriosis the chapters in this volume examine how these challenges intersect with gendered experiences It critically assesses the gaps in current healthcare practices including the often overlooked impact on couples and families and exposes the disparities faced by transgender women non binary and gender non conforming individuals By incorporating the latest literature and research on reproductive and sexual health this volume challenges traditional paradigms and gives voice to experiences that are often silenced. This book will serve as a crucial resource for students clinicians researchers and advocates committed to advancing women s health through a more equitable and intersectional framework. The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Feminist Family Therapy Theories and Applications of Counseling and Psychotherapy Earl J. Ginter, Gargi Roysircar, Lawrence H. Gerstein, 2018-03-22 Theories and Applications of Counseling and Psychotherapy provides students with the foundational knowledge needed to implement various therapeutic approaches in individual and family counseling The dynamic author team presents theories through a multicultural and social justice oriented lens including evidence to support each theory Students will embrace chapter concepts through vibrant illustrations and relevant examples from movies TV shows photographs paintings musical lyrics news articles and other sources presented throughout
