Homeschooling High School Shirley Erwee, 2014-08-28 Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers They need information and answers to their questions And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system Homeschooling High School also challenges readers to rethink their values particularly the value they place on certification and to consider some unconventional or alternative paths to success In a clearly presented format the book includes advice on legal matters identifying appropriate courses sourcing study material tips on entrepreneurship financing tertiary studies and the testimonies of successful homeschooled graduates Homeschooling High School is a comprehensive guide to plotting a path through high school and beyond Accessing Post-School Studies Venica McGhie, 2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , Shaping the Future of South Africa's Youth Helene Perold, Nico Cloete, Joy Papier, 2012 Why solving ongoing problems with the NQF National Qualifications Framework matters The challenges unemployment imposes on youth The challenge of youth to work transitions an international perspective A statistical overview of further education and training colleges Strengthening the capacity of FET Colleges to meet the needs of young people Higher education and an expanded post school educational system Trends in training in South Africa Key issues in the assessment of South Africa's national skills development strategy Opening the doors of learning Viewing the post school education and training landscape from a youth perspective The National Skills Development Handbook 2010/11 ,2010 Triangle of One Hundred Years Wars JJ Klaas, 2023-10-15 The book Triangle of One Hundred Years Wars provides an incredibly gripping and riveting South African historiography chronologically articulated through an endogenous lens by a native South African It chronicles a record reflective of the fundamental historical events within the southern part of Africa The narrative delineates the adroitness of the visionary leadership of amaXhosa given the successes and failures on the protracted wars etched in the Eastern Cape region Dr Jongi Joseph Klaas has a Bachelor of Pedagogics from the University of Fort Hare South Africa a Masters Degree from the from the University of Oklahoma in the United States of America and Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology from the University of Cambridge United Kingdom In 2015 he published Memoirs of Relentless Pursuit Currently he is working on the battlefields of the African wars of resistance When I wrote House of Phalo more than 40 years ago I could never have expected that we would have to wait so long for an African perspective Professor Jeff Peires The book itself is a victory it is a reward to those heroes who fought wars of resistance Ms Vathiswa Nhanha Librarian at Cory Library Rhodes University Jongi Klaas redefines the telling of history his stories have a soul they live in you Professor Ncedile Saule

Responding to the Educational Needs of Post-school Youth Nico Cloete, 2009 The research reflected in this volume indicates that in South Africa there are almost three million youth between the ages of 18 and 24 who are not in education training or employment a situation which points not only to a grave wastage of talent but also to the possibility of serious social disruption The authors in this work paint a picture of the enormous reservoir of human talent which exists in the country but is not provided with the means to develop Responding to the Educational Needs of Post School Youth attempts not only to sketch the scope and extent of the current post school educational crisis but also to explore possible solutions through collaboration in the higher education sector The findings reported here are a result of three distinctive but linked research components conducted by the Further Education and Training Institute University of Western Cape the Centre for Higher Education Transformation and the Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit University of Cape Town The research was funded by the Ford Foundation and the project conducted in consultation with the Department of Education

African Philosophical and Literary Possibilities Aretha Phiri, 2020-06-23 Recognizing philosophy's traditional influence on and literature's creative stimulus for sociopolitical discourses imaginations and structures African Philosophical and Literary Possibilities Re-reading the Canon edited by Aretha Phiri probes the cross referential interdisciplinary relationships between African literature and African philosophy The contributors write within the broader context of renewed interest in and concerns around epistemological decolonization and to advance African scholarly transformation This volume argues that in their convergent ideological and imaginative attempts to articulate an African conditionality African philosophy and literature share overlapping concerns and aspirations In this way this book engages and examines the intersectional canons of these disciplines in order to determine their intra continental epistemological transformative possibilities within broader global societal explorations of the current moment of decolonization Where much of the scholarship on African philosophy has focused on addressing issues associated with the postcolonial task of African self assertion in the face of or against Euro modernist hegemony this innovative book project shifts the focus and broadens the scope away from merely discoursing with the global North by mapping out how philosophy and literature can be viewed as mutually enriching disciplines within and for Africa

African Languages in Classrooms and Academia: Intellectualisation and Empowerment through Formal Education Xolisa Tshongolo, 2024-12-02 To date there have been few comprehensive books published which deal specifically with the role of African languages in academia and formal education Motinyane Mletshe and Tshongolo as editors have produced a book that fills this gap In this timely collection of 21 chapters written in African languages and English the contributors offer a critique of both language practice in the classroom as well as language planning policy creation and implementation challenges A timely and innovative contribution in the area of language in education teaching pedagogy as well as multilingualism Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training,2016 The A to Z of Careers in South Africa ,2006 The Times Index ,1996 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Black Consciousness Hlumelo Biko,2021-09-09 If Steve Biko were alive today we would have a country that gladly embraces African culture as the dominant driving force for how society is organised In 1968 two young medical students Steve Biko and Mamphela Ramphele fell in love while dreaming of a life free from oppression and racial discrimination Their love story is also the story of the founding of the Black Consciousness Movement BCM by a group of 15 principled and ambitious students at the University of Natal in Durban in the early 1970s In this deeply personal book Hlumelo Biko who was born of Steve and Mamphela s union movingly recounts his parents love story and how the BCM s message of black self love and self reliance helped to change the course of South African history Based on interviews with some of the BCM s founding members Black Consciousness describes the early years of the movement in vivid detail and sets out its guiding principles around a positive black identity black theology and the practice of Ubuntu through community based programmes In spiritual conversation with his father Hlumelo re examines what it takes to live a Black Consciousness life in today s South Africa He also explains why he believes his father who was brutally murdered by the apartheid police in 1977 would have supported true radical economic transformation if he were alive today Theory from the South Jean Comaroff,John L. Comaroff,2015-11-17 As nation states in the Northern Hemisphere experience economic crisis political corruption and racial tension it seems as though they might be evolving into the kind of societies normally associated with the Global South Anthropologists Jean and John Comaroff draw on their long experience of living in Africa to address a range of familiar themes democracy national borders labour and capital and multiculturalism They consider how we might understand these issues by using theory developed in the Global South Challenging our ideas about developed and developing nations Theory from the South provides new insights into key problems of our time Sources ,1997 Black Composers of Southern Africa Yvonne Huskisson,1992 This publication contains details of a new up and coming generation of composers It provides information on 318 composers and as such is a standard reference word on local composers All About South Africa Rob Marsh,2013-07-22 All About South Africa is a comprehensive reference book for all South African children with enquiring minds and a lively interest in the world around them Packed with colourful photographs and illustrations the simple and thematically presented text is both easy to read and to understand This fascinating introduction to our country looks at life in southern Africa long long ago and explores the culture of our land and the people who helped shape our unique South African community It provides an intriguing insight into the ever changing world of science and technology and our sometimes puzzling economy This valuable reference work also introduces young readers to our equally important natural heritage the coasts mountains and climate of the land and the country s rich variety of wildlife Now in it s 7th print edition and fully updated this well researched and visually stimulating volume offers all this information and much much more Complemented by lists of recommended place to see All About South Africa is an essential addition to the bookshelf of every South African child Voices from the Underground Shanil Haricharan, Shirley Gunn, 2019-10-01 In 1987 the apartheid minister of law and order boasted that the security forces had crushed Umkhonto we Sizwe in the Western Cape He could not have been more wrong The Ashley Kriel Detachment named after one of their slain comrades conducted over thirty operations between late 1987 and early 1990 playing a crucial role in the defeat of an unjust system In Voices from the Underground eighteen members of the AKD give accounts of their involvement in the armed struggle The book traces their varying journeys into MK via student activism trade unions religious organisations and UDF politics It details their training in Angola Botswana Tanzania Cuba and South Africa and their experiences of detention and interrogation Members recall the stresses of couriering arms and explosives across police roadblocks hiding in safe houses and evading capture They talk about the operations they executed the measures they took to avoid civilian casualties and their responses to security breaches and the deaths of comrades in the line of duty Above all this is a book about people showing the effects of apartheid on their lives their reasons for joining the armed struggle the challenges of surviving in the underground while raising children and their experiences of returning to civilian life or in some cases integrating into the SANDF Voices from the Underground gives a human face to ordinary people who took up arms to fight a violent state for the freedom of all South Africans
